TEMPERANCEVILLE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. ED. PAXTON, R. R. 3, KING

A great deal of time, energy and money has been spent during the last few weeks in order to make the church a place of beauty and comfort in which to worship. It is with a great deal of gratitude to all those who have assisted in this endeavour that we cordially invite everyone who can possibly do so to attend the re-opening of the church on Sunday, September 2.

The morning service will be held at 11 o'clock with Rev. G. A. Wood, C.A., B.D. of Bedford Park United Church, Toronto, officiating. In the evening at 7.30 Rev. Mr. Moddle will conduct the service with Rev. Huston of Victoria Square as the guest minister. The music for both services will be by the Temperanceville choir. Soloist in the morning will be Mrs. M. McClure, in the evening Mrs. F. Boys, with Miss Shirley Hare singing the solo in the anthem.

Friday evening the ladies are requested to come to the church prepared to do any necessary dusting.

Our sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Clifford Polliott, her family and to the Polliott brothers in the sudden death of Mr. Clifford Polliott, Kettleby.

Mrs. M. McClure is the proud possessor of the T. Eaton Co. trophy awarded to the person receiving the highest number of points for exhibits during the year in the Horticulture displays. The annual fair was held on Saturday, August 25, at which time Mrs. McClure received this honour.

After a period of fifty-one consecutive years Mr. James Paxton has retired from the threshing business. Perhaps with a slight feeling of regret he sold his threshing machine last week.

David McClure received a phone call from his sister, Mrs. June Watson of Florida, on his fourteenth birthday, August 25. A very pleasant surprise birthday gift.

The Sunday School will not be held as planned on September 2. This is due to the holding of two church services. However, we expect to hold Sunday School the following Sunday at 10.30 a.m. in the church basement.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Williams and George and Margaret of Toronto are holidaying with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hayter.

A very enjoyable evening was had at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Winger on Monday, when a miscellaneous shower was given to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Winger. This was held on the lovely lawn at the Winger home. There was a large crowd in attendance representing Carrville, Concord and Markham communities. The young people of the Brethren in Christ Church put on a most enjoyable program. The chairman was Mr. Lewis Heise. The evening commenced with all singing "Showers of Blessing" and a prayer by Mr. Murray Wideman.

Miss Erma Heise led in several sing-songs in her own lovely way. A splendid reading was given by Miss Eva Baker. Impromptu speeches and good wishes to the bride and groom were given by Mr. and Mrs. S. Winger, Mr. Bill Baker, Mr. Cliff Winger, Mr. Floyd and David Winger and Mr. Bert Middleton. Advice to the bride was given by Ruth Patfield, which was very good and a little humorous. Mr. Murray Wideman gave some good advice to the groom, at least the ladies would think so, as he suggested for him to be generous with his money and help around the home.

Recollection of school days at O. B.I. was given by H. Stickley who was a college pal of Bruce and his bride. Miss Redtha, Margaret and Mr. Bruce Steckley harmonized very nicely in a song.

The bride and groom were then presented with many useful and beautiful gifts. They thanked the friends and neighbours for their gifts and good wishes very fittingly. The hostess, Mrs. Winger assisted by several of the young ladies served refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Winger are leaving shortly for California where Bruce will attend Upland Bible College.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Wilson of Toronto spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. J. Barton.

Sincere sympathy is expressed to Mr. and Mrs. Dean Quinton in the recent death of Mr. Quinton's father.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wynn and sons John and Bob spent several days last week at Bonsecour Beach on Lake Simcoe.

IN MEMORIAM
MCDONALD — In loving memory of a loving mother, Sarah McDonald, who passed away August 25, 1941; also a dear father, Murdoch McDonald, who entered into rest September 8, 1931. They say time heals all sorrow, But time so far has only proved How much we miss you yet. God gave us strength to fight it And courage to bear the blow But what it meant to lose you No one will ever know.
— Ever remembered by family and grandchildren. *1w9

CARD OF THANKS
Mr. Edwin "Red" Garner sincerely thanks everyone for the many kindnesses shown him following his recent accident, especially the Boys Club and the Langstaff Recreational Committee. c1w7

CARD OF THANKS
Mrs. W. A. Quinton and family wish to thank their many friends for their thoughtful interest and sympathy, also the kind neighbours for their assistance at the time of the recent loss of a husband and father, especially Dr. Archer Wallace for his words of comfort. c1w9

THE BRIGHTEST STAR OF A BRILLIANT CLUSTER

Inside and out, it's a beauty! The custom styling of the Catalina's interior is a totally new revelation of sumptuous elegance. The luxury fabrics . . . the genuine leather . . . the gleaming chrome ribs arching across the broad expanse of the ceiling . . . all these refinements and many more set new standards of interior beauty and comfort.

Illustrated—The Catalina "8" General Motors Value

Pontiac Catalina

Brilliant colors in both sixes and eights

Yes, here's the car that's causing the stir—the eager, colorful beauty that's drawing the oh's and ah's of all Canada! It's the Catalina—with ultra advanced styling—that cuts a figure like a convertible, with racy lines, disappearing side-posts, extra-special color schemes. And it protects you with an all-steel top!

And the Catalina is a Pontiac! That means there's downright, bedrock quality and character under its gay dress—all the famous features that have earned for Pontiac such phenomenal acclaim all across the land.

And remember—besides the Catalina six and Catalina eight, there are sixteen other models to choose from in the three great Pontiac series. See your Pontiac dealer—soon!

Standard equipment, accessories and trim illustrated are subject to change without notice.
