INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS

With the increase of fire hazards property owners should review their insurance policies, and due to the increased cost of materials would be well advised to increase the amounts of insurance. Also car owners who think it will never happen to them are caught some time or other without protection.
The cost is a minor amount to what it will cost if an accident happens.

LANGSTAFF NEWS

CORRESPONDENT -- MRS. STAN. V. WORSDALE
Telephone Thornhill 257r12

Ratepayers Association The regular monthly meeting of the Langstaff Ratepayers Association (Markham residents) takes place next Monday.
As there were not enough members present to hold the Nominations at the September meeting, it is hoped there will be an exceptionally good turnout on Monday.
Please see Coming Events on Page 1 for further details.

Book Club
The ladies of the Book Club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Herb Beatty, Roosevelt Drive, when refreshment hostesses were Mrs. S. G. Lunau, Mrs. Les Markle and Mrs. Allan Peck.
So as not to conflict with the ratepayers meeting on October 22, it was agreed not to meet on that particular night, and alternative arrangements were made.

An enjoyable corn roast was held recently by the members and their husbands at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Les Markle, Westwood Lane, and other activities are planned for the future.

MR. MUSIC
Paramount's "Mr. Music," which opens on Monday and Tuesday, October 15 and 16, at the Richmond Theatre, is a delectable portion of sparkling entertainment served up by Bing Crosby, Nancy Olson, Charles Coburn and Ruth Hussey plus guest stars Groucho Marx, Peggy Lee, The Merry Macs and Dorothy Kirsten. Also on hand is the spectacular dance team of Marge and Gower Champion.

Crosby has been making pictures for almost 20 years now, and his popularity seems to grow with his every appearance before the cameras. In "Mr. Music" he plays a songwriter who has an ear for rhythm, an eye for pretty women and a nose that fights shy of the grindstone. He sings eight new songs and, according to advance reports, turns in one of the top performances of his career.

Beautiful Nancy Olson is one of the brightest young stars to appear in the Hollywood firmament in a long, long time. "Mr. Music," in which she plays Bing's watchful secretary, is her first musical and comes right on the heels of her brilliant portrayals in "Sunset Boulevard" and "Union Station."

Monocled Charles Coburn is seen as a shrewd Broadway producer, while Ruth Hussey portrays a glamorous society dame who helps Crosby while away the lonesome hours. Robert Stack, Tom Ewell and Charles Kemper head the featured cast.

Of Groucho Marx nothing more need be said than that he teams with Der Bingle in a song, dance and patter routine that critics have called the hilarious high spot of the picture. Bing also shares the spotlight with songstress Peggy Lee, The Merry Macs and Metropolitan Opera star Dorothy Kirsten who makes her motion picture debut in the film.

Johnny Burke and James Van Heusen, one of the country's ace songwriting duos for the past ten years, turned out a score of nine Hit Parade bound tunes. They are,
"Mr. Music," "Life Is So Peculiar,"
"Accidents Will Happen," "Wasn't I There?" "High On The List," "Wouldn't It Be Funny," "Once More, The Blue and White," "Mi-lady," and "And You'll Be Home." Burke is the lyric writer, Van Heusen the music man.

Said to be Crosby's greatest hit, "Mr. Music" was produced by Robert L. Welch and directed by Richard Haydn.

"REAP THE WILD WIND"

Product of a great story, a great producer-director, Cecil B. De-Mille's "Reap the Wild Wind," spectacular Paramount sea saga in Technicolor, arrives Wednesday and Thursday, October 17 and 18 at the Richmond Theatre. For us moviegoers this is exciting news.

Preview critics hailed "Reap the Wild Wind" as the best of the mighty DeMille films, a spectacular jewel to fit into the great show-man's crown of screen achievements. For DeMille it climaxes thirty-three years of picture-making, and represents the thirtieth anniversary celebration offering of Paramount Pictures itself.

For "Reap the Wild Wind," De-Mille has chosen as stars Ray Mill-and, Paulette Goddard and John Wayne. Heading the impressive featured cast are Raymond Massey, Lynne Overman, Robert Preston, Susan Hayward, Charles Bickford, Walter Hampden, Martha O'- Driscoll and Janet Beecher.

In the DeMille tradition "Reap the Wild Wind" has an epic quality about it in the immensity of its scope, its roaring thrill scenes, and its powerful romantic story.
It takes us back to the days of 1840 off Key West. Then, as now, America was fighting to keep its sea lanes safe. Off the Florida coasts piratical salvagers plundered the fat carcasses of ships going to pieces on the reefs. America's lifeline was at stake.

Always in the foreground is Loxi Claiborne played by Paulette Goddard, wild, tempestuous, loved by 2 men, equally adept at wielding a fan or a marlin spike aboard one of her ships.

the absence of the president, M.S.
A. T. Mathews.

From the correspondence read it was evident that an excellent programme, with exceptionally good speakers, is planned for the Central Ontario Area Convention to be held at the Royal York Hotel on November 5, 6 and 7. The first of the resolutions to be presented then will be that drafted by the Mark-vau Branch, reading as follows: "Whereas the members of this Institute have found that many of the washing and cleaning soap powder companies do not declare the net weight on the boxes of the product; therefore be it resolved that the East York District respectfully petition the Department to make an effort to have those industries selling soap powders and cleaners to the public stipulate the net weight on each box containing those products."

Mrs. F. Stotts, as District Director of the branch, automatically is the voting delegate to the Convention and is accompanied by the president, Mrs. A. T. Mathews. It was decided also to send Mrs. S.
Worsdale, publicity convener, and as many other members who could arrange to attend were urged to do so.

The appeal of Mrs. L. J. Tomlin-son who recently toured Canada to enlist aid for the island of Jamaica, resulted in the members agreeing to donate the quilt which they are making. Mrs. J. Butcher offered another lovely quilt and as bedding is needed especially following the recent hurricanes, the Economics Convener Mrs. J. Reid, was acked to purchase a pair of sheets to be paid for by a silver collection at the November meeting.

It was further decided to make a donation of $25.00 to purchase and repair a used sewing machine for the pupils of Langstaff Public School.

The roll call reply, a verse from an old school book, recalled to mind, poems, simple, humorous and philosophical. Mrs. L. Campbell, Community Activities and Public Relations Convener, conducted several amusing contests at the conclusion of which refreshments were served by Mrs. W. J. Armstrong, Mrs. D. Robeson, Mrs. R. Jamblyn, Mrs. E. Mills assisting the entertaining hostess, Mrs. J. Butcher.

Members are reminded that the quilt is up in the frame at the home of Mrs. Stotts, ready for the willing workers to go mornings, afternoons or evenings.

BECAUSE IT GIVES YOU PLEASURE . . .

. . . you should do your best to preserve duck hunting. And here are a few hints that will help. Don't shoot until the duck is within range, and be sure to pick up cripples.
Where possible, use a good retriever and, above all, count wounded birds in your bag whether you recover them or not.
Wise hunting today conserves for tomorrow's holiday.
