The 50th. Anniversary of the West York District Women's Institute was celebrated in the form of a banquet on Friday evening, September 21st. at Central United Church, Weston. Mrs. R. G. Purcell, Ft. William, president of the Federated Women's Institute of Ontario and Miss Anna P. Lewis, Director, Womens' Institute Branch, Dept. of Agriculture, were guests. Miss Leichman of Scotland, who arrived in Canada on Thursday was also a guest and brought greetings. The presidents of North York, Centre York and E. York Districts each brought greetings.

The festivities began with the singing of the Institute Ode and the singing of Grace. The meal was concluded with a toast to the King. Mrs. R. G. Purcell proposed a toast to the Women's Institute which was responded to by Mrs. John Snider. Miss Anna Lewis proposed a toast to the life members of each branch with Mrs. J. Reid past district president responding.

The three-storey Anniversary cake was made for this event by Mrs. Lorne Bagg and Mrs. J. Kersey, members of Burwick Institute. Mrs. W. O. Duncan, oldest member of the West York district, cut the cake.

Miss Edna Jacques, distinguished Canadian poetess was the after dinner speaker.

Mrs. Norman Garriock, Woodbridge sang delightful solos, and Mrs. G. Brownlee played the violin. The accompanist for the evening was Mrs. W. Kearney.

One member of each branch appeared in costume of the year in which their Institute was organized to take part in an historical skit prepared by Mrs. Vandenberg of Woodbridge. The Maple Branch is the oldest Institute in the district, being formed about 52 years ago, before the District W. I. was established.

Elders Mills is the youngest Branch which was organized about two years ago.

Following the historical skit, music was supplied by "The Dishpan Serenaders" of Elders Mills.

Mrs. Ed. Phillips gave words of appreciation for the whole evening. The evening was brought to a close by singing "O Canada."

Members attended from all of the twelve branches in the district, Maple, Eatonville, Edgeley, Burwick, Kleinburg, Nashville, Lambton Mills, Thistletown, Woodbridge, Vellore Juniors, Vellore Seniors and Elder's Mills.

It was at a meeting 50 years ago in Central United Church, Weston, that the West York District W.I. was organized. Mrs. James Cruickshank was the first president of the West York District Women's Institute.

Twelve members of the Edgeley

Branch attended the 50th anniversary banquet. They were: Mrs. Alf Bagg, Mrs. J. W. Dalziel, Mrs. Paul Snider, Mrs. Eldon Fierheller, Mrs. Frank Locke, Mrs. James Spencer, Mrs. Ed Phillips, Mrs. Chas. Agnew, Mrs. J. Chapman, Mrs. W. Magin, Mrs. Allan Aitchison and Mrs. Chas. Greenley. Mrs. A. Bagg and Mrs. J. W. Dalziel are life members and were honored together with the life members of other branches at the anniversary banquet.

Mrs. Chas. Agnew appeared in costume of the year 1913, the year the Edgeley Institute was organized and took part in the historical skit. She was attired in a black dress belonging to her mother, high laced boots and a purple hat.

This week Edgeley school held its first Junior Red Cross meeting. There was a good programme and the business was very capably handled by the new president, Victor Young. Each member has now received his card and membership pin.

We are sorry to announce that Edgeley lost by one run to Elia in the baseball game. We hope to do better next time.

Everyone is invited to the Thanksgiving service in Edgeley United Church on Sunday, October 7, at 2.30 p.m.

Young Peoples Fellowship

The Young Peoples' Fellowship of Edgeley United Church met at the Mitchell home on Friday evening for a corn roast. It was cool so everyone had to keep close to the fire, but the corn was good, also the marshmallows, the coffee and the cookies.

Ladies Paint Dining Room

A number of the ladies of the community had a bee recently and painted the dining room of Edgeley Community Hall. Let us know and we will all come to help next time. Good work ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. George Berst and son John of Woodstock visited last week with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don. Elliott.

Miss Helen Thomas spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Orr and Miss Anna Orr of Victoria Square.

Farewell Party

Mr. L. D. Hatfield was guest of honor at a farewell party held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ash on Friday evening when a group of friends from Woodbridge, Concord, Downsview and Edgeley gathered to wish him well before he leaves our community.

On behalf of his many friends, Chas. Ash and Raymond Stuart presented the guest of honor with a handsome club bag and a wallet after which all joined in singing "For he's a jolly good fellow."

A few games of euchre were played after which Nels. Peelar, Alex Hunter and Louis Eberschlag supplied music for dancing with Chas. Ash caller for the square dances. To conclude the evening, refreshments were served by the hostess and several ladies.

Corn & Weiner Roast

Thirty-five people were present at the annual corn and weiner roast conducted by Misses Marion and Ruby Puterbaugh for their bank staffs and held at Centre View Farm, the Puterbaugh home.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Thornton and daughter Marilyn and Mr. & Mrs. Clare Grant called on Mr. & Mrs. Arthur Avery and Shirley last week.

Mr. Harold Carruthers and the Misses Mary and Jennie Carruthers, also Mr. and Mrs. Benson Myers of Cashel spent Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Puterbaugh and family.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper spent Sunday evening with Mr. Edgar & Miss Flossie Puterbaugh.

Shower

A miscellaneous shower was held in the home of Mr. & Mrs. Edward Haggell on Wednesday September 26 for Miss Shirley Avery whose marriage to Mr. Ross Cook of Barrie will take place early in October.

The house was beautifully decorated with wedding bells filled with confetti and pink and white streamers. About 60 guests were present from Elia, Concord, Woodbridge and Edgeley.

Mrs. Don Mitchell assisted the bride-to-be and the groom to unwrap the gifts which were many and were both beautiful and useful. The happy couple thanked those present for their lovely gifts and also thanked those who arranged the shower.

After the gifts had all been unwrapped a delicious lunch was served.

Miss Avery was also guest of honour at a personal shower arranged and given by Mrs. Florence Singer in Norval on Thursday evening September 20th.

On Friday, September 21, Miss Avery's business associates of Canada Steamship Lines presented her with a 33 piece crystal set in cornflower pattern.

The marriage of Miss Avery & Mr. Cook will take place Saturday, October 6th.
