Reminder
Anyone interested in the beautification, improvement and the preservation, improvement and the roundings of the locality should not miss this evening's (March 29) meeting of Thornhill Horticultural Society at Thornhill United Church, at 8 p.m.

Presidents of the Don Valley Conservation Authority and Association will take part in the programme, and will show films of the proposed Don Valley project.

The Junior members will meet at 6.30 under the direction of Mrs. William Banks.

A discount on flower and vegetable seeds is one of the special benefits offered the members.

Cubs Thank Residents
The Leaders and boys of the Thornhill Cub Packs wish to thank the people of Thornhill and surrounding district for their co-operation with the Hot Cross Buns last week. Over 400 dozen were delivered to the homes and in this connection the Packs would like to thank Mrs. Terry Jackson for driving the boys around to deliver the buns, also Mr. John Taylor and Mr. Peter Woodger for their assistance; and Mrs. Bill Hansen, who assisted by Mrs. Gibson and Mrs. Spence served hot chocolate at the Scout Hut which was the distributing point.

Home and School
The Thornhill Home and School Association will hold its second monthly meeting on Thursday, April 5 at Thornhill Public School at 8.15.

Mr. C. Howitt, the School Inspector, will be the speaker for that evening. His subject, "An Inspector looks at Education" should be very informative and interesting.

The Thornhill School Senior Choir will entertain with their singing and refreshments will be served at the end of the meeting.

W. I. Card Party
A most successful card party was held Tuesday evening of last week by members of the Thornhill Women's Institute, in the recreation room, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alec Jamieson on Elmbank. Eleven tables of players enjoyed a very pleasant evening after braving the bad weather and road conditions. Prize winners were as follows: Ladies, first Mrs. Talbot Findlay; 2nd Mrs. Arthur Clapham. Gents, first, Mr. Gordon Walker; 2nd Mr. Jim France.

Kindergarten Bake Sale
Proceeds of the bake sale, tea and free lucky draw which Thornhill Community Kindergarten mothers are holding on Saturday of next week, are to be used for the purchase of equipment for the nursery school.

Further details appear in the Coming Events column and the interesting story of the kindergarten is featured elsewhere in this issue.

Brownie News
The Brownies were lucky again with their weather on Good Friday and were able to go for their visit to the maple sugar bush. Mr. Baker gave the girls samples of the sap and of the maple sugar after they had watched it go through the interesting process which changes it from one to the other. The Brownies were also intrigued by two artists whom they saw transferring the scene to canvas. There was an excellent turnout and the girls and Leaders are grateful to Mr. Baker and the parents who provided transportation for the occasion.

Guide News
Captain Joyce Healey, Lieutenant Evelyn Thornycroft and Ranger Wendy Ross accompanied the Patrol Leaders and Seconds on a hike on Good Friday. Working in pairs the Guides lit fires and cooked their lunch and received other training so that later on they can take out their own patrols and teach them to enjoy woodcraft.

Miss J. Healey has been spending five days of this week with her sister, Mrs. N. Wood, at Bethany.

The Carrville United Church Women's Association will meet at the home of Mrs. R. A. Kirk on Wednesday evening, April 4, at 8 p.m. Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Lewis will be in charge of the devotional period and Mrs. Baker and Mrs. McEwen are social convenors. All ladies are welcome.

Special attention is drawn to the ladies of Carrville W.A. and any ladies of the community to the invitation for Monday, April 2, to go to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Read's home at Stouffville. It is hoped a good number are planning to go.

During Easter holidays Carrville Public School is being repaired, with a new roof and floor. When the teacher, Mr. A. Sohm, drew the children's attention to the fact that the old floor was being replaced by a new one, it is said that some of the children went so far as to kiss the floor good-bye, "Parting is such sweet sorrow."

Mr. and Mrs. George Kier of Toronto spent Easter week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Jack McEwen.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barton and John spent Good Friday in Toronto with Mr. and Mrs. Dean Wilson, John remained with the Wilsons for a holiday.

Mr and Mrs. Harry Walker and son John of Newmarket and Mr. George Walker, Victoria Harbour, had tea Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Middleton and Dr. and Mrs. Wilbert Walker and daughter Lois of Ingersoll visited on Sunday evening.

Easter visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wood were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Evringham and family and Mr. and Mrs. Albin Evringham and family all of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Reid and son Gordon of Highland Creek visited on Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wynn.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Stevenson and Doreen, Alex, Edward and baby Norman of Newtonbrook visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Varley on Easter Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ferguson and son visited on Easter Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Haworth, May Ave. Mrs. Ferguson said it was a better visit than Christmas as all her brothers and sisters and families were there.

John Read of Stouffville visited with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Rad, for several days and Mrs. A. Read went Sunday evening to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Read at Stouffville.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kirk of Toronto and Mr. Ken Kirk were home for Easter with Mr. and Mrs. R. Kirk.

On Monday evening March 19, the families of Mr. and Mrs. Art. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Buchanan and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Buchanan met with the Edgeley Farm Forum at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chapman.

After the forum meeting, they presented Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jackson with a beautiful hand painted picture done by Mrs. Mary Young of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson will be moving to Toronto sometime in April.

On April 3, at 1-30 p.m. Immunization for infants and pre-school children against diphtheria, whooping-cough, lock-jaw and small pox will begin in Concord school. Do not forget this date, mothers.

Elia
The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Association of the Elia United Church will be held in the home of Mrs. Russel Pearson on Tuesday, April 3rd.

About 50 attended a social evening and presentation for the Ross Anderson family arranged by their many friends, and held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Snider on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson were presented with a coffee table and a green upholstered rocking chair and John Anderson with a book. They are moving this week to Harrison, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stuart and Jimmy of Brantford, together with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Simmons and their two little daughters, Wendy and Valerie, visited with Mr. and Mrs. R. Stuart on Easter Sunday.

Sherwood News
The regular monthly meeting of The Women of the Lutheran Church was held on Wednesday, March 21, at the home of Mrs. Chas. Lines. The lesson was the twenty-fourth psalm read responsively. The devotions were taken by Mrs. R. G. Keffer. Mrs. Keffer also took the topic "Triennial Emphasis of the W.M.S." W for worship; M for membership; S for Stewardship. The serving of refreshments by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Lawrence Keffer, brought to a close an interesting afternoon.

Zion Lutheran Church April 1: Sunday School at 1:30; service at 2:30.

JACKES AVENUE NEWS
CORRESPONDENT: — MRS. M. BELL,
17 Jackes Avenue, Thornhill
Telephone Thornhill 294R3

Mr. and Mrs. L. Armstrong spent Easter at Oro with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Uncle.

The Jackes Avenue South-East Vaughan Ratepayers Auxiliary meeting is being held at Mrs. B. Elvin's, 16 Jackes Avenue, March 29. Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

Mrs. Peggy Knipple visited her mother, who has been ill for some time at Long Branch on Saturday.

On March 21 the Jackes Avenue South-East Vaughan Ratepayers Association held their meeting in the Powell Road School. They have asked the Vaughan Township Council to attend their next regular meeting in April.

Mrs. Edith Warren of Castleton, Ontario, was the guest of her brother, Mr. Bell, over the Easter holiday.

Alterations are being made at the Powell Road School to the doors on the clothes boards to avoid the children getting their fingers caught.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Griffiths were visited on Good Friday by their godson, Gilbert Sidney Birks and his mother of Toronto, prior to his departure on Saturday for H.M.C.S. Cornwallis, Halifax, N.S.
