

Local I.G.A. Retailer to attend "World's Fair Of Foods" Jubilee meeting at the Waldorf-Astoria

IGA's silver jubilee celebration — destined to be a virtual "World's Fair of Foods" — will be held the week of August 26 at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel in New York city.

MR. AND MRS. D. McCOWAN, IGA retailer at Maple, Ont., will be among the more than 3,000 grocers and their families to attend the anniversary party.

A unique, dissolving color slide presentation entitled "America the Bountiful" will be the continuing attraction at the action-packed meeting. "Sensational" and "instructive" is the description given to the vitarama production by J. Frank Grimes, founder and president of the Independent Grocers' Alliance of America.

National grand prize winners of the four nationwide popularity contests sponsored by IGA in its member stores will be introduced. These include "Miss IGA Teen-ager," "Mr. and Mrs. IGA," "Grandma IGA," and "Baby IGA." Each, except "Baby IGA" will be in New York as special guest of IGA. The awarding of valuable prizes to each will be made as a climax to the $500,000 contests which started last May.

The principal jubilee dinner will be held on Wednesday (August 29), with Attorney General J. Howard McGrath as featured speaker. His address is expected to be of major importance.

A "peek into the housewife's future" will also be given at the meeting. The convention will hear a report on the "electric eye" checkout system which is expected to compute the shopping bill automatically and almost instantly.

Depicted, too, will be IGA's growth from 64 stores and $3,000,000 in sales in its first year, 1926, to almost 10,000 fully and semi-affiliated stores and an expected annual sales volume of $2 billion in 1951. Nearly 2,000,000 housewives shop every week in IGA stores, all of which are independently owned.
