KING CITY NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. M. JOHNSTON, KING, ONT
Phone King 55R14

On Saturday afternoon, Mrs. A. E. Jarvis, Mrs. J. N. Grew, Miss Doris Patton and Miss Fisher drove to Sharon to attend the joint picnic of the North York Historical Society, and the Women's Institute.

Mrs. R. Canney and her two children have returned to Toronto, after spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Burt.

On Saturday afternoon there was a hobby show in Aurora held in the basement of the United Church, under the auspices of the Playground Committee of Aurora. The members of King-Crafts were invited to send some of their work, and a few articles from the smocking, weaving hooked rugs and leather work were sent over to be placed with the hobbies and handicrafts of the children and grown-ups of Aurora and Newmarket.

Mrs. Norman Egan and Miss Helen sent beautiful smoked dresses, Lady Flavell, Mrs. Beth Anderson and Miss E. Courtney sent weaving. Mrs. A. E. Jarvis, Mrs. Gordon Wells and Mrs. John Norris sent hand hooked rugs, and leather work was sent by Mrs. W. Poag and Miss Helen Hunter.

Several ladies from King attended the show, and were pleased with the beautiful exhibits, especially the wild flower and bird exhibit created by Mrs. Sisman.

Mrs. J. L. Grew spent three days last week at the conventions of the Canadian and Ontario Library Associations, who were holding combined meetings in the University Buildings, Toronto. She attended the luncheon held at Brennan Hall and enjoyed all the discussion and interesting speakers. There were representatives from the Pacific coast to Newfoundland, and there were reports given of yearly earnings ranging from $40,000. to the sum of $200,000 which Mrs. Grew gave as the collection for the past year at the King Memorial Library.

On Sunday there was a pilgrimage from the Holy Family Parish in Toronto, to Mary Lake, bringing over 400 pilgrims. There were 8 buses and over 60 private cars filled with people come to make their devotions. During the day almost 200 others in cars came from Toronto and the neighboring district.

Next Sunday there will be two pilgrimages. The Italian Society of St. Lucy will arrive to attend 10 o'clock mass at Mary Lake. At 1 o'clock the Legion of Mary are expected. Services of devotion to Our Lady of Grace are held every Sunday at 4 o'clock and the two societies will be present at this service. About 400 pilgrims are expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lawson of Lakeview, near Port Credit, spent the week-end in King with their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lawson, who were getting settled in their new home.

Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lawson and their little 19 months old daughter, Kendra, have bought the R. Gillies' house on the King side-road. They moved to their new home last week-end. Dr. and Mrs. Lawson, formerly of Port Credit, have lived in Guelph for the past four years, where Dr. Lawson studied at the Veterinary College, being a member of this June's graduating class. He has joined the staff of Connaught Laboratories, Steeles Ave., where he will be engaged in bacteriological research.

Lady Eaton has graciously invited the King Women's Institute to hold a tea at Eaton Hall on the afternoon of June 28, to help them raise funds for their project at the York County Home for the Aged. Mrs. Ivan Specht is convener of the tea, and tickets will be sold to 100 guests. The money raised by this tea will be used to buy a floor covering for the sitting room of the aged women.

Swimming season opened at King Creek on Saturday afternoon, when the children of Holy Trinity Church, downtown Toronto, held their annual Sunday School picnic at the farm of Dr. and Mrs. John Barrie. The rector, Rev. John Barrie, accompanied 60 children and reported that the youngsters had a wonderful time splashing in the water, and racing about the large fields before their picnic supper. For several years the Holy Trinity picnic has been held at Miles Park, Erindale, but when Mr. Barrie was unable to get accommodation there this year, Rev. D.C.H. Michell and Dr. Barrie were pleased to bring the picnic to King.

Mrs. James Brown was in Richvale on Saturday to attend the wedding of her niece, Miss Jewel Watson. She spent the week-end at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Barney Watson.

Mrs. Charles Kerr and Mrs. Jas. Brown were in Thornhill on June 12 when their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Austen Brillinger celebrated their golden wedding. They also visited their aunts at Locust Lawn, Thornhill, and their cousin, Mrs. F. Echlin.

Archie McCallum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mel. McCallum, is to be congratulated on his success in his recent examinations at the U. of Parke Davis, aged 5, has been spending two months in England with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McFerran, of Toronto. They are returning on the Mauritania and expect to be home this week. Mr. Bart Davis, who has been elected president of the Danforth Lions Club and Mrs. Davis are meeting their son in New York and going on to Atlantic City to the Lions Club Convention which is being held next week.

Mrs. G. Franks has been advised to take things a bit easier, following a slight attack recently.

Nice to see Mr. George Allison up and around again since his recent return home from Weston where he has been for the last seven months.

Mr. and Mrs. Len Baker, formerly of Carrville Road, were visitors in Richvale last week.

Congratulations to young David Smith, Oak Avenue. David won the blonde Cocker Spaniel at the Richmond Hill Trade Fair last week.
