Jolly 7 Club
The Jolly 7 Club met at the home of Mrs. Jim Spencer on Wednesday evening, December 5, with a 100 percent attendance. The Club paper "Jolly Time" was read by Mrs. Bill Thompson and was enjoyed by everyone. The ladies worked on their quilt and made plans for their special Christmas meeting which is to be held at the home of Mrs. Howard Lund on Wednesday evening, December 19.

It is too bad that so many children are ill, especially now that the Christmas season is approaching. Their mothers are faced with the added task of caring for them while busy at the same time preparing for the holiday season. It is hard to amuse a sick child and care for the family as well. With this thought in mind, several of the children's mothers were asked for their method of keeping children happy though ill. They all stated unanimously that crayoning looking at picture books and reading appealed most to their children. Next came a desire for cards and to make every day an adventure, the mothers usually had friends and relatives send cards. They also got maps and literature from travel bureaus and sent food coupons for books and toys. This made mail time something to look forward to.

There are many things that a sick child can do to amuse himself. A real watch that ticks or a mirror to cast bright shadows on a wall can be fun. If he is very ill, a bowl of goldfish usually amuses him indefinitely and without much effort on his part. A plant that a child can water and care for gives a new interest. The sewing machine drawers to sort and arrange give a child something to do. He can put buttons in jars and spoons in neat rows. A child loves the old nursery rhymes, but often when he is well he is never still long enough to enjoy them, but likes to have them sung to him while he is sick. Doing all small chores such as peeling potatoes and mending socks where the child can watch is usually appreciated by him. However, for the most part, he must amuse himself while mother works, and while trying to amuse a sick child is just an added chore to a busy mother's life, the better she does it, the less she will have to do it. Here's hoping the chicken pox, flu, colds and other illnesses that are bothering the children at present will be all cleared up before Christmas Day.

The Women's Association of Elia United Church held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Tonkin on December 4. Mrs. Powell very ably took the topic "God's Gift to Man". Mrs. Powell will be hostess when the next meeting is held on Thursday afternoon, January 3.

(Held From Last Week)
There were four student teachers at Concord School last week. Mr. T. Barto, Mr. W. Campbell, Mr. G. Burrows and Mr. W. Brooks taught the children under the supervision of Mr. McWhirter and Miss Duke.

The school was honored to be the first in Vaughan Township to receive an "Elmer" flag which is given by the police to encourage the children to be safety-conscious. There was a little ceremony on Wednesday during which it was raised on the flagpole. Two officers from the Vaughan Twp. police force were present and reminded the youngsters that in case of an accident Elmer would have to be taken down for 30 accident-free days.

There will be another Vaughan Teacher's Association meeting on December 6 at Concord. Miss A. Leary will be speaking on "Arts and Crafts" and the Richmond Hill Horticultural Society is going to send a representative to impress upon us the need for beautifying the school surroundings.

The Luther League of Bethesda, Unionville, met in the Lutheran Church at Sherwood on Sunday evening and together with the Luther League of Zion, they practised the pageant to be given in the two churches at Christmas time.

Anniversary
Elia United Church on Finch Ave. midway between Dufferin and Keele Streets and formerly known as Gram's Appointment, on the Newtonbrook-Willowdale circuit, celebrated its one hundredth anniversary on Sunday, December 2.

The minister, Rev. Cyril Leach, B.A., B.D., was in charge of the morning service at eleven o'clock when the Very Reverend George C. Pidgeon D.D., L.L.D., minister emeritus of Bloor Street United Church, Toronto, brought a message of "Faith" to the assembled congregation. The people in the church, others in the Sunday School room, and those outside in the cars heard perfectly over the efficient public address system set up by Mr. Bruce Constable of Maple. The record player brought hymns for an hour before each service. Elia choir, with the assistance of Mr. and Mrs. Henry, Miss Henry and Mr. Robert Gannon of Toronto sang two anthems "Bless the Lord, O My Soul" by Meredith and "Oh, Magnify the Lord," by Nolte, under the leadership of Mr. William Tonkin with Mrs. James Buchanan at the organ. Familiar hymns chosen for the occasion were sung very heartily by everyone.

The evening service was conducted by Rev. E. E. Kent, B.Th., Th.D., minister of Thornhill United Church whose talk to the children led up to "A Challenge of the Times" giving all food for thought. The Knox Mens Choir, with Mrs. Glen Davis, organist, sang "The Church by the Side of the Road," "O Holy Night" and Now the day is Over." Dinner was served to over one hundred persons in the Sunday School room after the morning service by the members of the Women's Association. This was when members of the last fifty years got together for a renewal of friendships and a cheery talkfest. During this hour Mrs. Lambert of Toronto played and sang "The Holy City" and "Bless this House." A fireside after the evening service was another joyous time when old friends and new spent a happy hour over a cup of tea.

The present church of brick construction was built in 1901, the men of the congregation doing much of the work and all of the hauling in connection with its erection. Hence the fiftieth anniversary of this church which was opened and dedicated on December 15, 1901 was also celebrated on Sunday.

Greetings were received from the Moderator of the United Church of Canada, the Right Reverend C. M. Nicholson. Rev. Edward Baker, Minister Emeritus of Meaford United Church, who was minister here before 1900, sent greetings. Rev. W. E. Baker of Toronto Rev. R. A. Spencer of Long Branch, Rev. W. S. Irwin of Rockwood, Rev. E. C. Muddle of Aurora and Rev. G. W. Lynd of Port Credit, ministers of Elia Church since 1913 when the Downsview circuit was formed, also sent greetings.

Rev. Lynd was present at the evening service.

There were visitors at most of the homes in the community when over four hundred relatives and friends came back to worship and renew acquaintances during the day.

Thornhill Lions Hear Report On Raffle

Last week's meeting of Thornhill and District Lions Club was featured by the showing by Art Bone of two motion pictures supplied by the Imperial Oil Company.

Lion Tom Jackson gave a report on the ticket sale in connection with the raffle of a new Chevrolet car which is now on display at Bill Ball Motors, Willowdale. According to Lion Tom the Club has some ace ticket sellers who report that car tickets with a limited issue of 1000 chances are easy to sell even if the price is $5 per ticket.

The proceeds from this raffle are to pay off the outstanding obligations in connection with the Thornhill Memorial Swimming Pool and also for the Club's Community Welfare work.

Lion Jack Bentham gave a report on the forthcoming meetings, and their programmes.

The members of the Edgeley Women's Institute held their annual luncheon for the children of the school on Thursday noon in the community hall. After everyone enjoyed a hearty lunch, Mr. Hudson of the Department of Lands and Forests showed some cartoons in color to the children. There were five pictures in all. Terry Elliott gave a talk on the Province of Manitoba and Mrs. P. Snider gave a report on the District Directors' meeting of November 28 held at the home of Mrs. Leo Watson in Woodbridge.

During the business, it was decided to send a contribution toward the purchase of a radio for the York County Children's Aid Society cottage in Willowdale.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Chas. Summerfeldt in Woodbridge on January 10. Mrs. Bruce Keffer, community activities and public relation convener will be in charge of the programme.

Mr. and Mrs. Rose and family enjoyed a turkey dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Syd Broadbelt on Saturday evening.

Farm Forum

On the evening of December 3, the Farm Forum met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chapman and considered the second topic "Educational Outlets for Adults" in the "Community Living Series."

If you had your choice, what kind of short course or community schools for adults would you like to have in your community? The finding for this question was that the group would like a short course. A preference was shown by the ladies for a course in cooking. Others preferred instruction in dressmaking, public speaking, nursing, first aid, horticulture and interior decorating. For the men, the choice was farm mechanics and electricity.

How do you think your group could guard against your Forum drifting to a 'chit-chat' or card playing group? To date we have not had this trouble due to good management on the part of our president who keeps to a definite Forum schedule.

What can you do in your community to get Library services for to make better use of the library services that are available? We have arranged for a travelling library for our Forum for this winter. There is no other library service available in this community.

Misses Marian and Ruby Putebaugh attended the wedding reception on Saturday evening, December 1, at Weston of Mr. Gordon Morrison and Miss Doris Wyeth at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wyeth.

Fierheller was second, scoring 104 followed by Mrs. J. Fisher with her score of 94. Nels Love won first prize for men, scoring 103 with E. Keffer second with a score of 100. Mr. Fierheller came third with 97 as his score. Fowl and groceries were given as prizes.

Last week twenty children were absent from school with various illnesses, mostly 'flu' and chicken pox.

Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Edgeley Farmers' Club was held in the Hall on Thursday evening Dec. 6. Mr. Lawrence Keffer was re-elected as President; Geo. Snider, Vice-president; Roy Keffer, Second Vice-president; A. Mitchell Secretary and Jim Darlington Assistant Secretary.

The next meeting will be held on January 3rd, 1952.
