 Thursday afternoon the public speaking finals for the County of York took place in the County Chambers, Toronto, Warden Brandon, reeve of Swansea, opened the session. After the roll call of Reeves and Deputy-Reeves which was of interest to the children, Mrs. D. Hague, chairman of the programme committee extended greetings to the visitors who filled the chambers to capacity.
 Six contestants gave a prepared speech and an impromptu speech, with 11-year-old Doreen Montgomery of Scarborough Township taking first honors, with her speech on "The cake I made" and "Volleyball." Second honors went to North Gwillimbury Township, when Carol Brown spoke on "What Canada means to a girl" and "Traffic Accidents." Patti Campbell, Etobicoke Township was third speaking on "Disease, our greatest enemy" and "My Ambition." Fourth was Gilmour Porter of North York Township, whose subjects were: "The Royal Canadian Mounted Police" and "My unlucky day." Anthony Bouden of East York Township spoke on "An Immigrant's Perspective of Canada" and "A Day at the CNE."
 Paul Ross of York Township came sixth with "Autumn Reverie" and "How to keep healthy."
 The first place winner will compete in the Ontario Finals shortly. Each competitor received a handsome set of pen and pencil. Others who came second in the township contests were presented with a certificate of merit and a pen and pencil set. They were: Robert McGhee, Vaughan Township; Marilyn Lombard, York Twp.; Marshall Dea, New Toronto; Pamela Downey, Leaside; James Henning, East York. Michael Harding, York Township and Rita McCrohan of King Township. The reeves presented the prizes.
 The top winners at the York Music Festival supplied the program during the adjudication, with a school choir from Ravenshoe under the direction of their music director, Mrs. Cowleson sang sweetly "Loch Lomond" and "Bless this House." The Queen Anne singers under the direction of Miss Anne Dumbleton from Woodbridge added a bit of color with their red blazers and sang several numbers closing with the "Lord's Prayer" and "God Save The King."
 Harold Gribble, Thornhill, gave two selections "Lord Lochinvar" and "I Doubt It." This was the first time a program had been part of the annual public speaking contests. With the new piano in the York County Chambers, it was thought the best way to show what the York Music Festival was accomplishing in the schools.
