CORRESPONDENT: MRS. C. L. STEPHENSON Telephone King 97R31

Travelling south Saturday night about 8 p.m., a car driven by A. Henry, Newmarket, broke a tie rod on the Bond Lake curve on Yonge Street. It turned over three times. Passengers in the car were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Worth. Mr. Worth broke several bones in his neck. The rest of the occupants escaped injury. Taken to Newmarket Hospital, Mr. Worth died at seven o'clock Monday morning. His wife, the former Norma Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Wells of Aurora, and a five year old son, Jerry, survive. They have lived for three years in Ash's Park at Wilcox Lake. The body was taken to Nova Scotia for burial on Tuesday. Dr. and Mrs. Leslie Murray, owners of Rock Hall Farm, Oak Ridges, who have been on an extended visit to Dr. Murray's relatives in Jamaica were visiting some thirty miles from Kingston, when the recent hurricane struck that city. Roads were broken up and it was four days before they were able to get in touch with friends in Kingston with whom their small daughter Elizabeth was staying. A great deal of anxiety was felt because it was known that the damage in Kingston was very great. The house next door had the roof torn off, but their daughter was safe. Dr. Murray offered his assistance and he and a nurse were sent to a small town, where for two days they ministered to the injured.
