

Richmond Hill . . .

The Liberal is always glad to receive social and personal items for this page and a call to Telephone No. 9 will receive courteous attention. This newspaper will also welcome news reports about church organizations, women's and men's societies, lodges and other groups. While copy will be accepted up to Wednesday of each week, it is desirable to have it in earlier if possible to ensure its publication.

Mr. Hartley Long of Seattle, Wash., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Orr on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Roy and family returned from their holiday at Gull Lake, Minden, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Horner and Doreen have returned after a three weeks' holiday at Woodland Beach.

Miss Shirley Paris, Church St., is holidaying this week at Lake Simcoe.

Mrs. R. Fox and granddaughter Ann Fox are holidaying at Wasaga Beach.

Dr. Lowrie will be at Clarke's Pharmacy, Wednesday, August 8, from 9.30 a.m. to 12 noon.

Miss Doris Bowyer has returned home after spending two weeks vacation in Ottawa with her sister, Mrs. Gallagher.

Miss Carol Mansbridge is spending two weeks' holidays with the Ed. Butlins at their cottage at Bala.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm Tyndall, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Teetzel and family, Roseview Ave., are holidaying at their cottage on West Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Pollard and Jimmy spent a couple of days last week in London with Mr. and Mrs. O. Day. Mrs. R. Edean returned with them after visiting her daughter for two weeks.

While Mrs. Jos. Orr, Richmond Street, was in Tottenham last week, she attended the funeral of her brother, the late Hamilton Bateman of Niagara Falls.

Miss Gertrude Lever, Mrs. John Sheardown, Mrs. E. Craig and Mrs. E. Reynolds were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bell at Coldwater and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Kent at Warminster.

There is a matinee at "The Richmond" every Wednesday afternoon during July and August and it is proving very popular with the youngsters and grown-ups as well.

This is in addition to the regular Saturday matinee.

The Rev. W. F. Wrixon conducted the service at St. John's Church, Oak Ridges on Sunday morning last. After the service Mr. and Mrs. Wrixon were entertained to lunch by Mr. Frank Legg.

Mrs. D. D. Ross, who for six years has been living with her brother, Prof. C. A. Chant, at the David Dunlop Observatory, left on July 22 for Calgary, Alberta, where she will live with her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Hartrick. Mr. and Mrs. Hartrick arrived by automobile on Tuesday, July 17, and are conveying her back with them.

Seven members of the Gallagher family, three brothers and four sisters, all born in Trinidad, B.W.I. enjoyed a very pleasant family reunion Sunday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Edmunds, Centre Street West, Richmond Hill. The re-union, the first time all members of the family were together in forty-one years, was arranged by Mrs. Edmunds and other members of the Gallagher family present were: Mrs. Alice Todd of Long Island, N.Y.; Richard Gallagher of Dallas, Texas; John Gallagher of Long Island, N.Y.; Kenneth Gallagher of Toronto; Mrs. C. W. Lyon of Toronto and formerly of Ashville, N.C., and Miss Irene Gallagher of Toronto. Sons and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gallagher, Trinidad plantation owners, all were born in the B.W.I. but all now are citizens of either the United States or Canada. Forty-one years ago all were together in Trinidad, and in the intervening years members of the family have seen each other, but never in the more than four decades until Sunday's delightful family gathering were all able to get together.

Bonnie Prince Charlie is the feature attraction at "The Richmond" next Wednesday and Thursday. The picture in technicolor is fine entertainment and sure to please local movie fans. There will be a matinee Wednesday afternoon at 2 p.m. and the usual shows in the evening at seven and nine o'clock.

LATE JOHN GILES, Richmond Hill's oldest citizen, and North York's oldest veteran in years and years of service who was accorded military honors at his funeral held last Thursday. He was in his 91st year and passed away July 16 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Arthur C. White, Mill St. Following service conducted by Rev. W. F. Wrixon, interment took place in Richmond Hill cemetery, the pall bearers being, Reeve William Neal, Roy Masters president of Vaughan and Richmond Hill Veterans, Constable William Adams of Vaughan Township, George Masters, Henry Hall and George Patterson, all members of Vaughan and Richmond Hill Veterans. At the request of the deceased the Last Post was sounded by James Butler J.P.

Most Valuable Player Trophy For N. Stunden

We are sure that it will meet with the hearty endorsement of hockey fans and teammates, that Norm Stunden, Markham Millionaires', goalie was judged most valuable player on the team, by the O.H.A. A handsome cup has been received by the executive for Norm. We offer congratulations to this member of the staff of The Liberal's composing room.

New Fountains In Richmond Hill Park

Two polished stone fountains have been installed by Richmond Hill Lions Club in the village park at a cost of $350. This comes under the jurisdiction of the Civic Projects Committee of the club. Mr. Doug. Boyd, who is in charge of the project, stated on behalf of the Lions that the club hopes children and adults alike will take special care of these fountains, not damaging them in any way as much expense went into their purchasing and installation.

Seriously Ill Baby Flown To Hospital

Stricken with bronchial pneumonia while on a holiday trip with his parents, 11-month-old Rickie Dubois, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dubois, Centre Street West, is making good progress toward recovery in the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto. The gravelly, ill baby, accompanied by his mother, was flown from Kapuskasing for treatment last week. He is expected home from the hospital next week.

Signs Down At School

The "no parking" signs in front of the Public School, on the west side of Yonge Street, Richmond Hill, have been taken down as ordered by council for the remainder of the summer months. They will be replaced with the opening of school in September to ensure again the safety of the children.

Live Wires Cause Fire

Fire resulted early Sunday morning about 12.30 a.m. when hydro guy wires slackened letting the wires down on Lorne Avenue in Richmond Hill. The wires burned for fifteen minutes until hydromen reached the scene to do a repair job. "Where prices meet purses" — in the classified ad. section. Telephone yours to Richmond Hill 9.
