Young People's Union

Maple Young People's Union held its regular meeting in the Sunday School room on Wednesday evening, May 8. Dorothy Jarrett, the mission convener was in charge of the program. The topic was in the form of a radio interview of an Indian girl from Bella Bella. The business was conducted by the president, Mrs. Walker. Special musical numbers were played by Jean and Ralph Keffer on their guitars. Madeline Brown played a piano solo. Following some contests, the meeting closed with taps.

Friends of Mrs. James Rae will be pleased to learn that she has returned home after spending some weeks in the General Hospital, Toronto, when she was very ill. She is progressing favourably.

Unfortunate Accident

Two days after his family had moved to this village, eight year old Fred Dellow had the misfortune to break his arm very badly, causing him to be in the Hospital for Sick Children for two days.

Mrs. Mary Miller, North Bay, visited with her brother, Mr. La Riveria.

Mission Band

The Busy Bees Mission Band held its meeting at the home of Heather Miller with Marlene Orr in the chair and Helen Calder as secretary. The meeting opened with hymn 399, followed with a prayer by Marilyn Watson and scripture. Twenty-two girls answered the roll call which was "Your Favourite Girl's Name." The meeting closed with the benediction. A dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Cal. Miller

Women's Institute

Maple Women's Institute held its meeting at the home of Mrs. M. Palmer on May 9, with 20 members present and several visitors.

Mrs. Leo Watson, the District President, conducted the installation of the newly-elected officers. It was decided to purchase some wool and knit some very much needed articles for the Children's Aid Society.

Mrs. F. S. Rumble, historical research and current event convener gave a very interesting report of last year's work also Mrs. L. Palmer, convener of citizenship and education.

There is to be a plastic demonstration at the regular meeting to be held at Mrs. N. Payne's home on June 13. Visitors welcome.

Mrs. Leo Watson, District President, spoke a few words to the Institute, asking them to make use of the booklets put out by the Department. If these could not be used by the members they might help our neighbours. At the Guelph conference during the talk on historical research, it was suggested any historical place should be marked. She ended her talk with a very timely poem "Let us be Friendly."

Mrs. Harris, District Secretary, also gave a short talk, one of the highlights was information regarding the Tweedsmuir History.

A piano solo by Mrs. Noble was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. A. Snider gave a report on the conference at Guelph. The first night they had a Nellie Lewis get-together party. Dr. McCready gave the welcome. A girl from Jamaica taking a course at Guelph had been financed by Institute money. There were only two history books from West York, one taking second prize. She told of types of books recommended for the Tweedsmuir history and what to have in them.

Mrs. Rumble also gave a report on the conference. It was suggested that two minutes be given to the Standing Committees at each meeting. She displayed the new Institute Song Book. Mrs. Geddes advised injecting new vitality into Branches. Mrs. Fletcher, Past President of Federated Women's Institute, had her new book on display at Guelph "Abroad With Me." The last day of the convention was devoted to Public Relations, Farm Press, Daily Papers, Radio and Weekly Papers.

It was the unanimous opinion of the members that Mrs. F. S. Rumble purchase a suitable book for the Tweedsmuir history.

Lunch was served by the hostess and the committee bringing to a close a very interesting meeting.

Rev. A. E. Huston will be the special speaker at the Sunday School anniversary of Hope United Church on Sunday morning at 11 a.m. The service of praise will be led by the girls of the Community Choir which is connected with St.

Colomba United Church in Toronto. Mrs. Gordon Orr will preside at the organ. The public is heartily invited to this service.

Beginning June 3, the church service of Maple United Church will be at 11.30 a.m. with Sunday School at 10.30 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. William Weir are spending a few days with Mrs. Weir's sister, Mrs. Gibson in Philadelphia.

Miss Flo Turner of Toronto visited over the week end with Mrs. Arthur Lawrie and family.

Mr. Bruce Jones of Gait visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Jones.

Mrs. Ralph James of Kenora and Mrs. George Barker of Headford visited with Mrs. Russell Noble last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Manning of Guelph had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Laver on Sunday. They also visited Mr. Manning's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Manning and Mrs. Manning's sister, Mrs. H. Ireland, Teston, who has been very ill but her many friends will be pleased to know she is improving. Hope to see her up and around again.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Baker of Teston side road on the birth of their daughter, a sister for Bobbie and Ross in St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, Monday, May 14.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ingram, Mr. Maple Lions Club held its regular and Mrs. Gordon Ingram and family and Heather Miller spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Black and family at Kettleby.

Friends of Mr. Robert Ramsey will be pleased to know he has returned home from St. Michael's Hospital Toronto, where he underwent surgery and is progressing nicely and that Mr. Blake Yake though still in the General Hospital, Toronto, is slightly improved.

Hope United Church

The Vellore Junior Farmers Annual Church service, was held in Hope United Church, Sunday evening, May 14th.

The worship was conducted by Carl Boynton assisted by Marjorie Grimsley. The special preacher was Dr. Archer Wallace, who brought an inspiring message to a congregation which filled the church to capacity. The Junior Farmers Choir was under the direction of Mr. Gordon McGillivray with Mrs. Gordon Orr at the organ.

Maple United Church.

Children baptised in the Maple United Church, Sunday afternoon, May 14, were Lawrence Michael son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wilson and Elaine Inez Tilley daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Tilley and at the evening service Janice Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Keffer.

Maple Moth's Day Services

The churches of the village were well attended on Mother's Day with special events taking place in the following churches:

St. Andrew's Presbyterian: A special Mother's Day Service, with special music and Mr. Magee rendering the solo "Bless This House". The infant children baptised were Janet Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Phillips and Richard Samuel, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Johnson Jr.

The chancel of the church was beautifully decorated with spring flowers.

St. Stephen's Anglican: The christening of the infant daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cooper, Dr. Clem and Mrs. Reades and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hunt took place.

Maple United Church: Mr. M. J. Kinnee conducted the worship for Mother's Day Service in the Sunday School Sunday morning. The Junior choir of twenty-five voices led the praise under the direction of Mrs. William Woods. Nine junior children sang a special number and Jill Neufeld rendered an appropriate solo.

Hope United Church: The three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Isaacson were baptised Sunday morning. The worship for Mother's Day was conducted by Mr. Gordon Orr, assisted by Mrs. Elmer Orr and Jim Thomas. Mrs. Lawrence Clarke rendered a solo. The choir under the leadership of Mrs. Gordon Orr sang an appropriate selection. Beautiful spring flowers adorned the chancel.

DONCASTER DOINGS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. E. A. WATTS
 173 Powell Avenue, Telephone Thornhill 243R2

Mr. A. Stevens, Morgan Ave., was admitted to the East General Hospital recently for an operation on his arm.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. J. Shiels, Willowdale Ave. on the birth of a son, Friday, in St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Smith who have taken up residence on Morgan Ave.

Best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Garnett, Jr. who have moved into their new home on Powell Ave.

We are pleased to report that Heather Menzies is recovering following her accident. A truck brushed her down on Morgan Ave. She received injuries to head and face. This could have resulted in a very serious accident had not the truck driver been one of those considerate persons. He said he saw Heather from a little distance and slowed down, but could not avoid her entirely.

Paper Drive

Your bundles of papers and magazines will be looked for eagerly on Saturday morning by the Richvale Guides and Brownies and Scouts and Cubs. The area is from May Avenue to Garden Avenue.

Guides and Brownies

The remainder of the articles in the baskets left over from the "Thing" were won by Mrs. May Miller, Garden Avenue, at the last meeting of the Local Association of Guides and Brownies.

Many thanks are extended to all who supported the Cookie Day.

The Guide Dance which was planned for June 8, has been postponed to June 15, as the former date conflicts with the Markham Music Festival in which members of the Richvale School will be competing.

The next immunization day at the school will be on Tuesday, May 22, at 10.30 a.m.

The Pre-School registration for those expecting to enter in September will be held in Richvale School on June 11, at 1.30 p.m.

The pupils of Richvale School were among those competing in the York Music Festival at Woodbridge last week. The Senior Choir won second with 81 points, the first graders came third with 80 points, and the Grade 2 choir won second with 81 points in their separate classes.

On June 8, there will be a choir from the school competing in the Music Festival Markham is holding on that date.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Gervais Heustis Sr., Oak Avenue who celebrated their 47th wedding anniversary last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Arbon spent Mother's day with their eldest son Ernest and family in Beamsville where they were joined by the youngest son William and his wife from Hamilton.

At Oak Ridges first Horse Show on Saturday Junior Miss Pauline Paul came third in the Costume Class and fourth in the Pony Hack Hunter Class, and little Miss Frances Paul won third in the Lead Line Class for 7 years and under.

Mrs. Crist returned home on Monday afternoon.

Carol Hirtz who sang in the Junior Girls Solo class at the York County Music Festival at Woodbridge on Saturday, came seventh in a class of 42, under 13 years, competing. In the Junior Boys Vocal under 13, Gary Blackburn came fourth in a class of 11.

The Senior Girls played an exciting game of ball on Monday afternoon with Langstaff winning 11-3.

His many friends will be sorry to learn that Mr. Ed Rowdon is on the sick list.
