LANGSTAFF NEWS

CORRESPONDENT — MRS. STAN. V. WORSDALE Telephone Thornhill 257r12

Mark-Vaun W. L. Several members of Mark-Vaun Women's Institute, formerly the Langstaff Homemaking Club, attended the April meeting of the Richmond Hill W.I. last Thursday afternoon. They were Mrs. A. Mathews, Mrs. A. Duncan, Mrs. G. Mills and Mrs. F. Stotts. The ladies greatly enjoyed the talk and films presented by Simpson's Interior Decorating Consultant.

Scrapbooks For Sick Children Mrs. F. Bickmore and Mrs. E. Jones still spend as many hours as possible making scrapbooks for the Sick Children's Hospital. Mrs. Bickmore received a letter last week from Miss Jean Master, the Superintendent of Nurses which said "On behalf of the little patients of this hospital I wish to acknowledge with thanks the lovely scrapbooks which you have so kindly sent them. Such kind thoughtfulness is very much appreciated." Cards have been sent to the ladies from distant places, including Winnipeg, as well as from many local homes and the supply needs constant replenishing so don't throw away your old cards, friends, just leave them with the Morris' — they'll be glad to pass them on. Mrs. Frank Savage and four-year-old son, Paul, returned on Saturday from a three-weeks' visit with friends at Ottawa.

We are happy to offer congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones, Boyle Drive, who announce the birth of a daughter on Sunday. The report was that both Colleen and baby were well.

Mr. Howard Marshall, Garden Avenue, underwent an operation on Monday of last week and had a kidney and rib removed. Everyone will be glad to know that his progress at the beginning of this week was quite satisfactory. Mr. Marshall is in Room 216 at St. Michael's Hospital.

West Langstaff Ratepayers A number of interesting items are due for discussion at next Monday's meeting of West Langstaff Ratepayers. Please also see Coming Events.

District Scout and Cub News

Royal Canadian Mounted Police, with some excellent movies, notably "North-West Passage" depicting the adventures of the R.C.M.P. patrol boat "St. Roth" in her famous trip from Vancouver to Lunenburg, Nova Scotia via the roof of the world. Constable Fox endeared himself to the boys by allowing them to bombard him with questions during the time refreshments were served by the Auxiliary.

Group Committeemen and their wives and Ladies' Auxiliary Executives and their husbands who wish to attend the Scouters' Conference which is being held in Midland on May 12 and 13 are asked to kindly notify their local Scout and Cub leaders before April 28, to insure that their application may be received in Midland before May 1.

THORNHILL NEWS

CORRESPONDENT — MRS. STAN. V. WORSDALE Telephone Thornhill 257R12

Horticultural Society Next Thursday's meeting of the Thornhill Horticultural Society should be especially attractive to those whose ambition is to make their grounds add to the beauty and value of their property. Weather permitting, it is hoped to have delphinium and pansy plants for sale, as well as other perennials, shrubs, etc., which may be donated. Any surplus garden materials will be welcomed for inclusion in the sale.

Members should advise Mrs. E. G. McKean, secretary-treasurer, immediately by mail or at the meeting of their preference of the options offered for this season. The choice is (a) 2 boxes of annuals or tomatoes, (b) box of delphinium seedlings, or (c) Chrysanthemums; and for juniors, Gladiolus bulbs. Options are distributed at the May meeting. Please see Coming Events for further details of meeting.

Guides and Brownies The Local Association of Guides and Brownies is planning a Toggery Sale on Saturday, May 5, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the United Church Sunday School Hall. The plan is to sell children's and adults' garments which are in good condition (freshly laundered or cleaned). Clothes which are outmoded, torn or stained or shrunken woollens are not saleable. Those which are simply outgrown but have plenty of wear left in them, it is felt sure will find ready buyers. Shoes and hats will not be included in the sale but spring and summer garments will be in great demand. Proceeds from the sale will be shared jointly, the donor receiving 50% of what the garment sells for and the Local Association retaining the other 50 per cent. Further details regarding pricing of garments and addresses at which they may be left will appear next week.

Cubs and Scouts Tickets are on sale this week for the Cubs and Scouts Theatre Night which is to be held a week next Thursday, May 3, in the basement of Trinity Church. In the temporary absence of the Scoutmaster, the two Troop Leaders, Jeff Jackson and Gerald Billerman are running the Troop. With the co-operation of the rest of the boys, everything is going along nicely we hear and all the lads seem to be enjoying the few weeks' experience in "self-government" and responsibility.

Y.P.U. Plays The Young People's Union of Thornhill United Church will present three one-act plays in Richmond Hill United Church Hall on Wednesday, April 25. "Teacher's Pet" is a general play in which a number of the Young People are taking part and

Book Interesting Speaker

"Ontario Wild Flowers" is the title of pictures to be shown at the next meeting of Richmond Hill Horticultural Society by Dr. W. W. Hughes, a graduate of the University of Western Ontario Medical School and a practicing doctor at Embro.

Dr. Hughes turned a few years ago to the photography of nature as a hobby, and the knowledge, skill and artistry which he has brought to that avocation have made him widely known both as a naturalist and a photographer. Transcribed bird calls accompany most of the pictures and in the background is carefully chosen soft music with which Dr. Hughes always accompanies his pictures. Entirely in color the pictures include shots of many birds and other wild life.
