Maple Community and School Club
At the Hallowe'en party given for the pupils by their teachers on Wednesday afternoon, October 31, the school club assisted. They provided candied apples for all the children present and also presented prizes for the most original and amusing costumes in each age group.

The regular monthly meeting will be held as usual at the school on Wednesday evening, November 7, at 8.30 p.m. The principal, Mrs. J. Fletcher and junior room teacher, Miss Bloedow are to be the speakers for the evening. Any parents who have not been out to the school or have not met the teachers, do come now and take this opportunity to get acquainted. It means a great deal to your children to have their parents interested in knowing their teacher and seeing their school.

Will the bazaar convenors please bring a report of your committee's progress to this meeting. Everyone please keep this date marked on your calendar as a "must."

W. A. Hallowe'en Party
The Woman's Association of the Carrville United Church will hold its November meeting at the home of Mrs. A. Read, Bathurst St., on Wednesday, November 7, at 8 p.m. This meeting is to take the form of a Hallowe'en party. One and all are invited to come. Come in costume as there are prizes and a good evening is assured. The games and contests are being taken care of by Mrs. Baker, Mrs. George and Mrs. Read.

Home and School
The November meeting of the Carrville Home and School Association will be held Thursday evening November 8 at 8 p.m. in the school. Mr. A. Sohm and Mr. Featherston, the teachers, will both attend this meeting and would like to meet the parents of the children they are teaching. We hope the parents will avail themselves of this opportunity.

Birthday Party
A very happy afternoon was spent on Tuesday, October 23, when Jill Nunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Nunn, Carrville Road held a belated birthday party. Jill was confined to her home with a very bad cold on her fourth birthday, October 11, so celebrated a few days later. Her little guests were Gretta Middleton, Drew Wood, Donna and Jody Grew and baby sister Jane. Grant Crawford was unable to come due to the bad weather. The children enjoyed playing several games and were then invited to sit down to a table laden with goodies and centred by a birthday cake. Jill blew out the candles at the right time and the other children sang Happy Birthday. Before the little guests departed they were each given a basket of treat and a balloon and report a very happy time.

Attend Bake Sale
Several Carrville ladies attended and patronized the Vaughan Womans' Workers' bake sale on Saturday at Richvale. The tables were laden with delicious home-made cakes, pies, tarts, cookies, bread and buns. Everything sold very quickly and the ladies report a nice profit realized.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barton and son John visited in Toronto on Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Dean Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. H. Drumm of Toronto spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Middleton and family.

Miss Susan Lewis is in Hospital having a minor operation. We hope that she will be home and able to be back to school again.

Surprise Birthday Party
It was a wonderful surprise Friday night when friends and neighbours dropped in to give birthday greetings to Mary and Gordon Read. Guests from out of the neighbourhood were Mr. and Mrs. Gordie, Mr. and Mrs. C. Read and sons, Stouffville, Mr. Walker, of Willowdale; Mr. Wm. Crawford, Whitby; and Mr. Wm. Vernon who has just returned from Nashville, Tennessee.

We would like to express sincere sympathy to Mrs. Alex Isaacson and daughters in the sudden death of a loving husband and father. Mr. Isaacson was killed by accident with a tractor on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Kirk had a very enjoyable trip to Montreal last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Middleton and family visited on Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Vanderburg of Lansing.

Mr. Frank Woolcott is still progressing favourably at the St. John's Convalescent Hospital, New Toronto.

On Sunday, Miss Ina Beggs from Humber Summit, and Miss Isobel Goodwill of Woodbridge visited with Miss Dorothy Gribble, John St.

Birthday greetings to Ronnie Richan who celebrated his second birthday on Tuesday. There are others in the district who will celebrate birthdays with Hallowe'en parties.

On The Mend
We are glad to report that Mr. Howard Ness of Green Lane is making some progress after spending nearly a week in the General Hospital. He was able to come home with cast off his leg, with faithful promises to stay in bed for another five weeks until the leg heals properly. We do hope the next trip to the hospital will find the broken bones all healed.

Home & School
Thornlea Home and School has sponsored a group of Thornlea school children to be able to attend the series of children's concerts held each Saturday afternoon at Eaton Auditorium. Ten children attended last Saturday.

On Friday evening some of the young people were entertained by Mrs. Rodgers, John St., when a party was given for Wendy. All enjoyed a wonderful evening.
