Thornhill United Church News

Easter Services
 Rev. R. J. D. Morris, B.A., B. D., preached a very inspiring sermon on "The Cross" at the Devotional Service at which was fair attendance on Good Friday.

On Sunday the front of the church was beautifully decorated with Easter lilies placed there by Mrs. N. L. Morton in loving memory of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Connell. The congregation completely filled the church for the morning service, which was very impressive. The Junior Choir sang numbers, "Sweet Bells of Easter Time" and "Good Joseph had a Garden." The Senior Choir offering was "In Joseph's Lovely Garden" by Dickinson, and Miss Phyllis Watson, soprano, rendered a solo, "I Know that My Redeemer Liveth" by Handel. The glad note of Easter was sounded by the congregation as they joined in the joyous season's hymns. The minister's theme was "The Emmaus Road, a Road of Fellowship, of Victory and of Life."

In the evening there was a good congregation present for the religious film "The Great Commandment" which was very well received. Mrs. W. Heath, in her rich contralto voice, added much to the service with her rendition of "Open the Gates of the Temple" by Knapp and "The Easter Hymn" by Atwood.

At the morning service, the following children were baptized by Rev. E. E. Kent:
 Robert William, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rouxel, Colborne St.; Daniel Robin, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Linklater, Johnson Street; Katherine Blake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. S. Duncan, Arnold Street; and Cynthia Anne Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Holmes, John Street.

C. G. I. T.
 The course in Home Nursing which the group has been taking during the past four weeks under the direction of Mrs. Tamblin, R. N., was concluded on March 21 by a test with Mrs. A. D. McKelvey, R.N. of Toronto as examiner. The three girls awarded the highest marks were Marilyn Clapham, Morey Honey and Carol Smith.

Besides this course, activities of the C.G.I.T. group since Christmas have included the moulding and painting of plaster of Paris models, and a Bible study course entitled "Courageous Living."

EDGELEY NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: Mrs. Raymond Stuart, R. R. 1, Maple Telephone Maple 110R3

The Young People's Fellowship Group met at the church on Friday evening, March 23, with Don Mitchell, president, in the chair and in charge of opening devotions. He was assisted by Jack Burns, Barbara Freeman and Shirley Avery.

During the business meeting it was decided to visit the head office of the Globe and Mail, Toronto, on next Wednesday evening.

After the meeting four young women received the rite of baptism, June and Margery Young, Esther Stanley and Mrs. Don Mitchell.

Rev. P. J. Lambert gave the final address to twelve young people coming into church membership on Easter Sunday.

Easter Sunday was memorable for Edgeley United Church. The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Sydney Steventon, with Mrs. Alf. Bagg at the organ, rendered special music. Those singing special numbers were Mrs. Kerr-Taylor and Mrs. Burns, who rendered a duet. Sydney Steventon sang a solo. A male chorus consisting of Roy Avery, Larry Burns, Gordon Mitchell, Sydney Steventon took the special parts in the anthem.

Beautiful Easter flowers, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Poole, were in the chancel. At the Communion service twelve young people were received into full membership.

The regular weekly meeting of the Farm Forum was held Monday evening, March 19, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chapman with 25 present.

The topic "Pipelines of Information," and the discussion on agricultural services was, more or less, an outline of the means by which information on the latest developments in farming practice is made available to the farmer.

The extension services of the Canadian Departments of Agriculture, both Dominion and Provincial, the Provincial Universities, farm organizations, the National Film Board, etc., aid the farmer with their bulletins, films, etc.

The reading of farm publications, daily and weekly newspapers; listening to farm radio programmes, and even "looking over the neighbor's fence" were mentioned as other excellent ways in which the farmer could become better informed in the personal contact of the farmer with his district agricultural representative when in need of information. The weekly Farm Forum meetings have come to an end for this season.

Good programmes, capable leaders, and the regular attendance of members contributed to the success of these meetings.

A pot luck dinner at the school on Wednesday, ended the serving of hot school lunches for the season.

On Thursday the children enjoyed a party, complete with programme, refreshments, and a fish pond, before closing the school for the Easter recess. Classes will resume on April 2nd.

Immunization for infants and pre-school children against diphtheria, whooping-cough, lock-law and small pox will begin in Edgeley school at 2.30 p.m. on Apr. 3.
