"TRIO"

From the eloquent pen of Somerset Maugham, one of the world's greatest living writers, comes "Trio", a brilliant, witty and moving Paramount release which will open at the Richmond on Monday and Tuesday, November 5 and Here is exciting proof that Tel. 11 | Maugham's reputation as a story teller stands on very solid ground, for this screen linking of three of his best stories is an unusually rewarding combination of humor, adventure, pathos and irony that is sure to appeal to the widest possible range of cinema tastes. A sequel to the highly successful "Quartet," "Trio" is notably enhanced by Maugham's collaboration on the screenplay, and a superb cast that includes such noteworthy performers as lovely Jean Twelve Sixers and four Leaders from Richvale and Thornhill went to Camp Samac last week-end before the Cubs go up into Scouts.

The Cubs were treated to probably one of the spookiest Hallowe'en parties they ever attended at their regular meeting last week. The boys came in all sorts of costumes which were judged by Mrs. W. McKinnon and Mrs. Rae Paul, Simmons and handsome Michael and after a brief ceremonial the Rennie gives force and solidity to party was launched. Two new boys came in to join the Cubs during the events. Special guest was "Mr. White Cloud" in the person of Mrs. James Jordan.
