MRS. L. SIMPSON
Correspondent:
Henderson Avenue
Ladies Club

The Doncaster Ladies Club held its regular monthly meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. A. G. Seeley, Secomoe Sts., on Tuesday, October 2.

The Rev. E. E. Kent, pastor of Thornhill United Church gave a most interesting talk which was enjoyed immeasurably.

Mrs. A. Loader, a new resident, was a visitor. Congratulations and welcome to the new members.

The next meeting will be held at the Wm. Cole residence, Secomoe Street, on Friday, November 2. Please note this date as it is a slight change. The club usually hold its monthly meetings the first Tuesday of the month but next month only it will be held on Friday, November 2. New members and visitors are cordially invited.

Injured Leg
Mr. Norm Thompson, Henderson Ave., has been inconvenienced by an injured leg, hurt while at work. He is now recovering at home and is wished a speedy recovery by all his friends.

The MacKenzies of Morgan Ave., are sincerely welcomed as new members of the community.

Mr. J. Edgar, Secomoe St., changed his holiday plans. Instead of going to his cabin as he had planned, he went to Miami, Florida. He made the entire trip in a week on his motorcycle. This is quite an accomplishment.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Lefter Sr. and family spent Thanksgiving week-end at their cottage at Little Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Lefter Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. J. Angel also spent Thanksgiving week-end at Little Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Westcott were visited during the week by their friends, Mr. and Mrs. G. Durham and son of Greenwood, Nova Scotia.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Goodchild spent Thanksgiving week-end at home entertaining their daughter, son-in-law, and granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Townson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Westcott and family and Mr. and Mrs. J. Peters and family spent Thanksgiving week-end visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hobbs at their lodge on Hay Bay in the Napanee district.

Mrs. D. Law and family spent the holiday week-end with Mr. and Mrs. S. Gough of Scarborough.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Miller were visited by Mrs. Miller's father, Mr. Thos. Wray and Mrs. Miller's sister, Miss D. Wray, both from Fenelon Falls, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Greenshields, Henderson Ave., visited friends in Borden, Ontario, during the holiday week-end.

Gospel Campaign

Commencing Sunday, October 21, each night at 8 p.m. except Monday there will be for a period of two weeks, revival services, in the Doncaster Gospel Mission at the corner of Clarke and Willowdale Avenues. Everyone in the community is cordially invited to back up these services by their presence or by bringing their friends. May God's blessing be upon these meetings.

The regular monthly meeting of the Doncaster Ratepayers Association was held at Powell Road School, Wednesday, October 3, 1951. The members are now assured full co-operation of Reeve Timbers on plans for water system, drainage or sewage system. The new school is still a foregone conclusion as the necessity is becoming more obvious each day. A composite body of executives and lay members representing Highland Park, Langstaff, Thornlea and Doncaster ratepayers associations have taken the matter in hand. They have one suggestion, that more ratepayers turn out at formal meetings to bring forth their views.

The local ratepayers association do have weekly attractions such as euchre, etc.

Mr. V. Malley and Chas. Clifford are to be congratulated on their efforts and judging of the competition in home improvement in district. The prizes awarded are well deserved. Mr. J. Bell, G. Drake and J. Peacock won the first three prizes respectively. Incidentally the prizes were in order: torchiere lamp, wall bracket lamp and three-cell flashlight.

It is also thought possible that a great deal of improvement is possible along our highways and byways. Various things have been suggested by eminent persons such as planned planting of trees, boulevards, etc.

Weddings

TATTON-SANDERSON

Tall candelabras and baskets of lovely fall flowers in the United Church, Victoria Square formed the setting for the lovely evening wedding of Marjorie Alberta Sanderson, youngest daughter of Mrs. Sanderson and the late Mr. Clare Sanderson, who became the bride of Mr. Francis George Tatton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tatton of Saskatoon, Sask. Rev. Austin Huston performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. James Oldham rendered lovely solos, with Mr. Clarion Baker officiating at the electric organ.

Given in marriage by her grandfather, Mr. Robert Sanderson, the bride chose a lovely gown of white chiffon velvet with deep scalloped bodice, lace yoke and long lily point lace sleeves, full gathered skirt with long train. Her long french embroidered tulle illusion veil was held with a tiara of seed pearls and cluster beads. She carried a bridal bouquet of red roses.

She was attended by Joyce Matheson of Kingston as maid of honor in dusky rose satin. The bride's sister, Mrs. William Nigh and Mary McGrath of Galt served as bridesmaids in aqua satin. Their gowns were similar to the bride's. Tiny haloes and satin and tulle quaint muffs with yellow and pink rosebud corsages on the muffs completed their costumes.

The bride's mother received in brown crepe with sage green accessories and wore a yellow rosebud corsage. She was assisted by the groom's mother in a gown of navy crepe with navy and white accessories. She wore a pink rosebud corsage.

William Webb was groomsman and the ushers were William Robinson and William Colaton, all of Toronto.

After the reception in the church parlors the happy couple left on a trip to Virginia. The bride's going away outfit was a two-piece English flannel grey suit, with navy and red accessories and red rosebud corsage. On their return they will reside in their apartment at Ringwood.

COCKWELL-ATKINSON

Stouffville United Church, decorated with gadioli, was the scene on Saturday, September 29, for the marriage of Janet Ellen, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Atkinson of Ringwood, and William Thomas, only son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Cockwell of Agincourt. The Rev. Mr. Davis officiated.

The bride entering the church on the arm of her father, was lovely in a gown of blush satin with high neckline and long sleeves, and the full skirt fell to a circular train. A small blush satin cap held her tulle veil, which had been worn by her mother at her own wedding. She carried a bouquet of white mums and pink roses.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Kenneth Harker of Unionville, and bridesmaids, Miss Margaret Goulding of Richmond Hill and Miss Vivian Prout of Bowmanville, all wore floor-length dresses alike of turquoise and mauve net over mauve taffeta and carried bouquets of mauve and yellow mums.

The best man was Ernest Risebrough of Agincourt and the ushers were Oliver Bales of Newmarket and Neil Britton of Newmarket.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. J. H. Ings of Niagara Falls, cousin of the bride, and Mr. Herman Terry of Toronto, also a cousin of the bride sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden" accompanied by Mrs. Ings on the organ.

Following a reception held in the church parlors, the happy couple left for a motor trip through New York State, the bride wearing a navy suit and hat and matching accessories. On their return they will live in Hamilton, Ont.

The popular bride was much entertained previous to her marriage at a shower by her office associates, and a shower by friends of Agincourt and Unionville; also a presentation by former school friends of Richmond Hill. The beautiful gifts were many, showing the high esteem in which the young couple are held.

Courteously Yours...

Giving you the kind of telephone service you want is our job.

You want it to be fast and dependable — and to keep on getting better. But at the same time, we believe there's more to good service than just technical efficiency and steady improvement.

We think you like telephone people to be friendly, pleasant and easy to get along with. You want to deal with someone who takes a real interest in your problems and who is willing to give you a little extra attention.

That's the kind of service we want you to have. It makes your telephone mean more to you, makes our job mean more to us.
