KING CITY NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. M. JOHNSTON, KING, ONT.

Phone King 55R14

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Archibald and family motored to Shelburne on Sunday to visit the Aubrey Archibalds, and to bring their son Ronny back home. Lillian Archibald accompanied them back to Shelburne after a week's visit with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Archibald in King City.

An invitation to send members of Kingscrafts Guild to the Handicrafts Exhibition in the Women's Building, C.N.E., to act as hostesses for a day was accepted. On Thursday of this week, Music Day, Mrs. J. L. Grew, Mrs. A. E. Jarvis, Mrs. E. B. Johnston, Miss Evelyn Courtney, Mrs. H. Bryan of Maple and Miss Whitmore of Edgeley undertook to spend the day at the Exhibition.

On Saturday afternoon, Dr. Eric B. Johnston was best man at the wedding of his friend, Peter W. Shenstone and Mary Catharine Legate at Central United Church, Owen Sound. One of the four ushers was John Neil of Thornhill.

On Thursday evening a group of young people of the Canadian Bank of Commerce Main Office staff of Toronto were invited to King by Mr. and Mrs. Matt. Bell and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tetley. The young men are members of the Bank of Commerce baseball team, and in the early evening they had a fine game with the King Softball Club. Gord Orr pitched a great game, and the final score of the exciting game was 8-7 in favor of King. Afterwards refreshments were served at the Anglican Rectory by Mr. and Mrs. Tetley and Mr. and Mrs. Bell, helped by Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hobson who happened to come along in time to serve the coffee and sandwiches to the 30 guests.

Mrs. Anne Grew has been visiting in Ottawa. Her friend Anne Jarvis returned with her and spent a few days at her home earlier this week.

Mrs. D. Jefferson and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Jefferson, of Rothsey, N.B. are visiting Mrs. David Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Green spent the week at Drumkerry, Bracebridge. On September 6, Mr. and Mrs. Green will celebrate their silver wedding. Their daughter, Mrs. Robert Kemp, is planning to have a family celebration at Niagara Falls on that day.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Watson Ferguson of Eversley, on August 24, at York Memorial Hospital, Newmarket.

On behalf of the W.M.S., Mrs.

Fred Curtis extends an invitation to members of all the congregations of the community to attend the special service at Eversley Presbyterian Church on Sunday, September 9, at 8 p.m. On that evening the W.M.S. Sunday will be observed. Mr. David Wotherpoon, the student minister, will present a moving picture entitled "And Now I See".

Mrs. E. Lenhardt entertained for Mrs. Earl Robson, on Tuesday evening at a miscellaneous show. Twenty friends and neighbors were invited to Mrs. Lenhardt's home to meet the bride, the former Miss Helen Davidson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Evans and baby daughter have gone to Noranda, Quebec, where they will remain for the next three months. During their absence, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Benson will occupy their house.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fleet and family motored to Ottawa last week to spend the week-end with Mr. Fleet's mother.

There were about 60 present at the second annual picnic given by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion. The picnic took place on Wednesday afternoon in the Memorial Park and the guests of the Legion Auxiliary were the mothers and children of the community. The afternoon was just right for a picnic and races and prizes were the attractions that appealed to the boys and girls, not forgetting the hot dogs and ice cream that were generously served by the ladies to everyone.

Mrs. Robert Giles and Miss Phyllis Lanthier entertained Miss Marion Robinson and about thirty of her friends at a surprise party at the home of Miss Phyllis Lanthier on Tuesday evening, August 21.

The house was beautifully decorated with garden flowers and pink and white streamers. The surprised bride-to-be was escorted to an appropriately decorated chair after which Mrs. Giles read the presentation address, stressing the high esteem with which Marion is held in the community. Miss Phyllis Lanthier then presented Marion on behalf of the guests present with a beautiful tea set of dishes. After catching her breath, Marion thanked her guests in a few well chosen words. A dainty lunch brought the very lovely party to a close.

The little red school will again beckon to the boys and girls next week. Some families will be sending their children to Edgeley school for the first time while others will be attending who are direct descendants of those hardy pi-

The group of young people who charivariated Don Elliott and his wife a couple of weeks ago, got together again on Saturday night with a group of other young folks and presented the happy couple with an electric clock and a set of dishes.

A few Edgeley people who are members of the Vellore Junior Farmer's Club and Institute attended the reception given for fifty English girls at Brampton last week.

Last Saturday 25 friends helped celebrate the birthday of Mr. Jas. Wheeler at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Stuart. The euchre prize winners were Mrs. N. Peelar, Mrs. C. Ash, Mr. Bob Howden and Mr. Louis Eberschlag.

Each guest tried their luck at guessing the number of common pins in a box. Mr. Wheeler won the prize with his guess of 1009 pins, three less than the correct number. A corn roast and lunch complete with a large birthday cake was followed by old time and modern dancing. Mr. Chas. Ash called off and Nels. Peelar, Louis Eberschlag and Brian Booth supplied the music.

The September meeting of the Edgeley Women's Institute will be held on September 13 at the home of Mrs. Chas. Greenley, 539 Woburn Avenue, North Toronto, and will take the form of a bake sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hendry and family attended the Snoddon reunion in Orillia on Saturday. Margaret Hendry is holidaying in Brantford with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Morris.

Week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Elliott were Miss Barbara Berst and Mr. Andy Madill.
