U.N. Official Visits Korean Hospital

To help the Korean people in rebuilding their war-shattered land, the United Nations this year established the U.N. Korean Reconstruction Agency, in which 43 nations are now cooperating. Here, J. Donald Kingsley, Agent General of UNKRA, checks conditions during a visit to the Akasagi Refugee Camp near the Korean city of Pusan.

Home and School

All parents and particularly those recently arrived in the locality, are invited to attend the first regular meeting of Langstaff Home and School Association next Tuesday, October 9, at 8 o'clock in Langstaff Public School.

Emphasizing citizenship, a 70-minute film show will be given by Mr. G. DeWitt. The 5 films will include "Cadet Holiday" which deals in a humorous way with a boy's life under canvas. "Art-Prison, What?" tells the story of an ex-convict and will no doubt provoke discussion. "The 1950 Gray Cup Championship" shows the Toronto Argonauts and Winnipeg Blue Bombers in action. There will be no speaker at this meeting, which will conclude as usual with a friendly cup of tea.

A regular feature of the meetings is the attendance competition which is won by the room having the highest percentage of parents present and causes great interest among the teachers and pupils.

Stamp Club

All through last winter a Stamp Club for boys and men met Friday evenings at the home of the organizer, Mr. Dick Ablett, on Yongeview Avenue. Mr. Ablett was assisted by his eldest son, Harry, who is taking over the direction of the club when it resumes activities this Friday, October 5. Boys of ten years and over are eligible to become members and to pursue the interesting hobby of Philately at the Ablett's on Friday evenings from 7 to 9. The club can make use of any and all kinds of stamps and donations will be greatly received. They may be addressed to Box 51, Langstaff, and their receipt will be acknowledged.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Richards of Sarnia spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Mel Holt, No. 7 Highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Richards and Mr. Holt went to Bradford on Sunday to attend the funeral of Mr. J. F. Hamby, former reeve of West Gwillimbury.

Mr. Jack Wood, Langstaff Road West, underwent the last of his series of examinations at Sunnybrook Hospital last Wednesday. His condition is such that he could have remained in the hospital but was permitted to return home on the understanding that he "take things easy."

Mrs. F. Bickmore is still in Emergency Ward C at Western and can only be visited by the family. There is very slight improvement in her condition and her many friends and neighbours hope a marked increase will show itself very soon.

We are glad to learn that Judy LeRiche is convalescing nicely at home after her illness in Sick Children's Hospital.

Shower

Mrs. Anthony Madelino and Mrs. Snowdon LeRiche were co-hostesses on Monday evening of last week at a shower for the former Ruth Baker of Doncaster and Arthur Loverock, Garden Ave., whose marriage took place on Saturday at Westminster Presbyterian Church, Willowdale. The couple received many useful and attractive gifts at the shower which was a miscellaneous one.

Ratepayers Meeting

Langstaff Ratepayers Association (for Markham residents) has postponed its regular meeting from the 2nd Monday to the 3rd Monday because of the Thanksgiving holiday. The next meeting will take place, therefore, on October 15 in Langstaff Public School, starting at 8 o'clock.

Lucky "Bert"

People really do win the cars for which most of us continually buy lucky (?) draw tickets and someone we know, to prove the point. Mr. Robert J. Spanton, whose bungalow is situated next door to Hick's Store on Yonge Street, last week won a two-tone Royal Blue hard top convertible Chevrolet in a draw sponsored by the North Toronto Lions Club.

Mr. Cy. Hutcheson, a patient at Sunnybrook Hospital for whom the drive was held, presented Mr. Spanton with the key at a tea held there last Thursday. Since then Mr. and Mrs. Spanton have been busy attending to the transfer and other details connected with their new car. Mr. Spanton is night foreman of The Telegram's composing room, having worked with that paper for 47 years. His neighbours are delighted with his good fortune and wish Mr. and Mrs. Spanton many miles of pleasure in their convertible.

After residing on Garden Ave. for many years, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gates left recently with Gretel and son, Norman and are now located on part of the A.W. Miles Farm, Mimico. They have been joined by their married son, Jim, who formerly lived in Willowdale.

Garden Avenue lost Mr. and Mrs. L. Craig and children also. They moved on Saturday to Wilcox Lake. We hope both families will be very happy in their new homes.

The condition of Mr. Gordon Banks was very much improved at the beginning of the week, we are glad to report. Mr. Banks went into East General Hospital three weeks ago and has undergone two operations. He is in Room 340 on the 3rd floor and is able to receive visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Johnson, Garden Avenue, attended the christening of their grandson, William, infant son of their daughter, Margaret, Mrs. J. C. Blenkinsop, Beverley Hills, Toronto. Miss Phyllis Johnson was godmother at the christening which Harry also attended.

Ratepayers' Association

The next regular meeting of the Langstaff Ratepayers Association will not be held on October 8 which is the Thanksgiving holiday. Please watch for future announcement.

Thornhill Library

The winter hours for the Thornhill Library are as follows: Monday and Friday, 7.30 to 9 p.m.; Tuesday and Thursday, 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.; Saturday morning, 9 to 11.30 a.m.

Wedding

HARRINGTON-MADELINO

Rev. Father F. McGinn officiated at one of the loveliest weddings of the season when Constance Madelino, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Madelino, of Langstaff, became the bride of Norman Harrington, son of Mrs. Harrington and the late Mr. Harrington of Toronto. The church was beautifully decorated with vari-coloured gladioli and the guest pews were marked with white bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore French nylon faconne over taffeta with matching halo trimmed with seed pearls, and carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses and stephanotis. The matron of honour was her sister, Mrs. Mary Donohue, and the bridesmaid was Miss Marilyn Young. They were gowned alike in mauve velvora organza with pinctus hats to match and carried bouquets of Talisman roses. The little Misses Judith and Grace LeRiche were flower girls in yellow velvora organza. They carried old-fashioned nosegays of pink roses tied with pink streamers and had wreaths of daisies in their hair. Ray Gasperini was groomsmen and Joe Madelino and Bill Young were ushers. Mr. Charles Mason played the organ and Miss Betty Hawkins, Toronto, sang her solos including "Ave Maria."

A reception for 65 guests was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Snowdon LeRiche, Garden Avenue, where the bride's mother received in gray, with violet accessories, and corsage of pink roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother in navy, with matching accessories and corsage of red roses.

For going away the bride wore a lilac Ottoman cord suit with navy blue accessories and corsage of deep red roses. The happy couple left on a motor trip to the U.S.A. and on their return will reside in Langstaff.
