CONCORD NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: Mrs. Raymond Stuart, R. R. 1, Maple
Telephone Maple 110R3

Birthday Party
A party in honor of Jean Ash on her 14th birthday was given in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ash, on Saturday evening, April 21.
About 40 guests enjoyed an evening of square and round dancing and other fancy dance numbers to the music of Mr. Louis Eberschlag and Mr. Alex Hunter, violinists; and Nelson Peelar, guitarist. The fine baritone voice of Frank Hingsworth thrilled the guests as he sang many popular and classical pieces while accompanying himself on his electrical guitar.
Jean and Billie Ash entertained the guests with their pleasing voices as they sang their songs into a microphone and led in a number of sing-songs.
A delicious lunch which turned out to be a veritable banquet was served by Mrs. Ash amid streamers and balloons in a tastefully decorated room.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Baker was the scene of a miscellaneous shower on Wednesday, April 18 for Mr. Baker's sister, Annie. Miss Baker and Mr. Cornelius Pauls are to be married in the Langstaff Baptist Church on Saturday, May 12.

Buchanan-Lippert
Colorful spring flowers formed the background for the marriage of Jean Grace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lippert of Fisherville to Mr. John Richard Buchanan son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Buchanan of Victoria Square. Rev. E. E. Kent officiated at the afternoon ceremony on Saturday, April 21, in Thornhill United Church.
A floor length gown of white lace was worn by the bride, whose father gave her in marriage. The fitted bodice was finished with a high neck line and a Peter Pan collar. A full skirt with lace insert panels ended in a circular train. Her long veil matched her dress and was held by a small cap and she carried red roses and white carnation buds.
Kathleen Johnson, cousin of the bride, was matron of honour, who chose a gown of mauve nylon taffeta and net with a full fashioned skirt and Peter Pan collar and carried a bouquet of yellow roses and mauve sweet peas.
Miss Ann Lippert, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Her gown was yellow nylon taffeta and net and she carried pink roses and sweet peas. Ann Buchanan, sister of the groom, was junior bridesmaid and was gowned in green nylon taffeta and net and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas.
Mr. Nelson Buchanan was groomsmen for his brother, and Mr. Jack Lippert and Mr. Don Stephenson were ushers. During the signing of the register, Mrs. Tomkin sang "I'll Walk Beside You," and "O Promise Me."
A reception followed at the Masonic Hall in Richmond Hill. The bride's mother received wearing a grey crepe dress with navy blue accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother assisted wearing a navy blue dress with beige accessories and corsage of yellow and bronze roses.
For travelling the bride chose a navy blue suit with pink accessories and wore a corsage of white gardenias.
Following a motor trip to the United States the couple will live in Victoria Square.

Lutheran Church News
The Women of the Lutheran Church met at the home of Mrs. Sam Cane on Wednesday at 2 p.m. The president Mrs. Wilmer Keffer was in the chair. The topic was taken by Mrs. E. J. Fischer and called "Soil Conservation in the light of the Christian Message."
The Sunday School has invested $50 for books, maps and lesson helps as a start for a new S. S. library. Next Sunday a film strip on the Ten Commandments will be shown in the Sunday School.
Two new families, Mr. and Mrs. Winter and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Beckner and boys were received into membership at the church.
