OBITUARY

LATE JOHN GILES

Richmond Hill's oldest resident, John Giles, passed away in his 91st year at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Arthur C. White, 123 Mill St., Monday, July 16.

Predeceased by his wife, Margaret Angus, the late Mr. Giles came to Canada in 1925, previously being invalided out of the British Army. Ten years later he made his home in Richmond Hill. Beginning an outstanding and long career in service of his country, at Cardiff, Wales, Mr. Giles entered the service of Queen Victoria, joining 41st Welsh Regiment. He first saw action in the Egyptian campaign of 1882-3, going in 1900 to South Africa and there gaining the Queen's and King's Medals. He served there until 1902. At that time he was groom to one of the famous soldiers of the day, Sir George White, whom he later accompanied to Malta and Gibraltar.

When the first Great War broke out he was serving with the Gloucester Regiment, which was one of the very first units to land on the continent, and was one of those who earned the name of "The Old Contemptibles."

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. A. C. White (Betty), Richmond Hill, Mrs. T. R. Robson (Mae), Brantford, one son, Thomas of Birmingham, England, two grandsons, Bill and Howard White. The funeral took place from the Wright and Taylor Chapel, Richmond Hill today, with interment at Richmond Hill cemetery. Service was conducted by Rev. W. F. Wrixon, Rector of St. Mary's Anglican Church and pallbearers were members of Vaughan and Richmond Hill Veterans.

War Brides Assn. Hold 6th. Meeting

The local Canadian War Brides Association held its sixth meeting since inception on June 27 at the home of Mrs. Priscilla Lee, Langstaff Road West. There was a very good attendance including three new members, Mrs. M. McKernan, Mrs. M. Marois and Mrs. D. Boland.

Mrs. Lee donated a pickle dish for the draw which was won by Mrs. H. I. Stroud. The Overseas Parcel was won by Mrs. McKernan. A final report on the association's activities at the Richmond Hill Fair indicated that the venture was very successful. Other money raising projects such as a dance, were discussed.

A letter was read from Mrs. McCarty of Toronto suggesting a bulletin covering Toronto and suburbs be printed so that members could keep in touch with each other and so that the groups could have advance knowledge of the others' projects and activities. A social secretary was therefore created and Mrs. Alma Davis appointed to fill the position.

Arrangements were made to hold the next meeting on Wednesday, July 25 at the home of Mrs. Gladys Evelyn on Elgin Mills Sideroad West. Any other war brides who would like to attend will be very welcome.

Mrs. H. J. Stroud presided in the absence of the chairman who was ill. A pleasant social time and delightful refreshments served by the hostess concluded the evening.

Bowling Notes

Jim Grainger, lead, Stan Piper, second, Russell Lynett, vice skip and Al. White, skip, each won a prize — a fruit juice extractor at the tournament at Kitchener last Wednesday.

Hugh Yerex, A. A. Eden, Morley Hall and Gar. Yerex also attended and won two of their three games.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lynett and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Grainger took part in the tournament at Mimico last Saturday and won the O'Ceard Trophy, as well as individual prizes of rosebushes and trays. Sixteen rinks participated. The cup is now on display in the Liberal Office window.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mizen announce the engagement of their daughter Ada Mabel to Frederick Rowe of Toronto, the marriage to take place Thursday, July 26, in Thornhill Presbyterian Church at 7:30 p.m.

WEDDINGS

A wedding of interest in the Oak Ridges district was solemnized by the Rev. W. F. Wrixon St. John's Church, Oak Ridges, on Wednesday, July 11, when Joyce White, daughter of Arthur and Mrs. White of Oak Ridges became the bride of Corporal Walter Franklin Barnsdale, R.C.C.S., Vimy Barracks, Kingston, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Barnsdale of Oak Ridges. Janet Barnsdale and Arthur White signed the Register. The young couple will make their home in Kingston.

SIMMONS-ROSE

A double ring ceremony was solemnized in Trinity Anglican Church, Aurora, when Betty Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Nash, Richmond Hill, was married to Ronald Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Simmons, Brampton. Rev. Whatnough officiated. Miss Donna Case of Aurora was soloist.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a gown of white embossed nylon with hoop skirt, tight bodice and long sleeves. Her finger-tip veil was covered with tiny pearls and she carried red roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Barbara Rose, matron of honor, was gowned in pale mauve nylon marquisette, with matching head-band. She carried mauve and yellow carnations. Miss Phyllis Hutchinson and Miss Shirley Mylks were bridesmaids gowned alike in pale blue nylon marquisette with matching head-band. They carried red, white and blue carnations. The little flower girl, Sandra Clubine, cousin of the groom, wore a long dress of yellow nylon with bonnet to match and carried yellow roses. Gary Everitt, nephew of the bride was ring bearer.

Mr. Gerry Simmons was groomsman for his brother, Mr. H. Rose, brother of the bride and Mr. T. Clubine, uncle of the groom were ushers.

Following the reception at the Graystones in Aurora where the bride's mother received in a navy nylon dress with white accessories assisted by the groom's mother in pale blue lace with navy accessories, Mr. and Mrs. Simmons left for a trip to Niagara Falls and Northern Ontario. They will reside in Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Durocher of Ajax were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bell during the week.

District Scout and Cub News

Fifteen Scouts from Southern Ontario attended the Bronze Arrowhead Course at Camp Samac, Oshawa, last week. Four boys from Richvale represented York Central District and enjoyed the week very much despite the inclement weather. They were Bill Robson, Don-ny Robson, Glen Turnbull and Jack Underhill.

Mrs. Peter Woodger and Mrs. Mary Hood are attending the Akela Camp at Blue Springs, near Acton, this week.

Garner, Clubine Again Winners

Speed was the by-word in Richmond Hill Arena last Friday evening as that popular pair Bill Clubine and Red Garner zipped to a crowd-pleasing win over "Mangler" Ed. Mangotick and Baron Von Sieber in an exciting tag team match.

The match started out slowly but after Garner spread Mangotick for the first fall, the larger and more rugged pair, Mangotick and the Baron, put on the pressure and after subjecting first Garner and then Clubine to some pretty rough handling, dropped young Clubine while his team-mate stood helpless outside.

In the third and final stanza, Clubine kept after Von Sieber and managed to pin him for the count. At this point the Mangler jumped into the ring and only after some time was order restored.

Clive Burton, the great crowd-pleaser, wrestled to a draw with Farmer Norm. Alexander. This match was a thriller from start to finish and almost stole the show from the main eventers.

This rugged pair battled about the ring with first one then the other seeming to have the advantage. With no love lost between them (a holdover from their lacrosse games no doubt) and the Farmer drawing down the ire of the crowd by his unethical & at times brutal tactics, they wound up even, and we believe a rematch is in order.

In the opener, Red O'Brien of West Toronto, subdued a spunky but very game lad, Red Doherty of Richmond Hill.

It's much easier and cheaper to telephone Richmond Hill 9 and insert a notice in the "Coming Events" column than it is to address and stamp a lot of envelopes. Try it.
