

Richmond Hill . . .

The Liberal is always glad to receive social and personal items for this page and a call to Telephone No. 9 will receive courteous attention. This newspaper will also welcome news reports about church organizations, women's and men's societies, lodges and other groups. While copy will be accepted up to Wednesday of each week, it is desirable to have it in earlier if possible to ensure its publication.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Kent and Jimmy moved to Warminster last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. William Moore and Anne of Youngstown, Ohio, visited their parents last week.

Reeve Wm. Neal and Mrs. Neal Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Scott enjoyed a trip through the north country over the week-end.

Mrs. K. R. Gallagher and Keith have just returned to Ottawa after spending three weeks with Mrs. Bowyer and family.

Miss Nessie Craig of Kilmarnock, Scotland visited with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. P. Ross and family for the past ten days at their cottage at Georgian Bay.

Mrs. Chester Unger and daughter Aileen Ann of Vineland, are visiting in Richmond Hill while Mr. Unger is attending the Reserve Army Camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McCurry and family moved into their new home at 17 Elizabeth St. last week-end. The McCurrys formerly lived in Toronto.

The matinee every Wednesday afternoon at The Richmond during July and August is proving popular. This is in addition to the regular matinee Saturday afternoon.

Miss Mary Dawson and Miss Alvena Smith attended the Central Ontario Weekly Press Association's annual meeting held at the Midland Country Club, Midland, last Saturday.

Burt Lancaster and Dorothy McGuire along with Edmund Gwenn star in the fine attraction Mister 880 which will be showing at The Richmond Monday and Tuesday. You're sure to enjoy this program and remember no matter how hot the weather it's always cool and comfortable at The Richmond.

R H Library Hours Are Changed For Summer

Richmond Hill Library Board has purchased two hundred new books, reports Mrs. B. L. Anderson, chairman of the board. The Foundling by Cardinal Spellman, Morning Journey by Hilton, Round the Bend by Shute, Old Bailey and Its Trials by O'Donnell, Festival at Farbridge by Priestley, are only a few of the popular editions bought.

For the months of July and August the library will be open on Tuesday, Friday and Saturday evenings only from 7-9 p.m. The afternoon periods have been discontinued during the summer months.

FIREMEN'S DINTY MOORE'S ALMOST COMPLETE
With Richmond Hill firemen spending every spare moment of their time working on their room at the firehall, which is just above the village's garage, it is expected that the room will be ready in a short time.

Most of the ceiling is finished with the floor yet to be laid. The walls are of plywood and are complete. Donations of furniture and other articles have been made by citizens to help the men make their room as attractive and comfortable as possible.

Bowling Notes

Mr. and Mrs. R. Lynett won first prize at Agincourt last Friday in a mixed doubles tournament.

A mixed trebles tournament will be held at the Richmond Hill green this Saturday afternoon.

The local club is invited to Stouffville this evening, July 12.

Archie Murray and members of the rinks he skipped were successful in winning two tournaments in a row at the local club. Mr. Murray, Mrs. Al. White and Mr. Perry teamed together last Thursday to win the tournament. And again on Monday night Mr. Murray skipped the winning rink including Mrs. Elgie as vice-skip, Bill Savage and Ed Butlin.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Green, Mill Road wish to announce that the marriage of their daughter, Mary Elizabeth to Donald Pelletier will take place Saturday, July 21, at 2 p.m., instead of Saturday, July 21, at 3 p.m., in Richmond Hill United Church. *1w2

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Hicks, of Langstaff, announce the engagement of their daughter Joan Eulalie to Robert David Suter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Suter, Langstaff, the wedding to take place in Richmond Hill United Church, on Monday, August 6, at 3:30 p.m. *1w2

WEDDING

DALTON-SAWKER
Amid a setting of baskets of red and white roses and carnations, with flowers and ribbons decorating the pews, Phyllis Maria Sawker, daughter of Cosmo LoPatreillo became the bride of Kenneth Dalton of Atterson, foster son of Mr. and Mrs. I. West of Atterson, in the Aurora United Church on Saturday, July 7, at 4 p.m. Rev. H. Howie officiated at the ceremony. Mr. Illyd Harris played the organ music and Mr. Donald Watson sang "Because".

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of pastel pink nylon net, with short veil held with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and pale blue carnations. The bride's sister, Mrs. G. Henderson, attended as bridesmaid in a gown of green nylon with picture hat to match, with Toni Sawker, the small daughter of the bride, acting as junior bridesmaid, wearing a bo-peg gown of white nylon net with pink flowers over satin. They carried nosegays of rosebuds and carnations. The best man was Cosmo LoPatreillo, brother of the bride. Mr. William Gohen and Charles Henderson were the ushers.

At the reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cosmo LoPatreillo, Sr., CFRB sideroad, the bride's mother received in a black dress wearing a corsage of American beauty roses. Assisting her was Mrs. I. West in a pale blue dress with hat to match. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

For her going-away outfit the bride donned a silver grey suit, wearing a corsage of talisman roses. The couple left for a trip to northern Ontario and will reside in Atterson upon their return.

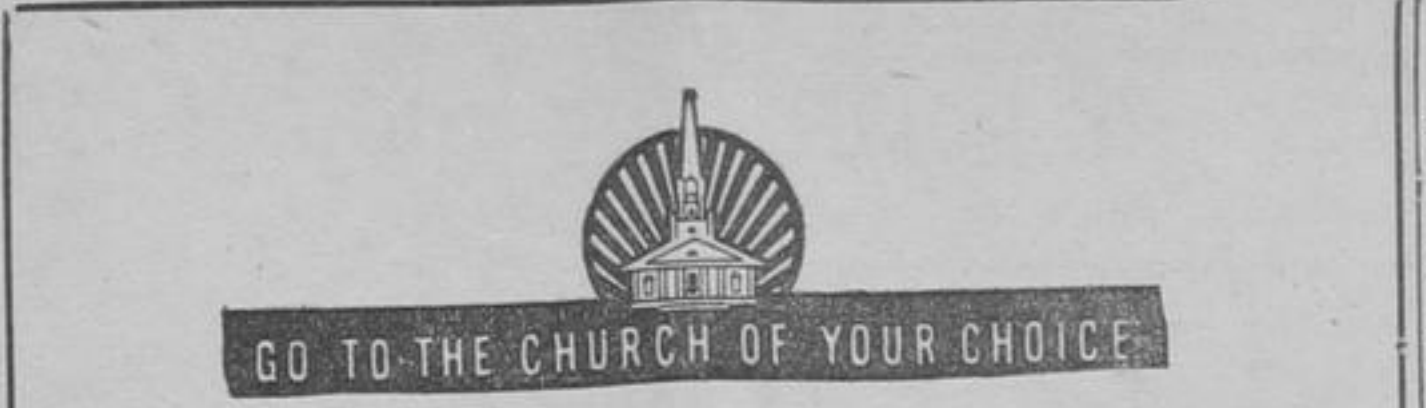

Over one hundred and fifty attended the reception and dance. Lou Nello's orchestra played, with Mrs. Del. Grande, a member of the Leslie Bell Singers, acting as soloist.
