MR. AND MRS. HENLEY

HENLEY-KERR

In St. Barnabas Church, Danforth Ave., Toronto, Isabel Kerr, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Kerr, formerly of Richvale, became the bride of Pte. Russell Henley, son of Mrs. Bertha Henley, Toronto, on June 2, at 3 o'clock. Rev. H. W. Garbutt officiated.

The bride was gowned in white nylon organdie with rhinestones and wore a shoulder-length veil. She carried a bouquet of red roses. Maid of honor, Mrs. Jean Dickinson, sister of the bride, was gowned in pale blue nylon organdie and wore a shoulder length veil. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

A reception followed the ceremony at the groom's aunt's, Mrs. O. Neish, Lansdowne Ave., Toronto. The bride's mother received in a navy blue and white dress, and wore a corsage of red roses.

The groom's mother assisted in a navy blue dress and wore a corsage of yellow roses.

The couple later left for Niagara Falls, New York. On their return they will reside at Langstaff, Ont.

KOVANEN-SIISKONEN

On Friday, June 8, at 7:30 o'clock in the Finnish Agricolia Lutheran church, Lowther Ave., Toronto, Marie Margaret Siiskonen, former Richvale resident, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eino Siiskonen became the bride of Leo Lenard Kovanen, recently arrived from Finland, stepson of Mr. and Mrs. Tovo Mäkelä.

The bride looked charming in a long white taffeta gown, beaded with tiny seed pearls. She wore a shoulder-length veil and carried a bouquet of red roses. Her maid of honour, Miss Keattu Parvianen, wore a long pink taffeta gown and carried yellow roses.

The bride's mother wore a grey crepe street length dress with very accessories and a corsage of red roses. The mother of the groom wore a pink printed chiffon street length dress with corsage of roses. The church was tastefully decorated with flowers from many gardens in Richvale.

The toast to the bride and groom was served in the church garden amid flower beds and lighted arches, and the reception was held in the gaily decorated reception hall of the church to 250 guests. After the reception the happy couple left for Cameron Lake.

The wedding ceremony was performed by the pastor, Reverend Kyosti Toppila of Richvale and Toronto.

AVERY-MITCHELL

A lovely wedding took place at Maple United Church when Jean Lillian Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Mitchell, Maple, became the bride of Lloyd Henry Avery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Avery, on Saturday, June 2, at 7:30 p.m. The church was decorated with spring flowers for the ceremony conducted by the Rev. P. J. Lambert. Mrs. Roy Clegg played the organ and Mrs. Lambert was soloist and sang "O Promise Me" during the signing of the register.

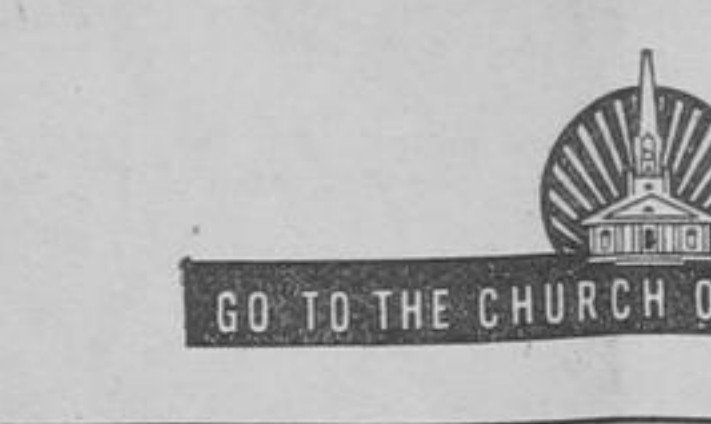

Given in marriage by her father the bride was gowned in a dress of white slipper satin, fashioned with fitted bodice embroidered in a deep yoke to the waist, with full skirt, yoke to the waist, with full skirt, wore a floor-length embroidered veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations, maiden hair fern and sweet peas.

Mrs. Bruce Robson, sister of the bride, was the matron of honour and wore a pink taffeta gown with matching headpiece of flowers. The bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Mitchell, who was dressed in maize taffeta and Miss Shirley Windas, in pink organdy over taffeta, both with matching headpiece and bouquets of carnations, sweet peas and maiden hair fern. The best man was Walter Mitchell, brother of the bride. Gordon Avery and Walter Baker, cousins of the bride, acted as ushers.

At the reception held in the church hall, the bride's mother received in a navy blue sheer dress, white hat, matching accessories and a stole of mink fur. She wore a corsage of sweet peas, blue flowers sweet peas and carnations. The groom's mother assisted in an aqua mesh dress, black hat and matching accessories, and had a corsage of sweet peas, blue flowers and maiden hair fern.

For her going away outfit the bride donned a grey gabardine suit, with a white straw hat and accessories to match. The couple left for points west for their honeymoon and will reside at the groom's farm at Bolton, Ontario, upon their return.

Guests attending the wedding were from Gilford, Kleinburg, King, Brampton, Weston, Thornhill, Carrville, Edgeley and Woodbridge. *1w50

Anglican W.A. Makes History

Tuesday, June 5, 1951, will long be remembered in the history of St. Mary's Anglican Church. On that afternoon more than two hundred W.A. members, clergy and guests filled the church and joined in the inspiring service of Thanksgivng which commemorated the 60th anniversary of St. Mary's branch of the W.A. The service was conducted by the Rector, assisted by Rural Dean Abbott and Rev. T. M. Dusan, B.A., B.D., of Palampur, India, who, in the course of an analytical address reminded the congregation of the relevance of W.A. work in the light of present-day world problems.

Following the service a reception was held in the parish hall when the guests were received by the Branch presidents along with Mrs. Wrixon and Mrs. Britton Osler, the Diocesan President.

The tea table was beautiful with a cluny lace cloth, bowls of spring flowers, and silver candleabra. An impressive candle lighting ceremony preceded the cutting of the Birthday Cake and when its sixty candles were aglow the Doxology was sung.

Tea was served in the hall and out on the lawn as the Chimes of St. Mary's pealed forth into the glorious afternoon sunshine and the guest register was signed by the descendants of the founders of the church and many interested friends from various points in York County.

Richmond Hill Women's Institute

Mrs. H. H. MacKay, Mrs. L. W. Zuefelt, Mrs. K. Svanfelt, Mrs. W. Sayers, Mrs. A. L. Phipps, Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. A. Chapman, Mrs. W. Middleton, Mrs. Hanson and Mrs. K. Blanchard, attended the 51st annual meeting of York East District Women's Institutes held on June 6, at Scarborough.

The Secretary reported seventeen branches in the district, Richmond Hill and Thornhill, with 62 members each, being the largest. Reports of the District conveners of Standing Committees showed many and varied were the subjects of programs throughout the year.

Richmond Hill and Unionville entered their Tweedsmuir Village Histories in the Ontario cup competitions and while not winning a prize, received honorable mention.

Mrs. W. W. Marjoribanks, Past President of the Women's Auxiliary and vice-president of Toronto Branch of United Nations was guest speaker. She told of some of the more important councils in the make-up of the United Nations and the work they are doing.

Mrs. Francy, a member of Butontville Institute was elected President.

York County Women's Institutes are combining with York Pioneers Historical Society to hold a basket picnic at historic Sharon Temple on Saturday, June 16, at 2 p.m. In case of rain the meeting will be held in Newmarket Town Hall.

Will those members of the Richmond Hill Women's Institute who are going on the picnic to Niagara Falls on Tuesday, June 19, please telephone Mrs. Zuefelt 92J to confirm your intention. Bus leaves the post office at 9 a.m. weather permitting.

The Tweedsmuir Village History will be on view in the Women's Institute booth at the Trade Fair.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. T. Elliott of Richvale wish to announce the engagement of their foster-daughter, Frances Reid to Herbert Garfield Minton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Minton, King, Ont., the marriage to take place June 23, at 3 p.m. in Aurora United Church. clw50

The community was shocked on hearing of the sudden passing of William E. Baker, formerly of R. 1, Richmond Hill, who met death in a motor accident at Bayview and No. 7 highway Thursday morning, May 31. He was in his 48th year. He was on his way home from visiting his widowed sister, Mrs. Frank Warwick, John Street, Thornhill, who lost her husband the first of November of last fall in a street car accident in Toronto.

Mr. Baker lived with his youngest brother Melvin on the Baker farm on Bayview Avenue, near Richmond Hill. He was converted as a young man and joined the United Missionary Church at Gormley and was faithful to the end. He leaves to mourn four brothers and three sisters.

The funeral service at his former residence was taken by a former pastor, Rev. F. G. Huson, and at the church by his pastor, Rev. L. K. Sider, assisted by Rev. M. Bricker. The Henderson sisters sang "Beyond The Sunset," and "Will The Circle Be Unbroken." Pallbearers were Ronald Elliott, Howard Baker, Murray Bennett, Frank Curtis, John Hawkins and Ed. Mashinter. Interment was in Heise Hill Cemetery.

BIRTH

HEISE — Mr. and Mrs. Milton Heise are happy to announce the birth of a daughter, June 13, in Newmarket Hospital. Mother and baby both well. clw50
