 Attend Meeting
 As president of the Carrville Home and School I had the pleasure of attending the annual meeting of York County Home and School Council which was held at the Y.W.C.A. on McGill Street, Toronto, Thursday, May 10.
 Mrs. P. A. McClelland, the president was in charge of the meeting. Following opening exercises, Mrs. R. A. Taylor, past-president of York County Home and School, was presented with a lovely corsage. When all the business and reports were completed the vice-presidents of each area introduced the presidents of each society. Mr. Welland, a member of the Census Board spoke a few important words on the taking of the census starting on June 1, and he stressed four of the most important questions to be asked and must be answered correctly. They are Nationality, Origin, on male side of the family, specific occupation and salary.
 The meeting was adjourned for the morning session and a luncheon was enjoyed by mostly all the delegates.
