York Central District

Annual Meeting
York Central District for Scouts held its annual meeting in the United Church Hall, Thornhill, on Friday evening, November 16, when 75 Scouters and Committee-men gathered to hear the reports of the Executive Council and to elect new officers and vote on changes in the constitution and by-laws.

In his opening remarks the chairman, Mr. Jackson Taylor, paid tribute to the untiring devotion of the late secretary, Mr. Ernie Bennett, and one minute's silence was observed by all present in respect to his memory.

Mr. Taylor also paid tribute to the core of the Scouting movement which is composed of and owes so much to its hardworking Scout and Club leaders.

The chairman recommended the setting up of committees to deal with the Financial Campaign, Apple Day and to assist the Camp Warden, Mr. Swabey in the maintenance and running of the Glen Cross Camp.

The District Commissioner, Mr. Frank Worth, reported that there are 18 groups which operate 25 Cub Packs, 15 Scout Troops, 1 Senior Scout Patrol, 1 Rover crew and 8 Ladies Auxiliaries, a gain of seven working units over last year. New packs have been formed at Wilson Heights, Haviland, Lansing (Annunciation), York Mills B, Newtonbrook B, Willowdale 1B, and Richmond Hill C. There is also a Scout Troop at Wilson Heights.

Since there are a number of boys still unregistered it is difficult to arrive at a correct estimate, but it is obvious that there are over 1200 Scouts and Cubs in the district, Mr. Worth remarked. Camping outings and various training courses were held during the year and the staff expressed its appreciation of the co-operation of many of the Scouters in the planning and executing of these affairs.

Before the meeting was officially begun a delicious dinner was served by the W.A. ladies of the United Church and the vote of thanks led by the chairman was accepted with a gracious word from Mrs. N. Morton.

Mr. Boyce, from Movie-Mite, showed a couple of films of particular interest to Scouters, one of which showed the Preston Precision Band which has won much acclaim for its fine precision drilling and band playing.

The election of officers for the Executive Board was prefaced by the treasurer's report by Mr. E. Arthur Smart, and a few words from Mr. Robert Johnson of Provincial Headquarters.

The election was conducted by Mr. Douglas McConney of Provincial Headquarters and following are the results: Chairman, Mr. Jackson Taylor; secretary, Mr. Peter Woodger; treasurer, Mr. E. Arthur Smart; District Commissioner, Mr. Frank Worth. These officers were re-elected by acclamation.

Four vice-presidents with equal standing were elected by secret ballot: Mr. J. Craig of Wilson Heights; Mr. George Dobson, 1st Willowdale; Mrs. Frank Gardiner, Richmond Hill; Mr. H. Rogers, of Thornhill.

The District Commissioner announced the appointment of Mrs. Terry Jackson, Assistant District Commissioner for Cubbing and the re-appointment of Mr. John Snow as Assistant District Commissioner for Scouts and Rovers.

The Badge Secretary, Mrs. Peter Woodger gave a report on the work of supplying badges to the different quarters in the district when badges were still difficult to obtain promptly, and on the recommendation of Mr. Dobson it was unanimously agreed by the meeting to dispense with the office.

During the evening A.D.C. John Snow directed some very diverting games. The evening came to a close with the singing of God Save The King.

Representatives were present from 1st. King, 1st. Lansing, 3rd. Lansing, 1st. Newtonbrook, 1st. Richmond Hill, 1st. Richvale, 1st. Thornhill, 1st. Willowdale, 2nd. Willowdale, 1st. Wilson Heights, 1st. York Mills, the three District Staff Officers and Mr. Douglas McConney, Mr. Jack Atkinson & Mr. Bob Johnson from Provincial Headquarters.

Little Miss Susan Fielding was seven years old last Wednesday and the little guests who enjoyed fun and frolic of the birthday party were Judith Nicols, Judy Henderson, Diane and Lynne Bailey, Sheila Miller, Linda Fielding, Murray Adams and Douglas Cutler.

Mrs. C. H. Snider and Bruce, accompanied by Mrs. George Snider and Miriam, called on Mrs. Mary Brodie on Sunday afternoon to congratulate her and give their best wishes to such a highly respected and fine lady of 92 years. Mrs. Brodie is staying at present with her daughter, Mrs. George Quantz at Aurora.

Bright and early last Saturday morning our correspondent hied down to Wellington St. and University Ave. to help extend a rousing welcome to the Saskatchewan Rough Riders and the Ottawa Roughriders who were in town to battle it out together for the Grey Cup on Saturday afternoon.

To me it seemed as though thousands of big white Stetson hats had invaded the city, each one perched jauntily on the head of a big man or a pretty woman all decked out in plaid shirt and blue jeans and wearing their green and white team colors and a small sheaf of prairie wheat in their coat lapels.

The Grey Cup parade itself was a long one and our friends from the West shouted wildly their greetings to us of the east as they rode by on their many colorful floats or marched in time to the music of six bands.

The young men and women from Capital Hill were every bit as keen Conference at Hanover on caps and red, white and black team colors.

McGavin Bakeries of Saskatchewan distributed 15,000 miniature loaves of bread to the spectators along the parade route and I was one of the lucky persons to receive a loaf of this bread. It is 4½ inches long, 3 inches high and 2½ inches wide, wrapped in cellophane and bears the label 'The World's Best Bread, made from Saskatchewan wheat with the compliments of the people of Saskatchewan in recognition of the Saskatchewan Rough Riders, Grey Cup Finalists 1951." Zion Lutheran Church, Sunday, December 2, 1951. Sunday School at 10 a.m., Sunday service and Holy Communion at 11 a.m.

At the Confirmation Service last Sunday, three young people, Jean Ash, Mabel Oster and Jimmy Fletcher were received into full membership in the church.

The Women of the Lutheran Church met at the home of Mrs. Dave Julian on Wednesday, November 21. The lesson was read by Mrs. Wilmer Keffer and Mrs. Fischer gave a report on the Western Conference at Hanover on the 17th of October. During the business, it was decided to hold the annual meeting and election of officers on Wednesday evening, December 5, at 7.30 p.m.

Mrs. Floyd Diceman assisted Mrs. Julian to serve lunch to the guests.

The Elia choir will be in charge of the music in the morning and the Knox men's choir will conduct the music in the evening.

Instead of holding their regular meeting last week, the ladies of the Jolly 7 Club attended the Robin Hood Cooking School sponsored by Christ Church W. A. and which was held in the Orange Memorial Hall, Woodbridge. There the ladies saw many tasty and nourishing dishes prepared by the demonstrators. Many prizes were given away during the evening. Mrs. Harold Snider being the lucky winner of a quart of paint and Mrs. Lloyd Thompson a box of chocolates.
