Carrville United Church members are invited to attend a joint communion service at Thornhill United Church with the members there on Sunday, June 24, at 11 a. m. Carrville elders will assist the Thornhill elders with the communion service.

The annual cemetery decoration and service will be held on Sunday, June 24, at 2.30 p.m. An invitation is extended to all who are interested in Carrville cemetery day to come and decorate the graves of their loved ones and join in the worship service in the church.

The Carrville Woman's Association held its June meeting on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Wm. George, Richmond Hill. There were 18 members and 2 visitors present. Miss E. Sheppard, the president, was in charge of the meeting. Following the opening exercises Mrs. McEwen led the devotions reading the scripture and explanation entitled "In Quietness and Confidence." Mrs. Kent read a most interesting story from the book "Gateways of the Stars, and Mrs. J. Baker favoured with a piano solo entitled "When the Organ Played at Twilight." Arrangements were made for all who could of the Carrville W.A. to visit the Thornhill W.A. on June 7. Considerable discussion took place in connection with having a strawberry festival. The date is Wednesday, June 27.

Supper will be served from 6 to 8 p.m. and will be held in the Carrville United Church. Rev. Kent spoke on the project of the Board of Stewards, which is to erect a building at the back of the church and asked the W.A. to support this effort. Mrs. Oliver moved, seconded by Mrs. Kirk that the W.A. give their full support both financially and any way they could assist and also anyone who is interested in this effort and would care to send financial support, it would be most sincerely appreciated as any who know Carrville at all know that a building is very necessary for all their social functions and other meetings.

Mrs. B. Middleton mentioned the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Vandenberg of Lansing, Ont., will be 50 years married June 20. They were former residents of Carrville so we all join in wishing them continued years of happiness together.

Mrs. Barton and Mrs. Lewis assisted the hostess, Mrs. George, in serving refreshments.

The Carrville Girls Club are having a baseball game and weiner roast on Friday, June 22. The game is to be played in the Carrville Public School grounds between the Rosebuds and Maplebuds. The weiner roast is to be held on the grounds of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Kirk, close to the school.

The Carrville Woman's Association attended the friendship meeting of the Thornhill W.A. Thursday, June 7, in Thornhill United Church. Those present were: Miss E. Sheppard, Mrs. Wynn, Mrs. Kirk, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Oliver, Mrs. Read, Mrs. George and Mrs. Middleton. The ladies had a most enjoyable and helpful afternoon at Thornhill.

Executive meeting was held at home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Middleton, to make plans regarding the Middleton reunion to be held July 2, Monday at Springwater Park, Midhurst. Those present were Mrs. C. S. Carruthers, Markham; Mr. Geo. Hewitt and Miss May Bowers Peterborough; Mrs. Selena Middleton, Port Whitby; Mrs. Geo. Sears, Orillia; Mrs. Cliff Ball, Warminster Mr. and Mrs. Armour Middleton, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. J. Oliver & Helen, Richmond Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Barton and John.

Miss Gail Young spent the weekend with Marian Middleton.

Carrville Public School children attended the Thornhill Field Day and congratulations to William Bevin who won an honour for Carrville school.

Quite a number of parents went to Markham Arena to hear the Festival of Songs under the direction of Mr. Hugh Martin, when all the schools under his music directorate took part.

Most appreciated were the refreshing cold drinks served to the field day held in Thornhill Park last week. The ladies in charge who so kindly gave their time were Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Gage, Mrs. F. Harris, Mrs. Rivers and Mrs. Lillian Kent all from Thornlea.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Wood, Johnson Street had a pleasant vacation driving through Vermont.

Friends of Mr. John Dunlop will be glad to know that he is progressing very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Hunt, John St. have had Mr. Hunt's uncle, Mr. Joseph Wilkes of Vancouver Island staying with them for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Steele, Morgan Ave., have returned from a fishing trip at Lake Nipissing, reporting a good catch.

Mr. Davis, Morgan Ave., was admitted to hospital this week. We hope we shall soon see him home again.

Little Jo-Ann Bragan, Morgan Ave., who had her tonsils removed is reported doing nicely.

Many Doncaster parents attended the Markham Musical Festival last Friday. An enjoyable evening was had by all. Our thanks to Mr. Hugh Martin for the wonderful way he is training the children's voices.

Mrs. Mizen, Secomoe Ave., returned to her home last week-end after a very enjoyable but strenuous vacation spent in the Old Country. Welcome home, Mrs. Mizen.

Ladies Club Meets
 The Doncaster Community Ladies club met Tuesday, June 5, at the home of Mrs. Mottershall, Clarke Ave. The meeting called to order by the President, opened with "O Canada", and The Lord's Prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the Secretary and the Treasurer's monthly report given. Roll call was answered by 14 members. Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Bradley were our visitors of the evening.

During the business meeting that followed, plans were discussed for the Afternoon Tea and Bake Sale which it is planned to hold the latter part of the month. Another topic of interest was the Community Picnic to be held with the Doncaster Ratepayers' Association. A tentative date for Saturday, July 28, has been set.

At the conclusion of the meeting demonstration was given by a representative of the Singer Sewing Machine Co. The members found it very interesting, and received some worthwhile tips on sewing. The evening was brought to a close by a delicious lunch, served by the hostesses, Mrs. Lav, Mrs. Westcott and Mrs. A. Morrison.

Pheasant Rearers Wanted

The Ontario Department of Game and Fisheries is prepared to supply day-old young pheasants for raising by residents of Markham Township. Persons willing and with the necessary facilities to raise large numbers of these birds until they reach the age of eight or ten weeks, when they are considered ready for release, are requested to get in touch with the clerk of the municipality. In submitting applications, please state terms under which you are willing to raise these pheasants.

Applications must be in the hands of the clerk by June 16, 1951.
