United Church at King City will resume its Sunday evening services at 7 o'clock after having held morning worship each Sunday during the summer months. This Sunday evening there will be a special Thanksgiving service and the minister Rev. M. R. Jenkinson will preach.

Shower
Miss Anne Marie Wilson is being honored these days prior to her wedding on October 13, when she will be the bride of Mr. James Adje of Toronto. On Friday evening Mrs. Harold Kirby entertained at a miscellaneous shower when the 15 guests were relatives of the young bride-to-be. A shower was given earlier by the girls of the Colgate-Palmolive office staff, where Miss Wilson is employed. And the neighbors on the street where Mr. Adje lives in Toronto, held a shower one evening recently.

Ladies' Auxiliary
Mrs. Arthur Fleet, president of the King Legion Ladies Auxiliary, Mrs. Hazel Campbell the secretary treasurer and Mrs. Annie Bice are attending the convention of Ontario Command Ladies Auxiliary, which takes place in Timmins for four days this week. Mrs. Fleet is also president of Zone 22.

Couple Honoured
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dove were honored by their friends of St. Andrew's church and the community of Strange when they were presented with a silver tea service—a remembrance of their many years together in the church and community. The friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dove and the presentation was made by Mr. Whately Finch, while the accompanying address was read by Mr. Norman McMurchy. On the same evening the W.M.S. of St. Andrew's church presented Mrs. Dove with an electric heater and Miss Jean Dove with an attractive boudoir lamp. On behalf of the W.M.S. the presentations were made by Mrs. Stanley Kerr, and the address of regrets at their departure and good wishes for their future was read by Mrs. C. Black.

Remarkable Career
The sudden death of John Scott at the Granite Club, Toronto, on September 23, brought to a close one of the most spectacular success stories of the Canadian scene. Mr. Scott was born in St. John, N.B., 77 years ago. Handicapped with a lame leg, he became a newsboy, selling the St. John's Gazette on the street corners of that city. His position at the time of his retirement was managing director of the Mail and Empire, a position he filled from the time the paper was bought by I. W. Killam in 1927, till the time of amalgamation with the Globe. His only son, John C. Scott lives at Bar-mar, on the 5th concession, King. He followed his father's example, and became a journalist. Formerly with the Canadian Press, he now is public director of the provincial Department of Health. He is also survived by two granddaughters, Barbara Jane Scott and Martha Jane Scott.

200 Blue Jays
Two days last week a flock of over 200 blue jays descended on the trees in the ravine along the Humber, north of the King School. One often sees a single blue jay in this neighborhood, but a flock of this size is not only unusual, but a beautiful sight. Mrs. W. J. Sisman of Aurora, who is well versed in bird lore, tells us that as blue jays do not migrate this must have been an irregular movement to the south in search of new feeding grounds. Mrs. Sisman says the blue jay will eat anything, especially the wild cucumber and we noticed that they settled in the wild fruit trees in the ravine. Another reason for a large gathering of these birds might have been the presence of their arch enemy, the screech owl, in the neighborhood. Anyhow after two days they disappeared, and it would be nice to see them come back again. Mrs. Sisman remarked that she saw several blue jay nests very high in the pine trees at Lake of Bays this summer.

Free Fireworks
The fireworks of the ONE were never so wonderful as the free show that the Aurora Borealis put on for the people of King on Tuesday night, September 25. Toronto people remarked on the spectacular Aurora, but no one in the city could have had the perfect view of the complete arc that was watched by many of the neighbors in the country. The show began about 8 o'clock, and an hour later the repeat performance appeared which lasted for over an hour.

Elm Blown Down
An old elm on the property of Mary Lake was blown down by the gale last Thursday afternoon. It fell across the hydro wires and on to the road, the branches completely covering and blocking the 4th concession road. The hydro power was shut off for over an hour at the busiest time when dinner was being prepared. Only the homes on the 4th concession were without electricity.

Laskay Dance
Over 100 people attended the dance given by Laskay W.I. in their hall on Friday night. Weir's orchestra provided the music for the program of square dances as well as the modern style. Many young people were present, and a crowd came from Aurora. In fact the door prize was won by a visitor from Aurora. The hot dog stand sold all their supplies. It is planned to have another dance on Wednesday on October 27; changed a city of Miss Annie McBride, and on Sunday Miss McBride was hostess to a group of friends who came from Toronto to wish Mr. and Mrs. Wilson a happy voyage. The Toronto guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Trailing and son, Peter, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Thomson and son Bill and Mrs. Agnes Thomson. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will be in England in time to spend Thanksgiving with their mother.

Annual Turkey Supper
When the W.A. of All Saints Anglican Church met at the home of Mrs. Crawford Wells on the second Tuesday of the month, plans were made for the annual turkey supper that will be held this year on November 7. Miss Julia Jarvis was present and she gave an account of her recent trip to England. The scripture and the study book were read by Mrs. D. Rawlings and Mrs. G. Wells. At the tea hour the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Ross Walker and Miss May Judge. There were 17 members present. Next month the W. A. will meet at the home of Mrs. W. Finch.

Hear Address
When Miss Marion Wight of the Nutrition branch of the Dept. of Agriculture W. I. division, addressed the W.I. of King on September 24, she stressed the value of a plate of oatmeal porridge as the best of breakfasts, not only for the winter, but for every morning all year long. She exploded many old-fashioned food fads such as, oatmeal heats the blood in summer, brown eggs are more nutritious than white ones, fish is a brain food' etc. Besides an interesting lecture on food and a well balanced diet, a moving picture called Training Table was shown. This is an official story furnished by the medical branch of the RCAF, showing the food, its preparation and presentation as provided for the recruits of the RCAF. She said, "Food and weather are things everyone likes to talk about. Good meals should be fun as well as nourishing."

Weiner Roast
(Written by Roger Rawlings)
The weiner roast sponsored by All Saints Anglican Church and held at Dr. Barry's farm on Thursday, September 27, was attended by approximately 45 young people from King and district. It was a cold and windy night, but everybody was warmly dressed and as the roast was held down in the valley, the wind swept overhead, and nobody felt the cold. Singing commercials and other musical games were played. Dr. Barry had a huge bonfire ready for them when they arrived. Visitors from Aurora were Peggy Jones, Diana Stollery, Beverley Smith, Dave Bachly, Tom Humes, Michael Clark, Gary Gilbert, Lynn Esterbrook. The young people wish to extend their thanks to Dr. Barry, Rev. D. C. H. Michell, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tetley, Miss Mary Jane Walker and Mrs. Ross Walker.

Weddings
Miss Marjorie Mary Alice Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnston of Sylvancrest, 7th line, King, was a bride of Saturday. The groom is Gordon Lang Cheesbrough, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Cheesbrough, Westmount, Montreal. The wedding took place at Timothy Eaton Church, Toronto, and the reception was held at the bride's home. The young couple will live in Westmount.

Nease-Scott
Historic St. John's Anglican Church, York Mills, was the setting for the marriage of Barbara Jane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Scott of King, to Mr. A. Stuart Nease, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick George Nease of Hanlan's Point. Rev. A. C. McCollan officiated at the evening ceremony.

Mr. Scott gave his daughter in marriage and she wore a graceful gown of white embroidered organdie with finger-tip veil, string of pearls, the gift of the groom, and carried a white prayer book. Her attendants were her sister, Miss Martha Jane Scott, wearing yellow embroidered taffeta with overskirt of yellow net; and Miss Judith Godfrey, in pale green taffeta with green organdie overskirt. Both wore pale green head-dresses, and carried yellow roses.

Mr. Thomas Stephen Nease was groomsmen for his brother, and the ushers were Mr. David Box and Mr. James Gooding of Toronto. Mr. Nease and his bride will live at Hanlan's Point. The bride is a graduate of the U. of T. in the honor class of this past spring. The groom is a teacher of Latin and Greek at Malvern Collegiate, Toronto.
