Bowling News

The teams playing on Monday, November 12, are: Lions 1 and 2, Oddfellows 2 and Essotane.

High lady on October 29 for 1 game was Marion McCullough with a score of 240 and Clara Baker for 3 games with 583 points.

Hallowe'en

Well Hallowe'en has come and gone once again with the children having lots of fun calling at the homes in the village with their cry of shell out, and other than a few windows scribbled up, there was no serious damage reported, but on the 5th concession near here a farm gate was tied across the road and Charles Durward, Rosehampton Ave., Toronto, and his father narrowly escaped injury as their car went into the ditch in an attempt to avoid the gate. The car was badly damaged.

The Vaughan Township police were kept busy patrolling the concession roads to keep them clear of farmers' milk stands, logs, etc.

Friends of Mrs. Roy Keffer will be sorry to learn she underwent a major operation in the General Hospital, Private Patients Pavilion, Toronto, on Tuesday, October 30. A speedy recovery is hoped for her.

Shower

A pleasant evening was spent on Saturday, October 27, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Couper, when a shower and social was given by the family and friends to Miss Jean Wightman, Toronto, prior to her marriage to Stanley Donaghy, Maple, on Saturday, November 10. Many lovely and useful gifts were received by the bride-to-be.

Maple United Church

On Monday evening, October 29, the W.M.S. of Maple United Church held its thanksgiving meeting with a good attendance.

Mrs. R. A. Bigford president of the W.M.S. presided.

During the evening a very successful pageant depicting sixty years of W.M.S. work was presented in three scenes. This was written and directed by Mrs. P. J. Lambert. For the scenes portraying meetings held in 1912 and 1891 the ladies were dressed in robes worn at that time.

Musical selections of organ and piano were given by Mrs. F. W. Routley and Miss Margaret Ramsey and were much enjoyed as was also the sacred vocal selection rendered by Mrs. Richard Kilpatrick.

The girls of the C.G.I.T. were presented with their awards for last season's work by Mrs. F. S. Rumble represented the Woman's Association.

The Young People's Union of Maple United Church, met in the Sunday School on Thursday evening. Mrs. Margaret Walker presented a very interesting paper on missions. Games were played and the meeting was closed with the singing of "Taps."

Maple Women's Institute will hold a social evening on Wednesday, November 14, at 8 p.m. in the Masonic Hall. Pictures will be shown by Mrs. R. A. Bigford and musical talent will be supplied by the members of Elders Mills' Women's Institute.

At this social there will be a draw for the beautiful quilt on which tickets have been sold.

Busy Bees Mission Band

The Busy Bees Mission Band met at the manse on Saturday, November 3, with St. Paul's Mission Band as guests. Sixteen members answered the roll call "What I wore on Hallowe'en." After the business David Rutherford of St. Paul's rendered a solo. Then the guest speaker of the afternoon Miss MacArthur of Toronto, spoke, having a model of a church and dolls dressed to represent the different nations, she told the children that God is the Father of all, and spoke of the work among Chinese and Native Indians. A duet was then played by Joan and Freda Constable.

The meeting closed with the benediction. A dainty lunch was served after which Ethel Burbidge thanked the Busy Bees Mission Band for the invitation to visit with them.

Friends of Mrs. Grace Robson will be glad to hear that she is able to be up again.

Sympathy is extended to the family of the late William George Bishop, who passed away at his late residence, lot 21, concession 5, Vaughan Township, on Friday, November 2, in his 88th year, beloved husband of the late Elizabeth Hunter and dear father of Minnie (Mrs. Frank Hollingshead), William and Forrest deceased, Joseph, Jennie (Mrs. Harvey Usher) and Alexander. Interment in Maple Cemetery on Monday, November 5.

EDGELEY UNITED CHURCH
Edgeley United Church, Sunday, November 11, 1951. Sunday School 1:30 p.m., Sunday service 2:30 p.m.

Hay Ride
The Young People's Fellowship of Edgeley United Church went for a hay ride on Friday evening. The weather was not too favourable but all enjoyed themselves on the journey and also at the social time which followed at the Mitchell home. The next meeting of the Union will be held at the parsonage Friday evening, November 16, when slides will be shown.

Party at Edgeley Community Hall
The school and pre-school children enjoyed a real bang-up never-to-be-forgotten party on Hallowe'en and there was mystery, intrigue, superstitions and fun for everyone in Edgeley Community Hall. There all the young folk found fun to their taste and if noise is any indication, the party was an outstanding success.

There was a fish pond containing a gift for each child, including 10 horns which the children took great delight in blowing all at one time to see how much music (?) they could make.

Little Helen Spencer, dressed in a black and orange costume representing a witch won the girl's prize in the pre-school age group and John Lund, in his clown suit, won the boys' prize.

In the junior group, the girls' prize was won by Margaret Broadbelt, dressed as a fashionable young lady and Sandy Agnew, in his straw hat, his bow tie and bundle of sticks over his back, representing the little pig that built his house of sticks, took the boys' prize.

Sonja Bodker, costumed as a fairy queen was the best dressed girl in the Intermediate grades and Jim Agnew, in his hurdy-gurdy man outfit, complete with music box strung around his neck, toy monkey and tin cup, had the best boy's costume.

Terry Elliott, made up like a beautiful lady and Ronnie McTague, as a gentleman took the prizes in the Senior group.

In the "couples" group, Evelyn and Francis Stong appeared dressed as Jack and Jill carrying a pail for water between them. Doug Fierheller, dressed as a young mother, wheeled his small sister, Jane around the hall in a doll carriage.

The comic prize was given to Billie Ash in a hobo outfit.

The children's teacher, Miss Pat Gullett, led in a number of games and a relay race after which lunch was served consisting of sandwiches, cookies, chocolate milk and popcorn. The party was given for the children by the Edgeley Women's Institute.

Euchre
The Edgeley Euchre Club met on Tuesday October 30 at the Hall with 11 tables playing, which resulted in prizes going to Mrs. H. Fieldhouse, Mrs. Livingston, Mr. Mathews, Mr. Patterson and Mr. Jim Fisher. Fowl and groceries were awarded as prizes.

Accident.
G. Reimer of Humber Summit narrowly escaped serious injury last week when the gravel truck he was operating struck a pile of fill on Keele St. south of No. 7 Highway, causing it to careen to the opposite side of the road and break off a pole, knock down 200 ft. of wire fence belonging to George Snider and crash into and uproot an old pine tree three feet in diameter situated along the line fence between George Snider's and Alf. Bagg's farms before finally coming to a stop.

The accident was investigated by Constable Ernest Bone of Vaughan Township Police Force.

Farm Forum.
The third and concluding Farm Forum in the first series on Co-operatives will take place on November 12 and will be titled "Are Co-ops Socialistic?" Do Co-ops lead to Socialistic planning? Ed. Haliburton, Nova Scotia, farmer and applegrower who believes that they are, will debate the question with Ralph Staples, Ontario's manager of the Co-op Life Insurance Company. A report on the opinions and findings on these questions will be reported by provincial secretaries on Nov. 19. The second series "Community Living" will begin Nov. 26th.

We are very glad to report that the three people on the sick list last week are now progressing favourably. Mr. John Young returned home on Saturday after undergoing surgery on his right leg in Mount Sinai Hospital, Toronto. Mrs. Bob Howden who has been in Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton is home again and is improving. Mrs. Annie Mortson has recovered sufficiently from an attack suffered two weeks ago to be out of bed a little each day.

Many Happy Returns of the day to Evelyn Stong who will celebrate her 8th birthday November 14.

Miss Helen Thomas spent the week-end at home with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Keith Thomas, it being the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary.

Mrs. W. Maginn called on the Putebaughs November 1.

A report of the Central Ontario Convention of Women's Institutes will be given by the delegates at the next meeting of the Institute on November 14, at the home of Mrs. Eldon Fierheller. A pot luck lunch will be served at noon.

The Edgeley Farmers' Club met in the Hall on Thursday, November 1 and discussed the purchase of new calendars for the New Year.

Don Bagg and Orval Keffer attended the Argo-Ottawa rugby game on Saturday afternoon.

A number of Edgeley residents who are members of the Vaughan-Farmers Co-operative Services Ltd., attended the banquet and 8th annual meeting held recently in Robertson's Auditorium, Woodbridge and enjoyed a meal of choice turkey prepared by the ladies of Burwick Women's Institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Aitchison were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Don Elliott on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvine Snoddon of Sunderland called on Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hendry on Thursday afternoon.

Billie Ash celebrated his birthday on Saturday afternoon and invited a number of friends to share it with him. His guests were: Roger Eberschlag, Ronnie McTague, Terry Elliott, Jimmy Agnew, Jimmy Fletcher, Vici and David Young, John and Paul Hunter, and Christina and Bertie Rosendale. Mr. and Mrs. Hunter were also present. The children played games and contests and after enjoyed the birthday supper, complete with birthday cake and other delicious treats.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hendry and children visited with friends in Sunderland on Sunday.

Miss Grace Rayner of Detroit, Mich., is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stong. Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Broadbelt, Margaret, Doreen and Mr. R. Broadbelt visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Price of Mackville on Sunday.

Turkey Supper Successful
Carrville Girls Club had a very successful turkey supper on Tuesday, October 30. It was held in the Thornhill United Church Hall. It is estimated that more than 325 persons enjoyed the delicious turkey supper. The Club have a profit of $202.73 after all bills were paid. Special thanks goes to all who did so much to make the supper a success, especially those who donated so many vegetables and also the baking of pies and cooking of the turkey. Thank you to the Thornhill ladies who helped in various ways and the caretaker at the Thornhill United Church hall. Following the supper a good programme was enjoyed, mostly on the lighter side.

Miss Nichol, a comedian, sang several numbers. Miss Chris Elliott was much enjoyed also by her popular songs. Mr. Hunt, assisted by Mrs. Hunt, did several magic tricks, and so did Carl Mulcahey. Piano soloist, Bob Draffin, played several numbers. Miss Marilyn Price and Jacqueline Peacock gave several tap-dancing numbers. Bill Overton played the piano accordion very nicely. A good evening was enjoyed by all. A very sincere thanks to the ladies who cleaned the hall the next day.

Mrs. L. Morris attended the Home and School Work Shop classes held at Powell Road School on Tuesday last week and will be giving a report at the Home and School meeting on Thursday, November 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Evringham and children of Toronto visited on Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Stan Wood and family.

Ladies Club

On Friday, November 2, the Doncaster Ladies Club held their regular meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cole, Secomcoe St. The meeting was opened by singing "O Canada" and the repeating of The Lord's Prayer.

Final plans were made for the bazaar which is to be held at the Masonic Hall, Thornhill, on Saturday, November 17, from 2 to 5 p.m. Tickets will be sold at the bazaar on a lovely 32-piece tea set. There will be many tables of goods such as a fish pond for the children, reconditioned toys, dressed dolls, rummage and white elephants home baking (cakes, pies, cookies, candy, etc.), sewing (aprons, tea towels, handkerchiefs, pillow slips, and many other useful items, which would also make grand Xmas presents. If you would like, you will even be able to have tea and a bite to eat. Tea cup reading will also be available. The ladies of the club have worked very hard and nothing would please and encourage them more than to see you and your friends at the bazaar. Also you will be able to obtain many bargains and things you could not buy elsewhere for the same price.

The members of the club were pleased to have two visitors, Mrs. Stevenson and Mrs. Vautier at the meeting.

The next monthly meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mottershall, Clarke St. on Tuesday, December 4. The meeting was closed by singing "God Save The King."

Many of the children in Doncaster attended the Hallowe'en party held at the Uplands Golf Club House, sponsored by the Thornhill and District Lions Club. The party was a great success. Some of the lovely prizes were won by Elsie Arnold, Morgan Ave., Mary Artis, of Morgan Ave., Malcolm McAlpine, of Morgan Ave. and Bobby Masson of Dudley St. The children are extended compliments on their general good behaviour during this celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Couper, Glen Cameron Street, were very pleased to see Mr. Sandy McIntyre, an old friend from their home town, Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. McIntyre made a two hour stopover at Malton airport on his way to Jamaica.

Residents of Doncaster are cordially invited to attend a euchre to be held by Mrs. A. Couper and Mrs. D. Watts at Mrs. Watts home, 77 Glen Cameron on Friday, November 30, at 8 p.m. The proceeds of this euchre are in aid of the Doncaster Ladies Club building fund.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. A. Goodchild, Henderson Ave., who celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary recently. It is hoped that they will have many more years of happy married life.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Gil Martin, Morgan Ave., in their bereavement.

Mr. T. Owen, Morgan Ave., who is in Sunnybrook Hospital is wishing a speedy recovery by his friends and neighbors.

Mrs. A. G. Seeley, Clarke Ave., District Director of the Thornhill Women's Institute is attending the three-day Women's Institute Convention being held at the Royal York Hotel this week.

On Sunday, October 14, Michael Garry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson, Clarke St., was christened at Trinity Anglican Church by the Rev. S. A. R. Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Sculthorpe, formerly of Chingford, England, were godparents for Michael. Mr. Sculthorpe is district commissioner for the Highland district, Toronto.

For this special service Michael was gown in an extra long gown which was more than 60 years old and had been worn by his mother, his aunts and his uncles. The gown was enhanced by inserts of lace and eyelet embroidery.

Following the christening 31 guests gathered at the Atkinson home and Michael received many lovely gifts.

Audrey Harrison, Henderson Ave., has chosen January, 1952 as the month for her marriage to Mr. Gerald George Daniels of Toronto.

We are pleased to hear that Mrs. Cole Sr., Highland Park, is feeling better. Hope to see her up and around in the near future.
