Someone can now walk among their fellow-men with a clear conscience.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Honey, Helen and Ralph, Seagrove, were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. E. LaRose.

On Sunday last at Central United Church the Sunday School and church held combined service. The superintendent, Mr. Alf Dyke read the scriptures. Rev. Burt read the announcements and introduced the guest speaker, Rev. Dr. Hunnisett. The children from the junior room sang "Away In A Manger." The adult choir sang the anthem "Come to the Stable" which was enjoyed. It was White Gift Sunday and numerous gifts were handed in for the Fred Victor Mission where Rev. Hunnisett is the pastor.

On Sunday evening at 7.30 p.m. There was a good crowd at C.G. I.T. Candlelighting service. The room was very beautifully decorated with candles and Christmas tree. Mrs. Beryl McIntyre told the story of The Five Little Fingers of the Christ Child. The singing of the C.G.I.T. choir was greatly appreciated especially in the carol singing. While the offering was being taken Mrs. A. Toogood played the violin, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. W. Thomas, after which the meeting closed with the singing of Taps.

The furniture belonging to the late Mr. Chant was sold Saturday afternoon. The weather was very cold but there was a record crowd present. The articles to be sold were numerous and went at an average price. Mrs. Chant, wife of Dr. R. Chant who was here previous to the sale has returned to her home in Saskatchewan.

Tuesday, December 18, the Woman's Association of Central United met in the church school room. Despite the very stormy day there were thirteen members and three visitors present. The president, Mrs. Milner was in the chair and Mrs. M. Cook acted as secretary. Mrs. A. Brown read the scripture The topic "A Christmas Message" was taken by Mrs. M. Cooke and Mrs. W. Snowball led in prayer. This being the annual meeting, the reports from the different committees were read and handed in. The hymns used were all Christmas carols and program consisted of a very lovely solo by Mrs. Purvis "O Holy Night." At the close of the meeting a very dainty lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. A. Dyke, Mrs. F. Rae and Mrs. Purvis.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Jim Ash had the misfortune to fall and injure his back. He will be confined to the hospital for some time. His many friends here wish him a speedy recovery.

On Tuesday night Mrs. Anderson entertained some friends in honor of the birthday of her twin daughters, Alice and May. Misses Margaret and Pearl Rainey were among those present and were also celebrating their birthday. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbertson of Toronto have come to live with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Martin. It is nice to see Jean in the choir again.

At the Veterans' bingo Wednesday night there was a good turnout and the turkey draws went to: Mr. Peter Epps, Toronto; Mr. Mathers, R. R. 1 Milliken; R. A. Marsh, Richmond Hill; Gil. Bute, Unionville; L. J. Allen, Unionville; G. Matin, Toronto; C. Russell, of Langstaff; F. S. Pichi, Toronto; G. Staples, Toronto; Nancy Weir, Unionville and winner of bingo turkey, Mrs. M. We hope the following sick folk will soon be well again: Mrs. R. Duffield, Mr. Hepburn and Mrs. Pollard.

Thursday night was the night of the annual Sunday School Christmas party. The superintendent of the Sunday School expressed his pleasure at seeing such a good turnout of the parents. It was a very stormy night. The children from the tiny tots to the older ones all did their parts well. The instrumental numbers on the pianos by Mrs. A. Brown, Mrs. A. Toogood, Miss M. Warne and Miss Betty Thomas were all greatly enjoyed as was the nice lunch which was served at the close of the concert, just before the gifts were distributed.

Mrs. G. Hirst last week received the sad news of the passing of her father who resided in England. Our sympathy is extended to the family.

Mrs. Dorothy Payne of Toronto has been spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. M. Allen, Victoria Street.

We are sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. W. Brooks of Brown's Corners on No. 7 Highway. He was a resident there for many years and our sympathy is extended to his family.

At the Public Library on Main Street there is a very fine selection of new books. Many of today's best selling fiction for adults are there and a good selection for the tiny tots and the teen-agers. Good Housekeeping, Readers Digest and National Geographic are available. Why not give a 1952 membership to a boy or girl or friend. These may be obtained at the library which is open on Saturday afternoon from 3-4 p.m. and from 7.30 to 9.30 in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Stiver's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kerr of Asburn are on a three-month vacation in Tucson, Arizona. They left just in time to escape the zero weather.

A man, before he starts to drive, will take three drinks, or four, or five. He is an expert at the wheel, and no compunction does he feel, for he can handle his old car where forty thousand buzzcarts are, and no one's paint will he deface, or knock a fender out of place. The unskilled drivers should not try to mix their gasoline with rye, but when he's in the driver's seat he's equal to the highest feat, he'll not imperil life or limb, but harmlessly he'll scoot and skim. And so, before he pulls his tricks, he takes five drinks or maybe six, and feels an eager urge, at that, to leave all records lying flat. For seven drinks are guaranteed to make a driver long for speed, he is no longer satisfied at forty miles per hour to ride, he'll show the natives how to strike a lightning gait along the pike. And then it is the same old tale, with throbbing head he wakes in jail. He finds, to his intense distress, that he has caused a frightful mess; the roads are strewn with wreckage left by him when of his sense bereft, morticians gather up remains of divers badly mangled swains, the coroner is holding quests on auctioneers and wedding guests; the turnkey tells him, moist with tears, he'll doubtless draw some fifty years; and he reflects, "I was a chump — I should have patronized the pump."
