Hold Enjoyable Tea

More than 65 ladies called at the King United Church parsonage last Wednesday afternoon, when the ladies of King City, Laskay and Teston were invited to tea.

The guests were received by the hostess, Mrs. M. R. Jenkinson, who was assisted by Mrs. Austin Rumble. The pretty tea table was set with a Venetian cut-work cloth and centred with a bouquet of cream and pink snapdragons and cream candles in silver candlesticks. Mrs. I. L. Scott and Mrs. A. Green poured tea and their assistants were Mrs. E. Patton, Mrs. C. Stewart, Mrs. A. Campbell and Mrs. J. Thompson. The sum of $20.50 was collected at the tea table.

The present parsonage was built in 1945, and has recently been decorated throughout with fresh spring colors. The living room is a pretty peach, the dining room is green and pale colors are used in the halls and upstairs rooms.

The parsonage that the present fine house replaced was built in 1887, and it was destroyed in a great fire at midnight on June 3, 1944, when struck by lightning.
