THE SPARROW IN THE TREE-TOP

Is chirping about the Pirate's loot which buffeted the high seas - right straight from Treasure Island to the Spring Fair, and the White Elephant is a sight that even the Maharajah would give anything to see, to say nothing of the monsters in the Fish Pond, that have to come up for air it's so crowded in there, and tots' tan togs have gone all out for the sun on April 14, for Spring is busting out all over the "Trellis" at the Fair, and Mum doesn't have to bake that day, she'll buy it right there while the kids are stuffing themselves at the Candy Bar, and then washing it down with 'pop'. Oh it's a wonderful feeling to sit and chat over a cup of tea and what delicious sandwiches you'll have too, but the little sparrow in the tree-top is getting tuckered out, now, so, young folks and old folks come to the

THE LEGIONNAIRES Branch 375 Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L. Richmond Hill

The Sick Committee of Richvale have to report with regret the illness of the following who are confined to their homes and under the doctor's care: Comrade Edward Clark, Edgar Ave., Richvale; Comrade Geo. J. Brummell, Oak Ave., Richvale.

From all reports the Kit Carson Trail Blazers Old Tyme and modern dances held in the Public School Auditorium, April 6, under the auspices of the Canadian Legion Branch 375 and Ladies' Auxiliary, was a very delightful event with a record attendance. To the business men of Richmond Hill and to the general public our most sincere thanks for their generous support.

Branch members please note: Special meeting at Newmarket, April 15, at 2 p.m. when Zone E2 will elect officers who will hold office as from August 23, 1951 for a period of two years.

On April 13, the next regular euchre will be held at Comrade Skippin's home on Yonge Street and Avenue Road starting sharp at 8.30 p.m. This is the week the lucky ticket is drawn for the goose. Next euchre will be on the 20th of April, same time, same place.

One of our members, Comrade H. Arbon celebrates his 49th wedding anniversary on April 13. Congratulations go out to Mr. Arbon and his wife.
