Honor Bride-To-Be
Those entertaining last week in honor of Miss Jean Lippert, popular bride-to-be, were Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Keen who arranged the miscellaneous shower given on March 22 in the home of Mrs. Fred Lippert.

Mrs. Gordon Johnson of Willowdale gave a cup and saucer shower, and the office associates a miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. Del Medico, College St., Toronto.

On Friday, March 30, at the home of Miss Norma Poole, a group of young people presented Miss Lippert with a tri-light floor lamp and a mirror.

Those visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Bolen Henderson during the week are Mr. and Mrs. Bert Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Henderson and daughter, May, and Mr. C. Oliver of Corbetton.

Miss Marian Poole together with 74 girls of the office staff of the Workmen's Compensation Board travelled by bus to Washington, D. C. during the Easter week-end. They also visited Alexandria, Virginia and other places before returning home on Monday.

The stork paid two visits to Concord last week and delivered a baby boy to Mr. and Mrs. Whaley and a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Darling.

Mrs. W. J. Honey of Norham visited with Mrs. P. D. Snider last week. Mrs. Edgar Crozier of Islington visited with her mother, Mrs. Church, and her sister, Mrs. Paul Snider on Sunday.

A send-off party in the form of a dance and euchre for the younger Andersons was given in the Elia school house last week by the Young People's Union. Bob and Douglas were presented with a pen and pencil set and Dorothy with a lamp. The Anderson family moved last week to Harriston, Ont.

The Hamilton Conference of Lutheran ministers and laymen met in the church on Tuesday.

Mr. Albert Line passed away last week. Burial took place on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Keffer and Mr. and Mrs. Klink attended the funeral of Mr. Albert Krowder of Heidelberg last Tuesday.

The Fellowship Group met in the Carrville United Church on Thursday evening, March 29, at 8 p.m. with about 30 present. Rev. Kent called the meeting to order and opened with hymn and "Lord's Prayer."

After the minutes were read and approved, Mrs. Bert Middleton introduced the guest of the evening, Dr. J. P. and Mrs. Wilson of Richmond Hill. Dr. Wilson expressed pleasure at being invited to come and show the slides and films taken on his trip to the British Isles and Holland last year. The pictures were very lovely and some quite colourful. Dr. Wilson spoke on the various highlights of the trip and was most interesting indeed. Mrs. Kirk moved a vote of thanks to Dr. and Mrs. Wilson for giving us the privilege of seeing these pictures as most of us will not likely have the pleasure of such a trip; seeing the pictures was certainly next best to going.

Refreshments were served by the M to Z group and a pleasant social half hour was spent.

Home and School
The Thirty-second Convention of Ontario Federation of Home and School Associations, Inc., was held at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, on March 27, 28 and 29. The theme of the convention was "Parents are Education." Mrs. E. Pering and Mrs. B. Middleton represented Carrville Home and School Association and Mrs. E. Lewis attended the evening session also.

Mrs. M. D. McLellan of Brantford and President of Ontario Federation of Home and School Associations welcomed the delegates in her most pleasing and fitting manner.

On Tuesday afternoon the session opened with "O Canada" and prayer. A short business session and reports of convenors followed. After a panel discussion on "A Child's Bill of Rights" under leadership of Mr. L. A. Kelis of Belleville, Religious Education was taken by Mrs. Eva Gordon Pankin of Ottawa.

A play "Scattered Showers" was presented by the Midland players followed by a demonstration study group led by Professor Alan Klein, University of Toronto. A conference was held in the evening for rural schools under the leadership of Mrs. J. D. MacIntosh of Kingston. This was very helpful and informative. One of the topics was on "Health" and we in York County must be very proud and must recognize our Health Unit as there are a great many counties who want one and can't seem to get one.

Farewell Party
A farewell party was held at the home of Dr. Walker, Dufferin Street, in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ferguson who are leaving this neighbourhood to take up a new home at Schomberg. There were over forty Carrville and Concord friends present. The evening was spent in euchre and crokinole and friendly happy chatter.

During the evening, Mrs. John A. Baker read a very appropriate address in which she said in the words of the song "So long — been good to know you" but hoped that the time wouldn't be too long before they came back to see their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson were then presented with a beautiful seven-piece chrome dinette suite and buffet. These lovely gifts were given in token of the esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson are held. They were taken very much by surprise and thanked the friends and hoped they would come to visit them at Schomberg.

A very pleasant social half hour was spent when several of the ladies served refreshments. Mr. Johnny Baker on behalf of the gathering thanked Dr. Walker for the use of his lovely home for the

EDGELEY NEWS

Correspondent: Mrs. R. Stuart, R. R. 1-Maple Tel. Maple 110R3

The members of the Young People's Fellowship had an interesting trip to the offices of the Globe and Mail on Wednesday evening. On arrival they were divided into two groups under the leadership of two university students. During the tour they saw every phase of composing and printing Toronto's morning newspaper. On their departure from the office each was given a copy of the paper which now has a special interest to them because they had seen it produced.

The Edgeley Farm Forum met through invitation with the Farm Forum of Emery in the Emery Hall on the 26th, with over 50 present.

After the summaries given on the air by each provincial secretary across Canada, they were entertained by Mr. Jas. Store who showed pictures of the Emery and Edgeley Farm Forum members taken in Edgeley Hall on January 29 — the 10th Anniversary of Farm Radio Forum. These pictures themselves on the screen for the audience, many of whom viewed first time.

Mr. Stuart Scott, geologist, and Mrs. Scott rendered a couple of selections on their flute-like instruments. These instruments were made by Mr. Scott out of bamboo. He also showed very interesting pictures of his prospecting tour of Nova Scotia, Newfoundland and Quebec. Pictures were also shown of the city of Ottawa and of the Santa Claus parade in Toronto.

Sandwiches, pie and ice-cream were then served by the ladies. Dancing followed to the music of Miss Christensen and John Hermansen, accordionists, Stuart Scott violinist, and Mrs. Chas. Grubbe, pianist.

Among the nineteen ladies who attended the "Tupper" nylon demonstration at the home of Mrs. Ray Witty were Mrs. Shropshire and her daughter, Ivy, of Orangeville, and others from Toronto and neighbourhood. After the show, a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess.

Mrs. Earle Tate, with her son Neil from Newmarket had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Puterbaugh on March 28th.

Miss Edwards spent a few days with Mrs. C. Stong during Easter week.

We are happy to report that Mr. Chas. Peelar is able to be home from the Toronto General Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Puterbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Bowes, Misses Marian and Ruby Puterbaugh of Maple, Mr. and Mrs. Benson Myers of Stouffville, had evening dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. Harvey Houch and family at Cashel on Friday.

Edgeley United Church, Sunday, April 8th. Sunday School at 1:30, Church Service at 2:30.
