INSURANCE Cont.

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS

With the increase of fire hazards
property owners should review their insurance policies, and due to the increased cost of materials would be well advised to increase the amounts of insurance. Also car owners who think it will never happen to them, be caught some time or other without protection.
The cost is a minor amount to what it will cost if an accident happens.

Reaman's Shed Razed

An implement shed on Mr. Warren Reaman's farm was burned to the ground last Thursday night. The fire was apparently caused by sparks from the back-firing of one of his tractors and was noticed first by his daughter, Isabel, as she was going to bed. The Richmond Hill Fire Brigade stood by but fortunately none of the other buildings was threatened.

West Langstaff Ratepayers

The next general meeting of the West Langstaff Ratepayers Association is scheduled for Monday, April 23. Please watch Coming Events column.

Ted North was released from Sunnybrook Hospital on Monday of last week and his mother arrived from England on Wednesday. For the present both are staying with friends in Lansing.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. Mesure's poisoned hand is progressing favourably.

Mrs. Robert Hamblin and Baby Linda Jean are both "just fine" we are glad to report. Little Linda was 8½ lbs. at birth and had her grandmother, Mrs. W. Thompson, to look after her the first week she was home.

Horticultural Society

The well-known radio and newspaper horticulturist, John Bradshaw, will be the speaker at the next meeting of the Thornhill Horticultural Society. This will take place on Thursday, April 26, in the United Church at 8 o'clock. The Juniors will meet previously at 6.30. This season's options are as follows: For adult members, choice of (a) 2 boxes of annuals or tomatoes, (b) box of delphinium seedlings, or (c) Chrysanthemums. For juniors: Gladioli bulbs. Members may also obtain a 10 per cent discount on flower and vegetable seeds and a discount on a Canadian gardening magazine.

Toggerly Sale

At the last meeting of the Local Association of Guides and Brownies it was decided to hold a Toggerly Sale on the first Saturday in May. Further details will be available next week.

Kindergarten Bake Sale

Mrs. George Stratton won the ham and Mrs. A. A. Brillinger the free draw at the tea and bake sale held last Saturday to promote the work of the Thornhill Community Nursery Kindergarten. Mr. Bart Edwards donated the ham and the draw was made in his shop with Mr. Neil McDonald of Willowdale drawing the lucky tabs. Prizes in the free draw were donated by the Thornhill merchants.

To those who donated, to those who baked and to those who patronized the sale, the Board of the Thornhill Community Nursery Kindergarten extends a sincere "thanks."

Trinity Anglican Church

Special preacher at the 11 o'clock service at Trinity Church this Sunday will be the Rev. Canon R. A. Armstrong, M.A., D.D., Rector Emeritus of the Church of the Redeemer, Toronto.

Women's Institute

Elections will feature the next meeting of Thornhill Branch W.I. which will take place on Thursday, April 19, in the Masonic Hall, starting at 2.15. Conveners are reminded to bring their reports, ready to be forwarded to the District Conveners.

There is to be a Conference of Ontario Women's Institute Conveners at Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, on Wednesday evening, Thursday and Friday, May 2, 3 and 4. It is planned specifically for Historical Research and Current Events Conveners and for Community Activities and Public Relations Conveners. Mrs. T. Empringham and Mrs. W. Harris are the conveners for the Thornhill Branch.

The Institute has presented Baby Douglas Bolton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bolton, Arnold St., with one of the special Baby Bank Books and an initial deposit.

Cubs and Scouts Theatre Night

To raise money for camp, the Thornhill Cubs and Scouts are planning a Theatre Night to be held Thursday, May 3, in the basement of Trinity Church.

Well over 5 tons was collected during the paper drive on Saturday. Chairman of the Group Committee, Mr. Bill Hansen, and Mr. A. E. Rosevear supervised the hauling at the Scout Hut where Mrs. Hansen and Mrs. Gibson served cookies and drinks to the boys. Trucks were provided by Mr. Ranson, Lou Reid and the Jackson Brothers.

The Cubs and Scouts and their Leaders sincerely thank all those who helped make the drive a success.

Home and School

Those attending the Home and School meeting on April 5 heard a very inspiring talk by Mr. C. Howitt, the School Inspector. He highly recommended the work of the School Trustees and thought the association could work with them and be of some assistance in the many problems confronting them. He also spoke on the new curriculum and the benefits to be derived by the students from such a system of teaching.

The Thornhill Senior School Choir added much pleasure to the evening with their singing, under the splendid direction of Mr. Hugh Martin, the Music Supervisor. Mr. Howitt's talk provided food for thought and discussion in the social time following when Mrs. Bentham and her committee served refreshments.

Skinny men, women gain 5, 10, 15 lbs.

Mrs. Blandings helped too..

Every wife knows that making a dream house come true takes a lot of planning and a lot of saving. But two heads and two hearts together make sharing and planning a happy job.

You may be saving for a new home, new furnishings or equipment. Whatever it is, as a woman do remember that the more you know about the banking services your Commerce branch has to offer, the fewer problems you will have in planning, paying, saving.

And as you get to know the manager and his staff you will find how pleasant it is to deal there, how willing they are to help.
