BATTERY trade-in SALE

MOR-POWER SUPER SERVICE

$4.00 FOR YOUR OLD BATTERY (Regardless of condition)

This huge Trade-In is in addition to the regular Canadian Tire savings —

MOR-POWER CANADA'S BEST-BUILT BATTERY

LEAD IS A STRATEGIC MATERIAL—In order to keep the wheels of industry turning, every ounce of scrap lead should be salvaged during the present national emergency. For this reason, Canadian Tire will pay you the amazingly generous sum of $4.00 for your old battery, on the purchase of any new Mor-Power. Condition of old battery is immaterial—as long as we receive ALL THE LEAD CONTENT. Only the lead is of value; we junk the cases and other components. Help to forestall a possible serious metal shortage, and help yourself to these BIGGER BATTERY SAVINGS!

KING CITY NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. M. JOHNSTON, KING, ONT. Phone King 55R14

When the I.O.D.E. of Aurora held a spring luncheon and bridge in the Trinity Church rooms several ladies from King were there to enjoy the afternoon. They were Mrs. Robert Benson, Mrs. W. Poag and Mrs. W. F. Hood, and were accompanied by Mrs. Hood's guest, Mrs. Lindsay Mitchell of Toronto. The luncheon tables were decorated with a small colonial nosegay, as favors for each guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Math Noel have returned from their honeymoon trip to Buffalo, Niagara Falls and St. Catharines. They have an attractive apartment in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Marsh, 5th concession, King.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gillham were Mr. Gillham's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Martin of Netawa, Manitoba. Mrs. Martin is the former Miss Maud Inson and is well known in King. Mr. Martin purchased a new car on his trip east and on their return home they motored through the Niagara district to enjoy the blossoms.

Mrs. Ross Walker, Mrs. L. Robb, and Mrs. D. Rawlings drove with Rev. D. C. H. Michell to Bradford on Thursday where the Women's Auxiliary Conference of the deanery of West York was held in Trinity Church. At 10 a.m. Holy Communion was celebrated and the day's work followed, the highlight of which was a talk by Mrs. Marsh, wife of the Bishop of the Arctic. Mrs. E. Dennison of Toronto, secretary-treasurer of the Dorcas Department also spoke. Mrs. N. Chatterley of Richmond Hill presided as Deanery officer. A social half hour completed a fine day.

Donna and Shirley Bowen, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bowen are happy to announce that their baby sister was born at Newmarket on Sunday, May 13. A Sunday child is blithe and bonnie, good and gay, and little Betty Anne will be all of these.

Every second Monday in the month since last January, a Youth for Christ meeting has been held in McDonald and Wells Hall, and the meetings have been well received. Last Monday night when over 50 persons were present, the film "Reaching for Heaven" was shown. Musical numbers were given by Nancy Patton, Beverly Miller, Doreen Routledge, Allison Hobson and Helen Peck. A group of young people usually come from Stouffville and bring a choir with them. The meetings are un denominational and are sponsored by the local clergyman, Rev. W. E. Smalley, Rev. M. R. Jenkinson, Rev. D. C. H. Michell and Mr. David Wotherspoon who attend whenever possible. A. E. Hobson is chairman.

One of the best known gardeners in town is L. E. Auckland. He always has the first peaches of the season, and it looks as though he will have his first "mess" on time again this year for he has a good show in his garden already. His potatoes are doing well too, although the tallest ones were touched with frost last week.

Last week the residence of C. F. Northey, 5th concession, was broken into and several articles were stolen. A month ago the log house of Dr. D. A. Jaquith on the 4th was entered and obviously the work of the same juvenile. At the Jaquith house drawers were emptied and a gun was smashed to pieces. Police have investigated and have dealt with the young intruder. This is the second time that Dr. Jaquith has had a burglary and the Northey house has been entered and disturbed for the third time.

Named Cubmaster
Mrs. W. F. Hood has been appointed district cubmaster for the North District of York Central. This includes the cub packs of King City, Teston, Aurora, Richmond Hill, Unionville, Victoria Square, Thornhill and Oak Ridges, and a membership of about 150 boys. Although Mrs. Hood is the busy young mother of two charming little daughters, she gets much satisfaction out of her work with the little boys and takes part in all their activities. She hopes to remain Cubmaster to her King City Pack, as well as District Cubmaster.

During the war Mrs. Hood was in the W.R.C.N.S. and served at H.M.C.S. Stadacona as physical training instructor for two years.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Snelgrove, Roselawn Avenue, Toronto, spent the week-end with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Snelgrove.

The Laskay United Church held a day of anniversary on Sunday with services held in the morning and again in the evening.

Rev. Donald Ray, D.F.C., B.A., of Kettleby, was the minister at the morning service, and he was assisted by the choir of Temperanceville church. At the evening service Rev. A. Huston of Victoria Square preached the sermon, and Rev. M. R. Jenkinson was present also. Mr. Huston brought his choir from Victoria Square church to assist with the service of worship.

On Friday evening the Young Peoples Society of Laskay United Church will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hunter, Miss Vera Hunter who is convener of ial business, and has just returned from that part of the world. It has been a busy two weeks for the family for their friends in Toronto and King have been very interested in talking with young Mr. Henry about his experiences while overseas.

Miss Sally Henry, dietitian at the Stratford General Hospital, spent the long week-end holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Henry.

Miss Helen Dean of Central Branch and Miss Isobel Waugh of Wychwood Park Branch of the Toronto Public Libraries, visited the King City Library on Wednesday evening. They expressed surprise at the number of new books on the shelves. The Library has been closed during the spring week but has re-opened this past week, and will be open for subscribers on Wednesday afternoons and evenings.

Miss Ellen Brown spent the holiday and week-end in Kettleby with Mr. and Mrs. William Cutting.

Miss Audrey Brown was a visitor in Kleinberg with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rowntree for the long week-end.

Mrs. G. H. Stone had a happy 24th of May when members of her family came to visit her. Mr. and Mrs. T. Proctor and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stone of Aurora spent the day with her. Visitors also came from Toronto. They were Mrs. Rocksborough, her daughter, Mrs. Wallace and her granddaughter.

Mrs. Ross Hanchard of Toronto spent the holiday with Miss Barbara Wells.

Don Busby, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Busby, came with in one point of being senior champion at the annual Inter-School Field Day, held last week at Newmarket High School. The High Schools of Aurora, Richmond Hill and Newmarket were the competitors.

Soccer enthusiasts who travelled to Toronto on the evening of Victoria Day to see the English team from Fulham play the Ontario All-Star Soccer team, at the exhibition grounds were Robert Burns, Geo. Bainbridge, Fred Dent, Harry Edwards, Wm. Barker and Harry Cunningham. Mr. Bainbridge was celebrating his birthday and for the past few years has looked forward to seeing a game played on that day by a famous British team.

The Young girls of the Girls Auxiliary of All Saints Church were hostesses at a banquet last Monday night and their mothers were the guests of honor. There were 35 present, including the speaker of the evening, Miss Conner Purer of Toronto. Miss Purer is a recent graduate of the Anglican Women's Training College, and she leaves in the near future for Japan where she will teach English in a girls' school.

The toast to the King was given by the Girls Auxiliary president, Miss Mary Jane Walker. The toast to the Mothers was made by Freda Dent and replied to by Mrs. Gordon Wells. The toast to the Girls Auxiliary was proposed by Suzanne Grew, and Rev. Mr. Michell replied. Janet Langdon pleased with several songs and her accompanist was Freda Dent.

During the evening the girls expressed their appreciation of their faithful leader, Mrs. Ross Walker, by surprising her with a box of chocolates, the presentation being made by Norma Wells.

Wins Scholarship
David Wotherspoon, popular young student minister of the three Presbyterian churches of the district, Strange, Sunderland, Everstrey and St. Paul's No. 9, has been successful in winning two scholarships it was announced recently. They are the McLellan Scott Scholarship valued at $100 and the John K. Hyslop Scholarship valued at $20.00. Mr. Wotherspoon is a student at Knox College and is entering the third and last year in the autumn. His brother, the Rev. Peter Wotherspoon, graduated from the same college this spring, and will be present at a baptismal service in Eversley Presbyterian Church on June 3.
