District Cubs Hold Big Rally 250 Boys Vie For Pennants

Approximately 250 cubs attended the Cub Rally held last Saturday in Thornhill Park. Fourteen out of twenty-one packs were represented. Things got underway at 2 p.m. when all the cubs were given markers and sent to their places on the field. The program was based on the Cubs work and points were given for each event. Jackson Taylor, Chairman for the District was score keeper. The pennants won were as follows: "A" Pennant: Richvale, Thornhill B, Richmond Hill A. "B" Pennant: Thornhill A, King, Unionville, Newtonbrook A, Newtonbrook B, Second Willowdale A, Second Willowdale B, Richmond Hill B. "C" Pennant: Haviland, Lansing B, First Willowdale. Following the events the boys

The sum realized so far exceeds the objective by over forty percent.

June 4, the King's birthday, was remembered by the offer of Mass for the temporal welfare of our King. Servers of the Mass were Ray Bilz and Michael Vlassoff.

A very good attendance was present to offer their prayers with the priest for the good health of His Majesty the King. The Priest of the parish is making the first retreat at St. Augustine Seminary this week. He will be returning home Friday evening.

Presbyterian Church

The regular monthly meeting of the W.A. and W.M.S. will be held at the home of Mrs. Teasdale, Concord, on Thursday, June 14, at 2:45 p.m. Roll call will be answered with "something for a child."

As is the usual practice there will be a special speaker at this the last W.M.S. meeting for the season.

Members and friends filled the church for the celebration of the 101st anniversary of the church. The church was beautifully decorated with spring flowers for the occasion. Special hymns were rendered by the choir and soloist Miss Ada Mizzen sang "Bless This House" and Mr. A. C. Chapman, former choir-master, sang "Does Jesus Care."

Rev. Donald Wade, M.A., Ph. D., was guest speaker with the Rev. Hirtle taking the service. Prior to the sermon Bruce Arthur Cox, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Alex Brown of Elgin Street, was baptized with the Rev. Hirtle officiating.

CHURCH NEWS

St. Luke's Catholic Church Movies of the first Communion class were shown, in technicolor to the children on Saturday morning. A treat was in store for all those who assisted at the Novena of our Mother of Perpetual Help, for immediately after Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament the parishioners were shown the same picture in the rectory, upstairs only. Laughter and joy were certainly evident on the faces of all those present.

On Sunday morning after the 9 o'clock Mass the Pastor, Father Cirivello enrolled the first communicants in the Brown Scapular.

The Seminary and Expansion campaign was a great success, beyond the expectations of all the solicitors and even the Cardinal.

Large crowds attended the Anniversary Supper, held on Tuesday, May 29, in the Sunday School room. The tables decorated with a profusion of Lily of the Valley and pink begonia, were filled with members and friends who heartily enjoyed the delicious dinner set before them.

Members of the congregation took this opportunity to get acquainted with the many new members to this parish.

The "Four Gentlemen" entertained with songs old and new and in answer to a special request sang the Lord's prayer.

Presentations

Carrville Home and School Association held a presentation and social evening in the school Thursday evening, when an oak desk, chair and airfoam cushion was presented to the school board from the Home and School as a result of funds gained at the gala night in April.

The evening opened by singing 'O Canada' followed by a sing-song. Cecile MacIntosh and Hughie Adams, Carrville school pupils were in charge of the program featuring some of the pupils, which consisted of a tap dance by Judy Ann Nicholls, piano selections by Lillian Bilinsky and Jim Green, solo by Sheila Miller and Gail Young, Lillian Bilinsky, Mary Brennan and Cecile MacIntosh. Story by Susan Lewis and verse by William Bevin. Mr. H. Nicholl favoured with an accordion solo. Games followed and Gail Young and Lillian Bilinsky were in charge; the parents were invited to take part in these and were good and caused many a laugh.

The president of the Home and School, Mrs. R. Middleton, presented the board with the oak desk, chair and cushion. Mr. J. Barton, chairman of the board accepted the gift and in turn presented the key of the desk to the teacher, Mr. A. Sohm. The board praised the teacher very highly for his excellent work this year.

There was another special feature of the evening when the caretaker, Mrs. J. Clement, who is resigning this June was presented with a hot plate from teacher and pupils. This presentation was made by Lillian Bilinsky and Cecile MacIntosh and an address read by Mary Brennan.

Mrs. L. Morris presented Mrs. Clement with a cup and saucer on behalf of the Home and School as a little token of appreciation and

Mr. Brian Bailey, secretary of the board presented Mrs. Clement with a cheque from the board. These gifts were all a great surprise to Mrs. Clement and she thanked all groups in a most fitting manner and was very deeply touched.

The people were invited to spend a social time to bring a pleasant evening to a close. There were over 70 parents and children present.

Avery-Mitchell

Miss Jean Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Mitchell and Mr. Lloyd Avery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Art Avery of Edgeley, who were married in Maple United Church Saturday were a very much showered and entertained couple. The bride's relatives had a lovely shower for them at the home of Mrs. Ross Foliott at King. The Carrville friends had one at the bride's home.

Mrs. Middlebrook of Weston, aunt of the groom entertained at a kitchen shower. The Edgeley friends presented them with a lovely shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Avery, Edgeley.

The Rumble families presented them with a beautiful clock, at a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Robson.

Many friends have had the pleasure of calling at the Mitchell home to see all the beautiful gifts the young couple received. We join with one and all in wishing Jean and Lloyd every happiness in their married life.

The executive of the Carrville Home and School Association had their final meeting for the year at the home of Mrs. E. Lewis, with all members present. Considerable business was discussed and plans started for the 51-52 season which opens in September. The conveners appointed are social Mrs. S. Wood and membership, Mrs. B. Bailey. The hostess assisted by her daughter Susan served lunch.

Kindergarten Group Names New Officers

The Thornhill Community kindergarten closed last week for the summer months after a very successful year.

Elections were held recently and officers for the year 1951-52 are as follows:

President, Mrs. Geo. W. Stratton; vice-president, Mrs. E. A. Percival; secretary, Mrs. R. L. Robinson; treasurer, Mrs. C. F. T. Rounthwaite; volunteer convenor, Mrs. Lloyd Blackett.

Mrs. R. Byford, past president, was presented with a book "Children as Artists" in recognition of her efforts as president of the kindergarten since its organization two years ago.

When Trinity Church moved from its old location on Yonge St., the school had to find new quarters in the middle of the term. Through the kindness of the Masons the school was permitted the use of Victoria Hall until other arrangements could be made.

Plans are now underway to have the school moved to permanent and well-equipped quarters on Arnold Avenue where there will be many new advantages including an enclosed outdoor play space.

Enrollment will start in August at which time Mrs. Percival will interview the applicants.
