Subscription Rate $2.50 per year; to the United States $3.00

Member Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association

SAM COOK, Editor

J. E. SMITH, M.P., Publisher ALVERNA SMITH, Associate Editor Telephone, Richmond Hill 9

Hometown Friendliness

ped in to see us the other day. On the sometimes comment on the interest small way to the newspaper office he walked town people take in each other's affairs. through the town's business section. He To the uninitiated this might appear to was greatly impressed.

said 'good morning' to me," he told us. "I like that. People in the city are so busy rushing about their own affairs that they can't be bothered even to smile, let alone give a stranger a friendly 'hello'!"

always rather taken for granted the friendliness of our hometown and it had never occurred to us that it might be something visitors would be surprised about. We realize now that it is an unique feature of our way of life and a significant characteristic of our smaller Canadian communities.

City folks with little knowledge of our neighbors and good for us.

'A friend of ours from the city drop- day-to-day living in towns and villages be simply "nosiness." But anyone ac-"Practically everyone on the streets quainted with the facts can tell them that it is something else altogether.

In small communities where the tempo of life is a bit more leisurely than in the cities we can afford to take time to get to know our neighbors, to talk with That started us thinking. We had them about their activities and ours, to watch for a chance to lend a hand to the fellow who needs help or to put in a word of encouragement when it will do some good. That's why we say "good morning" to strangers as a matter of course. It's a good thing, too, this business of friendliness and co-operation and looking out for the other fellow. Good for

Safety On The Farm

National Safety Council, farmers lead a and they have been used for centuries. rather dangerous life. For everyone killtion, farm injuries are mounting.

and bulls come next. A third of the occur from carelessly handling them. farm casualties are among children due to Agricultural News.

ing rural accident frequency rate. Axes follow it.

From statistics garnered from the and pitchforks take a sizable annual toll

There is no doubt that when one aned accidentally many more are seriously alyses the cause of farm accidents, careinjured. In contrast to such occupations lessness will be found to be the chief reaas mining, construction and transporta- son behind them. Manufacturers of modern farm machines are careful to place While the increasing use of machin- safety guards on them. These are removery may be the cause of the rise in the ed when repairs are being made and ofaccident rate, farm animals are still a ma- ten are not placed back. Safety instrucjor hazard to the rural worker. In one tions and pesticide containers are disrereport they are at the top of the list with garded and since many pesticides are horses causing the most mishaps. Cows poisonous, death or painful illness could

While industry has developed safety the fact they are allowed to ride or be campaigns, the farmer is usually on his close to operating machinery, says C-I-L own and suffers most when he is laid up from an accident. It is up to the indi-One cannot blame farm machinery vidual farm; therefore, to organize its for being the major cause of the mount- own safety program and conscientiously country, the bringer of tidings, the com- social and economic change, we shall give panion of your fireside hours. I am your ear to the honeyed voices of the demafriend away from home. I am the pro- gogues. Perhaps, softened by ease, corphet of tomorrow, your link with the world rupted by paternalism, we shall forget beyond your doorstep. I am today's link truth, tolerance, kindliness, initiative. with history. But most of all, I am the Maybe we shall forget that while the burconscience of Canada. And I must be den of responsibility always rests heavy on heard.

Your Weekly Newspaper

tries — been used to blackout the truth. ers stronger. Perhaps we shall decide No hidden power has used me to stifle the that Democracy is not for us, that we are kindlier instincts of a whole people, rouse not ready for it. barbaric passions and set feet tramping conscience - and I will be heard.

outmoded, worn out, finished. It is still free and God will "make us mightier yet." the newest thing on earth; too new even cy and despair.

and will be put to the test in the years to the truth. And you trust me.

I am the voice of your town and your come. Perhaps, caught in the mesh of the shoulders of those willing to bear it. I have never - as in certain coun- that very willingness makes those should-

I don't think so. For I am Canada's the long red road. No secret voices made conscience and I have faith in Canada's me keep silent while a trusting nation died. destiny. I know that as long as I am free I am not infallible. I have your weak- to speak, Canada will listen. I must not be nesses, for I am of you and by you, but I silenced, for when you silence me you silalso have your steadfast strength. Some- ence your own heart. I must not be entimes I have slumbered, and then wrongs slaved, for when you enslave me you are were done. But I have always awakened, alone, cut off from reality, abandoned by I am the Conscience of Canada - your truth, at the bottom of a black pit of horror and fantasy. Gag me and your child-I bid you have faith in Canada. I tell ren will never know the Canada you have you Democracy is not on trial. It is not known. Keep me free and you will be

I look insignificant enough in your to be fully understood. All else is a throw- mail box, yet I am your link of understandback to medievalism, cynicism, desponden- ing with a changing world. I am a passing ephemeral thing born and dying every I tell you Canada is not on trial. It is week. Yet I am one of the foundations of rather we who are on trial. It is our faith, Democracy. I am the conscience of Canaour courage that is being put to the test da. I am beholden to no one. I tell you any human being than to be forgotten.

Lest We Be Forgotten

The years we have been away from familiar greetings BUT WE NEVER DO.

esses are established. Marketing meth- always some other firm's prospects) . .

This is why — to be successful constantly strive to gain new ones.

stays where it is well treated.

To keep in business, you must continually INVITE new business. first create 'good will' - a friendly and and consistently in your home town favorable interest in you and your firm or weekly newspaper. your products . . . usually, all three, for after all - a business is but the length- quired from some one else who has not ened shadow of ONE man. Next, you

A citizen without loyalty to his hometown is not an asset to the community.

Advertising is sort of like a man jour- in which to live." neying through life. Just like the man, advertising accomplishes little without persistence.

safety can save lives.

There is no sadder blow to the pride of must create confidence in the minds of your customers and prospects.

One of the surest ways to build good the old home town are but a day in our will and create confidence and in turn, memory. When we return, we expect to SALES - is through the advertising meet familiar smiles and receive the same columns of your weekly newspaper. It is the least expensive form of missionary advertising . . . of paving the way People forget easily. Firms change for increased sales . . . of holding the hands. People move away. New busin- interest of your old customers (who are ods and conditions are constantly chang- of expanding your business and reaching the people you want to reach.

Today . . . selling is more keen every business firm must keep in con- than ever before. With business on the stant touch with old customers and must "upturn," there will be a steady and hard drive for business by all your com-Business goes where it is invited and petitors as well as those who are competing for your customer's dollar. To hold your present customers . . to win your new market . . . it will pay To invite new business, you must you to plan now to advertise persistently Convictions are habits of thought ac-been too lazy to think.

Can you honestly say each nightfall, "Today I have done at least some little thing to make my hometown a better place

There is far too much profanity in ordinary business conversation, says The Financial Post. It's a waste of words, Round about this time of year holi- boring and offensive. There are plenty of day pleasure is marred by accidents, many words in the English language to cope of which need not have happened. Care with any occasion. Constant profanity is and courtesy on the highways and a know- merely indication that we are not as famledge of the fundamenal rules of water iliar as we should be with our mother tongue.

U.N. to Issue Own Postage Stamps

The United Nations postage stamps shown above will appear during the fall of 1951 and will be used in all mail sent from U.N. Headquarters. Under a recent agreement between U.N. and the United States, U.N. will issue its own postage stamps and will establish a United Nations Post Office to replace the U.S. Post Office now in holding the Tag Day was granted. operation at Headquarters. Ordinary stamps will be issued in 11 denominations. The airmail series will be issued in 4 denominations.

GETTING RID OF FEAR

der, rain, and wind. Even today of God are worthy. the Eskimos account for the sev- There is a good illustration of ren to ride on the sidewalks. of food to offended deity.

of the half-savage Indian.

are at their wit's end to know grasshoppers, and so we were in what to do with the increasing their sight." number of nervous patients. In Later the Israelites entered afraid to face life.

tells of devout persons who would The Bible is full of fine passfor those who possess it.

fied by the most minute and de- happiness and usefulness. tailed observant of the rules he is just as far removed from New taigne: We shall never find peace and joy itself."

Students of the international in our religion - we shall never law covering this matter of bicycsituation as it is today attribute be delivered from fear - until our les on sidewalks should either be the acute tension between nations conception of God is a worthy enforced or repealed. Police Conto fear. There is no doubt that one. A man's idea of God is reg. stable Robbins when questioned on fear plays a large part in our lives. ulative of all his religious think- the subject stated that he felt that Man's earliest fears were of the ing and we cannot be good Chris- actually where a busy thoroughfare elements; storms, lightning, thun- tians ourselves unless our ideas like Yonge Street ws involved it deavour to safeguard themselves soil, of springing fountains, and against poverty, sickness, unto- a land flowing with milk and honable calamity, and their safe- and none need want. All this the guards are not unlike the taboos spies admitted, but other things impressed them more than its fertility. They had seen fearsome In spite of our progressive men. They said: "All the people thinking and living there appears that we saw in it are men of great to be as much fear today as there stature. And there we saw giants; was a century ago. Medical men and we were in our own sight as one generation suicides on this Canaan under courageous leaderfeared death; today many are ship, but no one saw giants. They were creatures of imagination, the scarecrows created by fear. A The Scriptures teach: "There is fearful imagination can play no fear in love, but perfect love strange tricks with people. When casteth out fear." The strange we are looking for a thing we are thing is, however, that deep piety apt to see it when it isn't there. is so often accompanied by a ner- That was a wise saying of Monvous, timid disposition, the very taigne: "The thing in this world opposite of what one might ex- which I am most afraid of is fear by trucks. pect to find. A close student of itself, that passion alone, can exreligious life in the Middle Ages ceed all other accidents of life."

go to confession seven or eight ages showing the futility and folly times in a day and still not be sat- of fear; but it is not enough to isfied - still fearful and unhappy. multiply these texts, nor to add We read of such people and sum- exhortations to courage. We must mon all the tolerance we can; but present such a view of God, His we cannot think that this is a infinite wisdom combined with healthy condition, either of body boundless compassion, that the or of soul. Religious faith ought crude, unworthy views men hold to do something more than that will be replaced by the conception Jesus taught. Then men will no Craven fear has its origin chief- longer live in a demon-ridden ly in a crude idea of God and a world but will rejoice to know that wrong conception of religion, the very name and nature of God There have always been those who is love. There will be reverence thought of God as a far-off deity and humility, but not fear. They - too remote to be interested in will remember that there can be human affairs. All Christian strength which God supplies. That teaching is opposed to that view, blessed assurance will dispel fear. Others have regarded God, Dr. W. Ninety-nine per cent of our B. Silbie says, as "an exacting fears are groundless; ugly shadbusybody who can only be satis- ows that darken ife and spoil our has laid down." That conception Our quotation today is by Mon-Testament teaching as the other. "That which I fear most is fear

Village Council Regular Session 160

Last Monday evening's meeting of the Richmond Hill Council was rather quiet with a small volume of business to be transacted. Reeve William Neal was in the chair with deputy reeve W. J. Taylor and councillor Wes. Middleton in attendance.

Clerk Russell Lynett read a letter from the Orange Home requesting permission of the council to hold a Tag Day in the village on September 22. Permission for Constable Robbins reported to council that over the period of the past month there had been 65 traffic violations in the village including 31 apprehensions for speeding last Saturday.

Deputy reeve Taylor brought up the matter of children riding bicycles on the sidewalks of the village and said that in doing so they were endangering the safety of those people walking on the sidewalk. Mr. Taylor felt that the bywould be safer to allow the childerity of weather and the scarcity how fear can give distorted views Council after some discussion dein the Old Testament account of cided to publish a notice in the Multitudes of thoughtful and the Israelites' first venture into press to the effect that anyone worthy people, even in Christian Canaan. The first spies sent out riding their bicycles on the sidelands, are actuated by fear. All to look over the land saw it walk will be liable to a penalty. It their thinking, their whole philos- through the eyes of fear. Re- was suggested that youngsters who ophy of life, is dictated by appre- member, it was a good land - a must use Yonge Street could walk hension and misgiving. They en- land of hills and valleys, of fertile with their bikes on the sidewalk.

In order to assist south bound ward accidents, and every conceiv- ey, where there was no scarceness motorists obey the traffic lights Streets council decided to erect a white reflector roughly 3 feet square behind the lights. It was brought out that in numerous instances motorists new to the district have inadvertently gone through the lights due, they claimed, to the large electric sign in the neighborhood.

> Members of the council heard reports that on occasion trucks have been obtsructing the side- News walks while unloading. It was the concensus of opinion that this constituted a serious traffic hazard what with children returning to school shortly. After some discussion council decided to have the solicitor draw up a by-law prohibiting the obtsructing of sidewalks

The final item of business for the evening was the calling of tenders to be in the hands of the clerk no later than September 4 for painting the Municipal Hall.

PARKING SPACE

Although it's small Too close a fit, You set your jaw And try for it. You wriggle forth, You wriggle back, Again you shift, Again attack. At last, fatigued, You win the bout, And then the car Behind moves out. / - William W. Pratt.

New Crest For Richmond Hill District High School

.. Richmond Hill District High School Board is offering a $15 prize for a new crest, to incorporate symbollically all or part of the crests or seals of the four Municipalities composing the area, plus the present High School crest.

The competition is open to all the present students of Richmond Hill District High School and to all former students of R.H.H.S., who are not professional artists or engaged professionally in work based on artistry and design.

The contest is to close on September 14th and all entries must be submitted by that date. Completed designs may be left at the secretary's office in the new wing until 4 p.m. of September 14, 1951. Entries from a distance, postmarked September 14, will be admitted.

Entrants are asked not to write or print their names (or other identifying marks) on the front of their entries. Simplicity and clarity of design will be taken into consideration at the time of judging. School colours are green and

Copies of the four municipal crests and of the school crest may be secured from the Secretary of the Board - Mrs. J. R. McAllister, Richmond Hill Post Office by submitting a self-addressed, stamped en-

The award to the designer of the selected crest will be made on the night of the official opening.

Telephone Richmond Hill 500

NEW TIME SCHEDULE

Come & enjoy a good picture in air conditioned atmosphere

Monday to Friday Shows - 7 and 9 p.m. Saturdays and Holidays, continuous from 6.30. Last complete show approximately 9.45 p.m Saturday Matinee 2 p.m. Matinee Wednesday 2 p.m. During July, August

Friday & Saturday — August 24 & 25

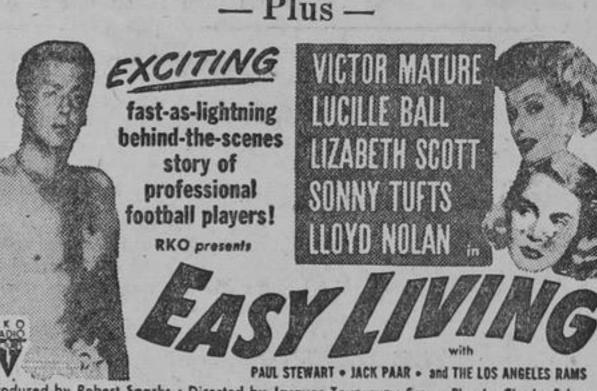

Featurette

Monday & Tuesday — August 27 & 28

- Plus -

Cartoon

Wednesday & Thursday — August 29 & 30

— Plus —

When You Try

The Business Man who does not advertise

You are missing opportunities every day when you fail to let everyone know what you are doing and how well you are doing it

BUT NO ONE ELSE DOES

knows what he is doing