Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bregg of Toronto have come to King to visit their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Teley at the Anglican Rectory. They will be in King for several weeks.

Miss Betty Major of Toronto, who was student teacher at Strange School this Easter, came to attend the annual prize giving and school closing. She was accompanied by her mother and a friend from Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rock left last week on a much anticipated trip to Winnipeg, Bienfait, Moose Jaw and Vancouver. Mr. and Mrs. Rock will be away for two months, and they are being assured by their many friends and relatives whom they will visit, that there will not be many dull moments. In Vancouver, Mrs. Rock will visit an aunt whom she has never met, and she is looking forward to this meeting very much. Besides cousins, there are two sisters of Mr. Rock living in Vancouver and they have planned many side trips, including one to Victoria. On their return journey they plan to spend a few days with Mrs. Rock's brother, Maj. Jas. Brown in Tisdall, North Saskatchewan.

Mr. and Mrs. John Morris left last week on a month's holiday, travelling by motor as far as their old homestead near Kincaid, in Southern Saskatchewan. Mr. and Mrs. Morris left the homestead in 1922 and have not been back since to visit their many relatives and old friends who live near there. On the trip they will go via the Straits of Mackinac, through Duluth to Winnipeg, where they will visit before going on to Kincaid. They expect to return via the Dakotas.

During the absence of Mr. and Mrs. John Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kirby will live in their house in King City. The Watkins products will be available for Mr. Norris' customers.

Mrs. Ross Walker and Miss Mary Jane Walker entertained a number of friends and relatives of Miss Mary Green last week when they held a miscellaneous shower in her honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray, and their granddaughter, Ruth Scott, of Richmond Hill, attended the closing exercises at Strange School. Ruth was a pupil there until last year when she moved to Richmond Hill. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gray also of Richmond Hill.

Miss Mildred Gillies, Miss Mable Rumble and Miss Flora Alexander motored from Toronto to be present at the annual closing and concert at Strange School.

Miss Freeda Farley who has completed her second year as teacher at Strange School, left last week to spend the first of her holidays at her home in Bradford. She will spend most of the holidays at summer school taking the Educational Course at Northern Vocational School, Toronto.

Rev. D. C. H. Michell left last week on a month's vacation to be spent in British Columbia. Mr. Michell will visit his father D. S. Michell in Kamloops during part of his holidays. During his absence, the services at All Saints Anglican Church will be taken by Capt. R. Taylor, Director of the Church Army in Canada, on July 15.

Mrs. Harry McBride was hostess on Thursday evening at a miscellaneous shower, given in honor of Miss Mary Green who has taught at the Eversley school for the past year. The guests numbered twenty and were the mothers and pupils of the Eversley School Section. Miss Green is leaving the school to marry Don Pelletier of Uxbridge and the wedding will take place in Richmond Hill on July 21.

Two young ladies, Suzanne Grew and Julia Bell, have the distinction of doing superbly well in their theory of music examinations. Both girls wrote perfect papers and achieved first class honors in grade 2 Theory, with the perfect mark of 100. Miss Dorothy Armstrong A.R.C.T., R.M.T., is very proud of these outstanding pupils, and is also pleased with the marks attained by all her young musicians. The marks have just been forwarded from the Royal Conservatory of Music, Toronto, where the exams were tried, and they are as follows:—

Joy Collins, Grade 2 piano, honors; Barbara Pearson, grade 4 piano; Chris Beggs, grade 5 piano, honors; Marlene Lloyd, grade 6, piano, grade 1 theory, 82 marks; Gerry Campbell, grade 6 piano, grade 2 theory, honors; Audrey Simpson, grade 1 theory, 96 marks, first class honors; Suzanne Grew, Grade 2 theory, 100 marks, 1st class honors; Julia Bell, grade 2 theory, 100 marks, 1st class honors; Beth Hodgson, grade 2 theory, 96, 1st class honors; Pat Simpson, grade 2 theory, 85 marks, 1st class honors; Mary Ann Moore, grade 2 theory, 86 marks, 1st class honors.

Betty and Bob Arbuckle, the 14-year-old twins of Mr. and Mrs. Arbuckle of Laskay, won the prize donated by the Laskay Women's Institute for the pupil in grade 8 social time followed and tea was served, with Mrs. Leslie Glass and Miss Helen Hunter presiding at the tea table.

Three children were awarded small silver cups for perfect attendance when the prizes for the year were presented at the Strange school on Tuesday evening. The children were Frances Forrester and Grace Glass of Grade 2 and Ralph Finch of Grade 1. Rev. M. R. Jenkinson presented the cups and congratulated the children on their good health and fine attendance record. He also introduced Lila Ann Forrester, who intends to be a winner next year and who had only had one day absent this year. At present there are 33 children in the school, four of this year's group will be leaving for high school. They are Bob and Betty Arbuckle, Edward Etheridge and Verna McDonald. When school opens in September, thirteen new pupils are expected, eight of whom will be beginners.

So that the Bible Vacation School could get underway, the Women's Institute forwarded the sum of $25.00 to the secretary-treasurer, Gordon Tetley, The W. A. of King City United Church contributed $10.00 this past week. Rev. David Wotherspoon, who has helped to organize the summer school has purchased literature and supplies from the Ontario Committee of Christian Education, and the work will begin for the children at 9 a.m. on July 16, and daily until noon, until July 27. Bible study will be included in the studies, as well as play and recreation.

The McMurphy prize awarded in memory of Mrs. Alex McMurphy, and presented by Norman McMurphy to the pupil with the highest standing in Nature Study, and having the best science note book, was won by Edward Etheridge of Grade 8. The prize, a beautiful book "Birds of America."

The prize for the best writing note book went to Jim Finch of Grade 6. It is unusual that a boy should win this prize. The awards for the best social studies note books were as follows: for grades 3 and 4, won by Ross Gillies; for grades 5 and 6, won by Donna Pickell; for grades 7 and 8 won by Betty Arbuckle. For the best Bible, was won by Donna Pickell. Rev. David Wotherspoon made the presentations.

During the evening and following the prize giving, a concert was given by the children, and besides the choirs of the senior and junior grades and a rustic dance by 8 children of grades 3 and 4, the following children performed: Judy and Bobby Scott, Nora Jane Hately, Frances Forrester, Spencer Finch, John Scott, Carol Ann Egan, Verna McDonald, Janet Mary Finch. Miss Helen Hunter played the accompaniments for the singing and dancing.

Before refreshments were served by the mothers of the school children. Mr. Charles Howitt, former inspector of this school district, addressed the gathering. A happy marriage by her father, were a white satin wedding gown, falling gracefully to floor length, and a finger-tip veil held in place with a pearl crown. She carried deep red roses, and pink and white carnations in a shower bouquet.

Her attendants were her sisters, Mrs. Mary Gillies of Toronto in pale green lace over satin, and Mrs. Wilma Eaker of Richvale, in pale pink. Their flowers were red roses, and white and yellow carnations. Miss Jean Miller of Toronto was maid of honor, her gown being deep blue lace over nylon, and her flowers yellow carnations. Little Marie Minton, sister of the groom, was flower girl, and she wore a long dress of white lace over yellow, a crown of deep red roses, yellow, pink and white carnations, and carried a nosegay.

The best man was Frank Gillies of Toronto, and the ushers were Dicker Eaker of Richvale and Ron Miller of Toronto.

A reception was held at Bell's Corner, Newmarket, and the groom's mother wore forget-me-not blue nylon with white accessories and corsage. Mrs. T. Elliott of Richvale received for the bride, and she wore deep blue with grey accessories. There were 48 guests.

The honeymoon was spent at Lake Simcoe and the young couple will make their home in Richvale.

Miss Dorothy Armstrong, A.R.C.T., R.M.T., held her annual pupils' recital at her home on June 28. Miss Queen Mogford, elocutionist, of Toronto, was the assisting artist. The pupils gave a fine performance, and their parents and friends appreciated the effort and preparation required by everyone to have made such a varied program. During the evening a gift was presented to Miss Armstrong by Mrs. A. E. Jarvis, on behalf of the fifty pupils who have had an especially successful year under Miss Armstrong's direction. Mrs. Frank Armstrong served light refreshments at the close of the recital.

The choir of King United Church had a party on Wednesday night, (Continued on page 12)
