CONCORD NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: Mrs. Raymond Stuart, R. R. 1, Maple Telephone Maple 110R3

Swimming lessons for children sponsored by the Thornhill Lions Club are given in the Memorial Swimming Pool at the park every Monday and Thursday morning. A bus to Thornhill Park leaves Hollis' Grocery Store at 11.10 a.m. and Bows' General Store at 11.15 a.m. Classes are open to all children interested in learning how to swim.

The first league play-off game on Thursday between Concord and Elia ended with a score of 6-3 in favour of Elia. This places the Concord team in a position where they must win the next game in order to remain in the play-offs. The boys got new maroon and gold sweaters on Saturday and will be all rigged out in them when they play their next game. Plans are under way for the Concord Sports dance on July 31 in the Army and Navy Veterans Club at Yonge St. and Steeles Ave. Tickets are now being sold for draws on a number of articles including a mantle radio, camera, electric egg cooker, pyrex combination refrigerator and ovenware dishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Whalley and family and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bailey and family spent the week end at Shanty Bay on Lake Simcoe.

Belated birthday greetings go to Don Keffer who observed Monday, July 2, as his day.

His many friends are glad to see Ronnie Keffer out and around again following his operation last week in St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto.

Mrs. Baker and son Arthur were away for a week-end visit to Fawnell Falls.

The Summer evening Bible classes for children conducted by Sunday School teachers of the Brethren in Christ Church and held in Concord school house during the past two weeks are very well attended. These classes have been conducted annually for the past five years and are greatly appreciated by the younger folk.

 Zion Lutheran Church, Sunday, July 15, 1951. Sunday School at 10 a.m., Sunday service at 11 a.m.

Pictures illustrating the Fourth Commandment were shown in the church last Sunday afternoon. Movies on the Fifth Commandment will be shown on Sunday afternoon, July 22.

The Women of the Lutheran Church will meet on Wednesday evening, July 18, at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Roy Keffer.

Elia News
 The Woman's Association of the Elia United Church met on Tuesday, July 3, at the home of Mrs. Jack Chapman. There were fifteen ladies present and Mrs. Paul Snider presided.

Mrs. Tonkin read the scripture from St. Matthew chapter seven, verses 21-29. Mrs. Hill took the topic entitled "The wise man built his house upon a rock."

Following the meeting dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Church is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Snider.

Here are a few hints on packing for those who are planning a trip.

Experts claim all the items a person needs on a week-end trip can be packed into a 21-inch suitcase in less than ten minutes.

Always pack in layers, placing heaviest items on the bottom. It's a good plan to separate each layer with tissue. This makes it simple to remove separate items without disturbing entire case. It also helps prevent wrinkles and creases.

Pack last things to be worn first. Night garments, robe and slippers on top, lingerie, scarves and blouses also because they are light.

To arrive at your destination with a minimum of wrinkles in your suit, follow these four points.

1. Fold skirt or trousers lengthwise and lay it on bag so bottom hangs out over bag.

2. Now jacket, with shoulders to rear of bag, goes on top and sleeves are folded across jacket.

3. Fold skirt or trouser ends over jacket.

4. Flip bottom of suit jacket over skirt.

Place shoes in special bags so they won't soil other clothes. If you don't have shoe bags, try using a pair of old socks.

Pack spillables like shaving lotion, cold cream, etc. in pillow bags, so they won't harm other clothes should they chance to break. Stuff stockings in gloves to prevent snags and runs.

And here's an old army trick. Roll your sweater. Sweaters can be kept wrinkle free and compact by folding arms against front and rolling garment from bottom.

To pack a dress, hold it by the shoulders so that the hem is across the back of the bag, one-fourth of the dress towards the handle. Fold the shoulders to the back, and hem forward to the handle. Cross the sleeves and your dress is packed.

EDGELEY NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: Mrs. Raymond Stuart, R. R. 1, Maple Telephone Maple 110R3

Edgeley United Church Sunday, July 15, 1951, Sunday School 1.30 p.m., Sunday Service 2.30 p.m.

On Tuesday evening, July 3, the church and community strawberry supper was held in Edgeley Community Hall. Supper was served at 7 p.m. after which a very enjoyable programme was presented. This included songs by Mrs. Read of Springfield followed by guitar selections by Jean and John Keffer, songs by Mrs. Sydney Steventon, popular pianoforte selections by Miss Shirley Avery, vocal selections by Miss Marjorie Young and harmonica selections by Mason Fletcher.

The special speaker was Miss Petrie of Maple who gave a graphic account of her experiences as nurse in charge of repatriation work in West Germany. She challenged her listeners to understand those who come as new Canadians to live among us.

Sydney Steventon ably accompanied each singer on the piano. The beautiful flowers which adorned the platform were the gift of Miss Ella Whitmore.

Rev. P. J. Lambert acted as chairman for the programme and voiced appreciation to the ladies of their good work in preparation of the supper.

Mr. Emerson Cooper of Grand View, Manitoba is visiting with friends in this vicinity.

Mr. Albert Atkinson from Buffalo, N.Y., also Messrs. Edward and Howard Atkinson from London, Ont., have been visiting with their sister, Mrs. Menno Smith.

Hendry celebrated her ninth birthday with a party for a few of her friends and school mates. Those attending were: Diane and Jane Fierheller, Margaret and Doreen Broadbent, Mary Morden, the White sisters, Marie Allison and her little sister and Sharon and Valerie Baker.

Games were enjoyed with all the guests participating. This was topped off with birthday cake and other delicious goodies.

Evelyn and Francis Stong are spending the week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Newton.

The weather may have dampened things a bit last week but it did not dampen the will of 23 ladies to turn out to the Institute picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dalziel on Thursday afternoon.

Owing to the moistened conditions and a strong cool breeze, the picnic supper was eaten indoors and enjoyed by everyone.

Your correspondent and husband returned this week from a week's sojourn in Northern Ontario.

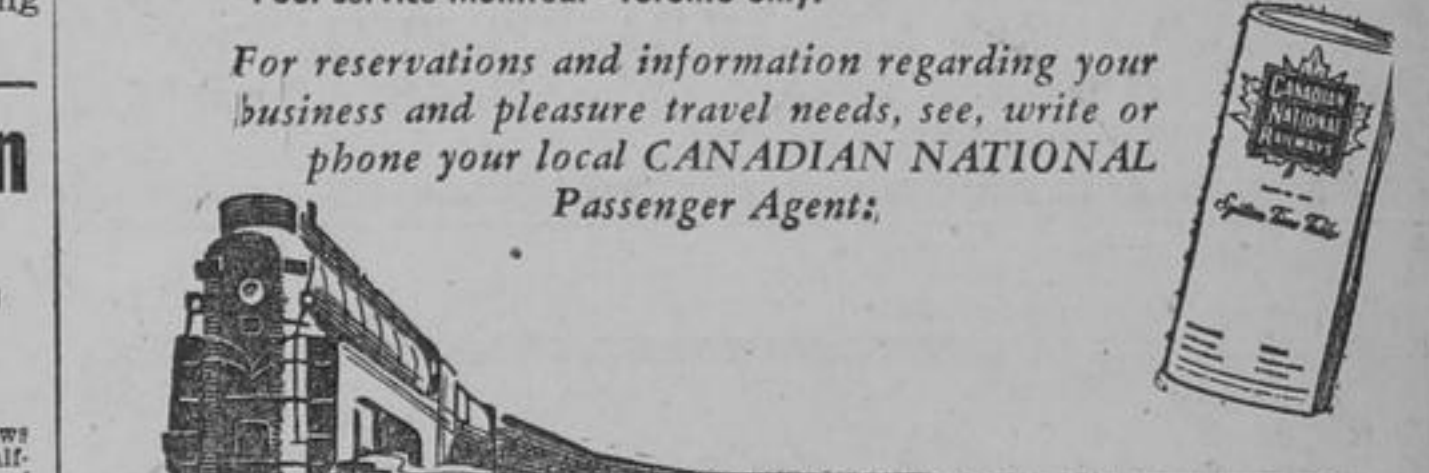

One of the highlights of the trip was a visit to a fire ranger's post at Port Loring where we learned of the methods used to locate, combat and prevent forest fires. The visit proved extremely interesting and highly educational and anyone who is contemplating a trip north would be well advised to visit on of these posts which are strategically located about 50 miles apart throughout the northland.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Peeler also vacationed in Muskoka last week and were successful in landing a 21 1/2 inch pickerel weighing about 5 lbs.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Nicholls accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Louis Nicholls of Victoria Square and by Mrs. Stuart Macdonald of Smith Falls spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. C. Stong.
