At The Right Place At The Right Time

Many success stories have been based on the above saying. For although a person may have the qualifications to make good, the opportunity is not always present. The same can be said for persons selling goods or services. The product may be excellent but buyers may not be aware of its existence. The Liberal want ad columns offer an easy solution to this problem. They give you a powerful market place every week. For a quick success story, use The Liberal want ads. Just Phone Richmond Hill 9

EVERYBODY WELCOME

BURNED AT WILCOX
Mrs. William Holland received slight burns to her arm on Tuesday at 3 p.m. when the petrolane gas stove which she was lighting in her kitchen exploded. The Aurora Fire Brigade was called and quickly extinguished the blaze. The fire originated from a slight leak around one of the burners.

Weddings

WALTON-SMITH
The wedding took place on Saturday, August 11, of Murray Walton of Buttonville and Miss Audrey Smith of Huntsville.
The quiet ceremony took place in Woodbine Presbyterian Church. Miss Edna Smith was her sister's bridesmaid and Mr. Frank Bell of Markham was best man.
Following the ceremony a reception, attended by immediate relatives and friends was held at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Walton.
On their return from their honeymoon trip to Northern Ontario, the happy couple will reside in Toronto.

CARTER-NEIL
The marriage of Barbara Isobel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Neil of Thornhill, Ontario, to Mr. Philip Alfred Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Cleveland Carter of Vancouver, B.C., took place in the chapel of the Episcopal College of St. Just, Puerto Rico on Saturday, August 4.
Because the bride was far from home and her parents unable to be present, her friends in Puerto Rico co-operated wonderfully to make her wedding a joyous and memorable event. She was given in marriage by Dr. Harold Storms, former head of the Workmen's Compensation Board at Malton and at present in charge of the State Insurance Fund Hospital at San Juan, Puerto Rico, where the bride had been practicing Occupational Therapy.
Mr. Wm. Richards, headmaster of the College of St. Just, was the groomsmen, his wife was matron of honour and their small daughter Eve, was flower girl. Some of the teachers and pupils of the College decorated the church with garlands of daisies and tall standards of flowers.
The organist and soloist from the Cathedral of San Juan performed the wedding music.
The Rev. Father Rans flew from the Isle of St. Croix to conduct the marriage ceremony. It was the first English service in the church and was read from the prayer book of the groom's grandmother.
The bride wore a three-quarter length ballerina style dress of white nylon net, over ice blue silk and her veil was a white lace mantilla.
Instead of a reception line after the ceremony, the bride and groom followed the Puerto Rican custom of carrying a basket of "capas" (small souvenir gifts) which they distributed to all their guests.

CLARK-BERTA
At an afternoon ceremony on Saturday, August 18, in Westmoreland United Church, Toronto, Rev. Hunter solemnized the marriage of Irene Ethel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Berta, to Douglas Scott Clark, Scarborough, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Scarborough.
Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of white nylon net over white taffeta, fashioned with a fitted bodice. A lace jacket with scalloped neckline and bishop sleeves was worn over the strapless gown. The full net skirt of ballerina length was dotted with lace roses around the bottom. The shoulder length veil was caught up by a braided cap. The bride wore a single strand of pearls and carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses.
The groom's sister attended the bride as matron of honor and wore a gown of turquoise blue with a full ballerina length skirt. The fitted bodice had covered buttons extending from the waist to a high neckline with a Peter Pan collar. The bride was also attended by her sister, Miss Nora Berta and wore a pale yellow gown of the same style as the Matron of Honor. Both attendants wore braided caps and carried bouquets of roses and cornflowers surrounded by yellow gladioli. Mr. W. White attended his friend, the groom, as best man and the ushers were Mr. Louis Berta Jr. and Mr. A. Mason, the former a brother of the bride.
Following the reception in the garden at the home of the bride's parents the couple left by air for Montreal where they plan to honeymoon for a week. On their return they will reside on Cowan Ave. in Toronto.
The bride chose a pale blue suit with pink and navy blue accessories for going away. She also wore a corsage of pink carnations.
A miscellaneous shower was given the bride by Mrs. D. Law at the home of the bride's parents Tuesday, August 14, and the bride received many lovely gifts which she wishes to thank everyone for.

Veterans' Day At The Ex

Veterans in the Toronto area not affiliated with any veterans' organization may get tickets for themselves and their families for Warriors' Day at any fire hall in Toronto and suburbs.
These Warriors' Day tickets entitle the veterans and their families to free admission into Exhibition Park and admission to the afternoon Grandstand show on Warriors' Day, Saturday, August 25. On this day, the grandstand show in the afternoon consists of the marchpast of the veterans and presentation of awards for competitions.
Affiliated veterans may get their tickets through their organization.

IN MEMORIAM

ARCHIBALD — In loving memory of our dear son and brother, David Archibald, who passed away August 24, 1947.
We love to think of you dear David.
In mansion bright and fair,
There Jesus reigns in glory,
There is no sorrow there.
— Ever remembered by mother, father and brothers and sisters. *1w8

BROOKE — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Oscar Brooke, who passed away August 24, 1945; also Gerald Pollock, beloved son-in-law and dear husband of Mae Pollock, who passed away August 29, 1946.
You left us with a beautiful memory.
A sorrow too great to behold.
To us who loved and lost you
Your memory will never grow old.
— Sadly missed by Brooke family. clw8

Kitchen-Cool Meals

FIRST-RATE meals, that keep you and your kitchen cool, are mighty important on summer days. Let condensed soup help you beat the heat. Ready in less than 5 minutes, soup is a real summer treasure. You merely whisk it across the stove for a quick warm up. And you know how well a satisfying dish like this goes with the popular cold foods. A big bowl of tomato or vegetable beef is the perfect contrast to a crunchy sandwich or a chilled salad. Follow up with a refrigerated dessert—like melon or ice cream—and a cold beverage to round out this pleasant lunch or supper.
Insure yourself for summer meals by stocking a complete soup shelf. Have several cans of all the kinds you like best. Mealtime then can be a calm, refreshing pause for you and everyone who gathers round the table at your house.

KITCHEN-COOL SUPPER

- Vegetable-Beef Soup
- Hard-cooked Egg and Lettuce Sandwich
- Pickles
- Banana Nut Sundae
- Cold Milk or Iced Tea

SOUP SCOOPS

- APPETIZER TRAY: Tall glasses of icy cold cocktail vegetable juices make a wonderful afternoon pickup; or serve the beverage as an appetizer before dinner. Put glasses of juice on a tray with a bowl of crisp potato chips and creamy pimiento cheese spread for dunking. Pleasant interlude on a hot day.
- SPAGHETTI 'N ONIONS: Prepared spaghetti in tomato sauce with cheese — mixed with plenty of browned onion and green pepper rings — is a supper to shout about. Cut rings about 1/4-inch thick; brown in a little hot shortening in a skillet. Mix with the heated spaghetti.
- PORK AND BEAN TIP: You'll find that pork and beans in tomato sauce are available in cans of two sizes. Here's the way to figure servings: The 15 fluid ounce can contains 1 1/2 cups of pork and beans, enough for 2 or 3 servings. The 20 fluid ounce can has 2 1/2 cups, enough for 3 to 5 servings.
