Visit Richvale School
 It is a customary part of their curriculum to have the Normal students observe and practise teaching in rural schools, and during this past week five teachers-in-training who have been visiting Richvale Public School were: Miss Ferne Draper and Messrs. Marvin Creighton, Elliott Krever, William Donald and Bill Burridge. On Friday there was an enjoyable game of baseball between the teachers versus pupils. The former won by a slight margin.
 This was a good work-out for the pupils who already, weather permitting, are out on the field getting in form for the coming baseball season.
 The Musical Festival at Woodbridge this year will have pupils from Richvale competing. Watch this column for the date.
 The Richvale Anglican W.A. will hold their meeting on Wednesday, The paper drive is this Saturday, April 18, at the home of Mrs. Parnell, Oak Avenue at the customary time of 2.30 o'clock.
