TEMPERANCEVILLE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. ED. PAXTON, R. R. 3, KING

Thanksgiving service at Temperanceville Church was conducted by Rev. Mr. Moddie. The congregation appreciated the beauty of the church itself and the lovely fall flowers and foliage, the abundance of vegetables, fruit, canned goods, honey and preserves which were donated to the Fred Victor Mission. In Mr. Moddie's sermon he spoke of the fact that it was easy to be thankful for the spectacular happenings in our life but do we always remember the everyday things which mean so much to our way of life — our church, our Sunday School, the tireless efforts of the Sunday School staff, our homes, our food, yes everyday occurrences which are taken so much for granted. These are the things we are inclined to forget to thank God for. Appreciation is extended to Mrs. Bertram Palmer for the beautiful manner in which the church was decorated. She in turn wishes to thank Mrs. McClure and Mrs. Turner for assisting her with this important task. Appreciation also to all those who contributed so generously so that those who are in need may be benefited.

Wedding

HOWELL-MARLOW

A lovely double-ring wedding of great interest to this and surrounding districts was that of Joan Olive Marlow, Toronto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marlow, who became the bride of Leslie Watson Howell, son of Sergeant and Mrs. H. W. Howell, Oak Ridges, formerly of Aurora. The ceremony took place in Simpson Avenue United Church, Toronto, which was beautifully decorated with lighted candles and white gladioli. Rev. W. A. Morris officiated. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of brocade satin with insets of lace and net, tight fitting bodice, with a stand-up wing collar and full, flowing skirt. A head-dress of lace and flowers held her finger-tip illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Matron of honour and sister of the bride, was Mrs. Joyce Spence, wearing a gown of burgandy lace over pink satin with matching bonnet. She carried a nosegay of lilies and mums. The groomsmen was Wayne Howell, brother of the groom, and the ushers were Jack Lavery, brother-in-law, and Donald Howell, brother of the groom.

The reception was held at "The Towers", Toronto, where the bride's mother received in a maroon dress with black accessories. She wore a corsage of yellow roses and white orchid. The groom's mother assisted in a navy blue dress with white and navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses and white orchid.

For the wedding trip to Northern Ontario, the bride travelled in a burgundy suit with green accessories and lovely corsage. The couple will reside in Toronto. Guests were present from Rockwood, Newtonbrook, Park Head, and Hamilton.

AWHILE back, he figured out just what a new tractor would do for his farm. He didn't have enough cash in the bank to handle the deal. So he talked things over with his bank manager, fair and square. He got his bank loan — and the tractor. From now on, he expects to work more acreage, increase his farm income. Soon the bank will be repaid.

He looks to his chartered bank for market information, too, and any other banking service he may need.

That's what he wants. That's what he gets. Sound business all round!
