INSURANCE Cont.

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS

With the increase of fire hazards property owners should review their insurance policies, and due to the increased cost of materials would be well advised to increase the amounts of insurance. Also car owners who think it will never happen to them are caught some time or other without protection. The cost is a minor amount to what it will cost if an accident happens.

LANGSTAFF NEWS

CORRESPONDENT — MRS. STAN. V. WORSDALE
Telephone Thornhill 257r12

Mrs. G. E. Robinson Passes
Mrs. Edith Robinson, widow of the late George Edward Robinson, passed away suddenly early Friday morning while on a visit with her sister, Mrs. Dorothy Kilpatrick, No. 7 Highway. She had been with Mr. and Mrs. Kilpatrick since Monday and when she complained of not feeling well Thursday evening, they sent for a doctor. Mrs. Robinson had been living with her son, Dewey, in Toronto.

The funeral service took place Monday afternoon, with interment in St. John's Cemetery, Norway. The sympathy of the community is extended to the Kilpatricks and the other relatives at this distressing time.

Mrs. A. Duncan of Church Street had Mrs. Low of Wilcox Lake visiting her at the beginning of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Lee of Langstaff Road West spent a week of their holidays motoring in the States. The children, Ricky and Lorne, were quite intrigued with the "little houses," the cabins and motels, where they put up at night. They paid calls on relatives in Detroit, Michigan, and Erie, Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Mathews of "Stonehaven," No. 7 Highway, spent half of their three weeks vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Ken Harpur at their home on Wing Lake, 25 miles north of Detroit. Their

Langstaff Church Notes

The congregation of Langstaff Baptist Church were given a special treat on July 16, when Mr. and Mrs. S. LaRiche of Garden Ave., Langstaff, held an open house evening for all who desired to attend.

This occasion grew out of a warm friendship which has existed for a few years between the congregation and a young student, Herbert Foster, who has been studying at Dallas Theological Seminary, and who during the summer months, has been coming to Langstaff Baptist Church as a student preacher. Mr. Foster recently graduated with the degree of B. Sc. The parents of Mr. H. Foster, the Rev. and Mrs. C. S. Foster, who have been Missionaries in North Rhodesia, Africa, for thirty-four years are here now on furlough. A daughter has also graduated this year as nurse and is also planning to go to the Rhodesian field. A new hospital has been erected there over which another son, Dr. Robert has charge.

There is a very great need all over this African area for doctors, nurses, Bible school and language teachers. So great a need is there that Rev. and Mrs. C. S. Foster have given their years there, devoted to the learning of the languages and then translating the English Bible into the tribal languages for their use. This work has been a triumph over the dark understanding of that land and has wrought many changes in the lives and customs there.

The congregation was left with no doubt whatever of the thoroughness of their work or of their capabilities, when after the introduction and some minor preliminaries, Rev. and Mrs. Foster spoke and acted a dialogue to introduce some of the tribal manners and words used when talking. This dialogue consisted of one speaking in English and the other answering in a tribal language using all the peculiar little endings on the words, also very noted expression both with the tongue and the movements of their hands thrown in. This proved to be very interesting to old and young as well as amusing. There was also a treat for the children when Rev. Foster described certain animals indigenous to Rhodesia and imitated their sounds. He also told an amusing story of two civet cats, better known in this country as polecats.

Following this was a mixed programme of choruses, duets, solos, prayer, recitation and Scripture Reading. The twenty children present sang the choruses they had learned at Sunday School.

The Teen Ageds and Juniors who have been working for Dr. Bob's hospital (as we know it) displayed their pretty quilts, pillow slips, an afghan and other items. The Juniors prepared dainty scrap books, dressed dolls and little useful knick-knacks for hospital purposes. The programme over, Pastor A. R. Jones in very kind and fitting words presented to Rev. and Mrs. C. S. Foster on behalf of Langstaff congregation, a lovely gift. After fervent remarks of appreciation by Rev. Foster the meeting closed with prayer and blessing by Mr. Carter.

A tasty repast was enjoyed by all at the close of the meeting. All joined in deepest thanks to Mr. and Mrs. La Riche for the use of their home.

Dawn of a new telephone era!

To Business Subscribers . . .
A new numbering system will be introduced at the time of the "cut-over." All numbers will include the prefix "Turner 4" and four figures, for example: Turner 4-3499. It is important that you keep this in mind when ordering stationery or any material that includes your telephone number.

By next spring, Richmond Hill will have the very latest type of telephone service . . . the "Dial" system. The construction of our new building on Richmond Street is now completed and the installation of the complex dial switching equipment will start towards the end of the year. New type dial instruments will be installed well in advance of the "cut-over." The whole project is part of our continuing expansion and improvement program designed so that you may have more and better telephone service. It means greater telephone value to every user.
