following the regular choir practice as a reward for their good work during the 80th anniversary services of the church. They invited Mrs. I. L. Scott, Mrs. A. Gordon, Miss Thelma Gordon, Les and Roy Robson and Jack Parsons to be special guests and there were 17 present altogether. A cold meat and salad supper was served under the direction of Mrs. E. Patton.

Keith Cambden is a patient in Stouffville Hospital, as the result of a fall of 15 feet from a hay loft last Friday morning, when he broke his right leg. Mr. Cambden is a traveller for Fairbanks-Morse Co., and after having spent a few days of his vacation up north, he and his wife and son were visiting his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Avis of Ringwood. On Friday morning he was helping the men with the haying when the accident occurred.

A wedding of interest to King will take place on July 28, at All Saints Anglican Church. The bride-to-be is Miss Dorothy Louise, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest K. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wilson, Lakeshore Road, Oakville. Miss Kelley graduated from St. Joseph's Hospital, Toronto, a year ago last June, and is at present nursing at the Convalescent Hospital, Malton. Mr. Wilson graduated from the U. of T., and is with the Aircraft plant of the A. V. Rowe Co. at Malton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Avis of Ringwood, were hosts to thirty-five people from the choir of Teston United Church on Thursday evening. Rev. and Mrs. M. R. Jenkinson were present also. It was a very enjoyable party, and everyone had a wonderful time. Mr. Keith Cambden who had an accident the next morning, was in charge of the games that evening.

Twenty children set out on Saturday morning on what will make this a wonderful summer for them. They were off for the community swimming tank at Thornhill, which is one of the newest and best in Canada. For the sum of $5.00 each they will have a 40 minute swimming lesson twice each week, on Wednesday and Saturday forenoons. They are taken to Thornhill by Langdon Coach lines, leaving King at 10 a.m. The age group includes children from 7 to 14 years. On Saturday morning the 20 children who left with Mr. Langdon were a very excited crowd.

The Langdon Coach lines has a busy summer ahead with would-be swimmers. Each day 4 buses with about 50 children in each bus, will go to swimming centre in the district. Some will go to Thornhill, others to Lake Wilcox, and some as far as Lake Simcoe. The children of Cookstown, Aurora, Maple and King, are only a few who will be learning to swim this summer.

Miss Julia Jarvis left on Sunday for England, where she will spend the next two months, returning to King in September. Miss Jarvis is travelling by freighter, and an unexpected trip up the Saguenay is one of the pleasures of this mode as she left for Montreal where she will board the freighter, Manchester Commerce.

On Thursday, Jimmy Billings was playing at the new house his father, George Billings, is having built on Keele Street. The fun was over when Jimmy fell from a plank and after a trip to Newmarket Hospital it was found that he had broken his arm midway between wrist and elbow. Now he has to wear a cast for three weeks. When the swimming class left for Thornhill on Saturday morning they were sorry to leave Jimmy behind.

Ruth Beynon of Temperanceville was successful in her Grade 2 Theory examinations tried recently at the Royal Conservatory of Music, Toronto. Her marks were 92, and she received 1st class honors. Ruth is a pupil of Miss Dorothy Armstrong. Another pupil, Daphne Turpel of Branksome Hall, Toronto, received 1st class honors, with a mark of 91, when she tried Grade 1 theory.

According to the 1951 census, we now have 530 persons living in the village of King City. The last census of 10 years ago showed that the population then numbered 250.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kelley spent the week-end on a fishing trip at Belmont Lake, near Peterborough, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Mannells of Toronto.

Miss Jessie Gellately was in Toronto on Saturday to attend the wedding of her niece, Margaret Jean, daughter of Mrs. M. Roger Gellately and the late Mrs. Gellately and Mr. Edward Trevor Brignall, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Brignall. The wedding took place in Alhambra Avenue United Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Paxton and their little daughter, Donna Marie of Norwood, who were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. Beynon last week left after the wedding of their niece the former Doris Beynon for their summer cottage at Island Grove. Their son, Gerald has remained at the Beynon home for a holiday.

Mrs. Howard S. Patrick will always celebrate two happy occasions on June 30. Besides it being her wedding day, it is also her birthday. A little family tradition was introduced at her wedding supper when she cut the bride's cake with the same silver knife that was used by her mother, Mrs. M. Beynon, almost 25 years ago, at her wedding reception.

The young folks who will begin High School at Aurora in the fall are Julia Bell, Glen Judd, Joan Patton and June Scott. These are pupils of Miss Eva Dennis who have passed from Grade 8 this year.

A frightened little Airedale puppy was found in a ground hog hole by Mr. and Mrs. B. Jackson one day recently when they were on a picnic in the northern bush of the township. The little fellow was emaciated but full of spirit to protect himself and he snarled and trembled at the same time, and dug himself further into the hole when Mr. Jackson tried to talk to him. When Mr. Jackson produced some crusts left over from the picnic, the little dog, who could not have been more than 10 weeks, eventually came out of the hole, wolfed the food, and looked for more. With food and coaxing he was finally put into the car, and taken home to King where he was made welcome by the Jackson's setter. After a week of good care he developed into a lovable little pet with a host of admirers. He is now spending the summer in New Liskeard with three children who will certainly make him forget that he was a little lost puppy, living with the groundhogs in the bush.
