More Usable Space!

UNICO's one-piece laminated rafters require no cross-bracing. The interior of your barn, garage or shed is completely clear of obstructions — giving you more storage space.

UNICO LAMINATED RAFTERS are bolted together at the peak while on the ground. Three men can easily erect the light and rigid span.

There are UNICO LAMINATED RAFTERS for every farm building. Ask for all the details on rafters for any building you're planning to erect.

OAK RIDGES & LAKE WILCOX NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. C. L. STEPHENSON
Telephone King 97R31

Mr. Len. Dion and Bobbie and Mr. J. Thomas, Bobbie's grandfather, fishing at Miami Beach last Wednesday, caught a fish that weighed five pounds, ten ounces.

Speaking of fish, they are biting in Lake Wilcox this week. Your correspondent has heard reports of "big" ones being caught, and this morning saw a visitor, carrying a pike that was about twenty inches long, home for breakfast.

The Henderson Sisters left last Tuesday for a two weeks vacation in Iowa. They will be singing at a Church Conference while they are away.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Saunders, Freda and Eric, left on Sunday for a week in Providence, Rhode Island, where they visit Mrs. Saunders' sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller and their son Mervin, who came to America from Ireland last June. It is sixteen years since Mrs. Saunders last saw her sister at their home in Ireland. Mr. Miller was then a girl of thirteen. Mr. Saunders visited the Millers when he was in Ireland last year, but it will be a first meeting for the other members of both families. Mr. Saunders' meat market will re-open on August 21.

Mrs. Roy Follitt (Mrs. Roy Follitt (Anna Stewart) a life long resident of King Township, passed away at her home "Sprucedale" on Thursday. She was a member of the United Church of Canada at Temperanceville. She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Emerson Jennings (Edna) Uxbridge, and one son Ruston at home, and two sisters, Mrs. John H. C. Durham (Bernice), Mrs. Charles E. Cane (Almeda) Hamilton, and one brother, Melville Stewart, Bradford, Ontario. Funeral service was conducted at the residence by Rev. G. Lynde, a former minister at Temperanceville, with interment at King.

Seven members of the Oak Ridges Junior Riding Club spent three days at the Sutton Horse Show, staying at Tally Ho Inn. They took eight horses with them and returned with the following ribbons:

Saddle pony class: 3rd John Woolley on Teddy; 4th, Sheila Wilkinson on Cream Puff. Junior Equitation, 3rd Anne Rowe on Teddy; 4th John Woolley on Cream Puff. Pony brood mare class: 2nd Ginger 3rd. Pony foal class: 2nd Shine.

The Club plans to enter two horses at the Toronto Exhibition. Miss Katherine Guna was bridesmaid at her uncle's wedding in Toronto recently. Mrs. Guna's brother Mr. Richard L. Mutch married Miss Ruth Playter, a member of one of Toronto's oldest families. The reception was held at the United Empire Loyalist Headquarters on Prince Arthur Avenue.

Mr. John Mabee, Yonge Street, is leaving this week for Montreal. He has been assistant manager of the women's sport shop, Robert Simpson Company, Toronto, and goes to Montreal as manager of the sport shop in their store in that city. He has secured a house there and the family will follow as soon as it is ready for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Farquharson and Mrs. L. Farquharson and small David, returned on Friday night from a seven day trip that covered twelve hundred miles. They went to North Bay, Sault Ste. Marie and across into Northern Michigan, down the coast of Lake Huron to Detroit, where they spent two days, and home via Windsor. The trip included two ferry rides on the American side which were very enjoyable.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Woolley are laying the floor in their new house. They expect to occupy it this winter.

Who said You can't Afford a Fine Car?

MANY's the man who has paid far more for a fine car than the price of this beauty—and got less than this gay and gallant traveller offers. Sweeping proudly past you, it has a distinction that few cars can equal. Stepping nimbly away from a stop light, it has the willing surge of power that the very exclusive combination of a Fireball engine and Dynaflo Drive* delivers. It rides the road with majestic smoothness, and comes to a smooth and gentle halt, in response to the finest brakes that Buick engineers ever developed. Inside, it has spacious room, from side to side and front to back and seat to roof—plus a softness of cushions and a richness of fabrics which the custom standards to which bespeak it is built. All you want in a fine car is here in abundance. But don't let that fool you into deciding "it's too rich for me."

If you've looked into 1951 car prices generally, you'll discover this: You can own a BUICK for little more than an ordinary car will cost—and for several hundred dollars less than the price tags usually found in "the fine car field." Why not look into this today? A GENERAL MOTORS VALUE
