District Scout and Cub News

On one of the loveliest days that we have had this spring the Scouters Conference for the Ontario Region opened about three o'clock on Saturday in Knox Presbyterian Church, Midland, with a registration of about 250.

R. B. Moffatt, District Commissioner for the South Georgian Bay District welcomed the delegates after which there was a Flag Break, followed by prayer by Rev. A. B. Cathcart of Midland. Official welcome from Midland was given by Mayor Charles Parker.

Opening remarks were made by the Regional Commissioner, Robert H. Johnston, after which the meeting broke up into small groups for spirited discussion. New Scout and Cub Leaders were taken to St. Margaret's Parish Hall for a session under Robert Taylor, A.D.C., Humber Valley District, for the Cubs, and Robert Ansell, D.S.M., West Hill District, for the Scouts. The group for the Rovers was taken by John Snow, A.D.C., York Central District and Group Committeemen had a discussion panel under E. A. Jarrett, President of the Lakeshore District Association.

Under the Chairmanship of Mrs. A. E. Standing, Assistant Provincial Commissioner, various solutions to common problems were shared in the discussions by members of Ladies' Auxiliaries.

The guest speaker at the dinner which followed was the Chief Executive Commissioner, Major General D. C. Spry.

During the evening session there was a Campfire and skits with Ray Leonard, D. C., of Humber Valley District and Robert Taylor, A.D.C. of Humber Valley, joint masters of ceremony.

There were special Church services on Sunday morning at 9.30 followed by a trip to the Jesuit Martyrs Shrine and the Indian Museum, with R. B. Moffatt, D.C. in charge. After dinner in St. Margaret's Parish Hall, W. H. J. Tisdale, Provincial Commissioner for Ontario addressed the delegates and the conference closed at half past two after an experience none would have missed for a good deal.
