Edgeley United Church, Sunday, June 17, 1951 Sunday School 1.30 p.m. Sunday Service 2.30 p.m.

Church Picnic
 The sun shone brightly for the picnic of Edgeley United Sunday School on Friday afternoon at Don Eddy Park, Pine Grove.
 There was a fine gathering of parents and children to fill the well-laden tables set for lunch at 1.00 p.m.
 During the afternoon there was a lengthy sports programme and novelty races in which all heartily joined, after which some time was spent in playing ball, swimming and boat riding.
 Those who assisted with the programme were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mitchell, Mr. Frank Bagg, Rev. P. J. Lambert, Mrs. Art Avery, Mrs. Alex Hunter, Eldon Fierheller, Ray Avery and Syd Borebelt.
 Everyone had a very enjoyable time.

Mr and Mrs. Stuart Carson were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Stong and accompanied them to the Agar reunion at Woodbridge on Saturday afternoon.
 Billie Elliott also visited with the Stongs on Saturday. Billie is in the Navy and is stationed at Maden, B.C.
 Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. James Bagg on the birth of a daughter in the Humber Memorial Hospital on Saturday June 9th. Baby weighed 8lbs. 13oz.

Recent callers at the Puterbaugh's were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cooper, Mrs. L. Bassant and Mr. H. Atkinson.

The Edgeley Farmers' Club held their monthly meeting in the hall Thursday evening, June 7.

Quite a number of young people attended the Junior Farmers' picnic held at Musselman's Lake on June 8.

Mr. E. Puterbaugh, Miss F. Puterbaugh, also Mr. and Mrs. Joe Manning had supper with Mr. and Mrs. P. Cooper at Unionville June 6. Percy Cooper has been on the sick list.

Ladies are reminded that the next meeting of the Edgeley Women's Association is to be held on Thursday afternoon, June 21, at the home of Mrs. George Poole, Concord, and will take the form of a lawn quilting.

Institute Meets
 The regular meeting of the Edgeley Women's Institute was held on Thursday afternoon June 7, at the home of Mrs. Eldon Fierheller.
 The roll call was answered by naming a product from producer to consumer.
 Mrs. Maginn, Agriculture and Canadian Industries convener, gave a very interesting paper on "Facing the Future on Our Farms" together with a paper on "The natural Resources of Canada." A talk on the subject of gardens and Dowers also was given.
 A ten minute period is allotted at each meeting for the study of one of Canada's provinces, the province for this month's study being Alberta. Miss Ella Whitmore gave a very informative and interesting paper on Canada's "foothill" province which was followed by a lively word contest.
 Mrs. Chas. Greenley, Mrs. Magin and Mrs. Frank Locke were chosen as delegates to represent the Edgeley Branch at the District Annual Meeting in Thistletown on Tuesday, June 12.
 Mrs. Locke and Mrs. Ed Phillips will be in charge of the quilt display at the District annual meeting. These quilts were made by various institutes throughout the district. The winning quilt is to go to the Area Convention in the Royal York Hotel in the Fall to compete with those from other districts.
 Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Magin and Miss Whitmore.
 The next meeting is to be on Thursday, July 5 and will take the form of a picnic on the Dalziel farm. All institute members and their friends are invited.

Plan Picnic
 The York County Women's Institutes are affiliated with the York Pioneers Historical Society and are having a picnic at the Sharon Temple on Saturday, June 6. All Edgeley Branch members are urged to go.
 There are to be visitors from England, Wales and Newfoundland who will be the guest speakers of the afternoon.
 Greetings and musical numbers will be brought from each district of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. John Black are on a holiday trip which takes them to Fergus where Bobbie remains with his grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Smellie, on to Kirkland Lake where they will visit with Mr. and Mrs. K. Grey and home via Ottawa and Montreal. We wish them a pleasant trip.

Sunday, June 10, was Memorial Day in Brown's Corners Church, a day set aside each year in memory of the pioneers of our church and community, some of whom sleep in the adjoining churchyard. Rev. A. Huston took as his subject "Keep Their Memory Green." The choir chose the anthems "Remember Now Thy Creator" and also "The City Four-Square." The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Mercer was christened.

Sunday, June 17 is Communion Sunday in Brown's Corners Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sherman and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sherman were week-end visitors at their home near Owen Sound where their old church was having a re-union service to celebrate its 85th birthday.

On Saturday afternoon all Mission Band members, mothers and friends are invited to attend the meeting at the home of Mrs. C. Boynton. The speaker will be Mrs. C. J. Russell and a picnic lunch will follow the programme.

W.M.S. Meets
 The June meeting of Brown's Corners W.M.S. was held at the home of Miss Mary Rodick. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Chas. Boynton and Mrs. Fuller.
 Mrs. W. M. Rodick, president, presided, with Mrs. John Black at the piano. It was announced that the W.M.S. aided by the Mission Band, Explorers and C.G.I.T. groups had sent seven bales of new and used clothing to headquarters at College Street United Church.
 Mrs. Walter Brooke of Toronto conducted the devotional exercises using as her theme "The Lord is My Shepherd," and Mrs. Audrey Stephenson sang a solo.
 Concise reports of the Spring Rally at Aurora were presented by Mrs. Steffler and Mrs. Douglas Hood.
 The speaker, introduced by Mrs. Rodick, was Miss Louise Scott of the W.M.S. Medical Hospital at Hat Piplia, Central India. She gave a vivid description of the people among whom she works and told of the stunting affect of Hinduism on their mental growth and physical well-being. Those who are privileged to attend Christian schools are staffing more schools and hospitals and the work is gradually going ahead. Miss Scott further pleased her audience by wearing a beautiful Indian sari and demonstrated the way in which it is draped.
 A gift was presented to Mrs. E. Middleton by the Harmony group, with the hope that she would find happiness in her new home.
 Following a short business meeting, refreshments were served by our hostesses.
