The Liberal is always glad to receive social and personal items for this page and a call to Telephone No. 9 will receive courteous attention. This newspaper will also welcome news reports about church organizations, women's and men's societies, lodges and other groups. While copy will be accepted up to Wednesday of each week, it is desirable to have it in earlier if possible to ensure its publication.

Dr. W. D. Moyle from England was a recent visitor of his brother, Mr. Harry Moyle, Yonge Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Savage, of Lorne Avenue, left Tuesday by motor on a business trip to Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lynn, Wild Wind Cottage, Oxford St., Elgin Mills, were delighted to have with them over the New Year their son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. Father Freeston and Mrs. Freeston of New York.

The Sugar and Spice Club met at the home of Mrs. T. Saul last week. Mrs. M. Clouse of Toronto was a guest of the evening. Card winners were 1st Mrs. F. Wilson; 2nd Mrs. A. Blackburn; 3rd Mrs. H. Patton. Hostesses of the evening were W. Carter and B. Lambert.

Miss Marian Cunningham, 35 Yonge Street was the winner of Lucy Dickie's December draw. The lucky ticket was drawn by Mr. Mel Maltby with other business people of the village present. Marion received a scarf as a prize. This month's prize will be a cardigan sweater.

Mr. R. J. Craigie returned from Shoubridge Surgery Hospital, Toronto, on Tuesday of this week after undergoing an operation there last Friday, and is reported to be progressing favorably. Mr. A. R. W. Uren, also recently returned home after being a patient at the same hospital.

John Reid, popularly known as "Jock", guard at the Don Jail, and for many years on staff at Langstaff Jail Farm, died at Sunnybrook Hospital on Sunday, December 30. He was in his 70th year and served as a Sergeant in the 4th Battalion in the C.E.F. in the First Great War.

The annual meeting of the W.A. of the Presbyterian Church was held at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Blanchard at the end of December. Reports of different secretaries were given and officers elected for 1952. It was decided to hold the January meeting at the home of Mrs. H. H. MacKay, Arnold Street, with Mrs. David Armstrong presiding on January 17, at 8 p.m.

Rev. H. E. Wellwood B.A., B.D. was the guest preacher at the morning service last Sunday at the Richmond Hill United Church. Rev. Wellwood, as in past years, takes the service the first Sunday in the new year at the request of church officials, in recognition of the service his father, the late Rev. N. Wellwood rendered to the then Methodist Church as its minister from 1899 to 1902.

A trip through The Liberal office was the program for the Richmond Hill Evening Auxiliary on their regular meeting night. The president, Mary Dawson, who is the linotype operator, conducted the members through the plant and explained the work entailed in publishing each week's issue of the paper. The group adjourned to the home of Mrs. Robert Ross, Markham Road, where business was transacted and games and lunch were enjoyed. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. L. W. Zuefelt, 4 Centre Street West.

A letter received by The Liberal this morning from Les. Hull, now in Tucson, Arizona, advises that his daughter Leslie Ann is progressing favorably in the warm, dry climate.

Mrs. E. Butlin, Roseview Ave., opened her home to the executive of the Ladies Auxiliary for Scouts and Cubs last Thursday evening. Mrs. F. Gardiner, Mill Road, presided at the meeting and explained to the new executive their duties for the coming year.

Mrs. G. E. Clubine, 55 Markham Road, a visitor to the Liberal Office this week, drew our attention to the cover of the December issue of Chatelaine magazine on which was featured a recipe created by her niece, Mrs. R. S. Howie, St. Lambert, Quebec. The recipe was for stuffed French bread and according to further enquiries many ladies and one gentleman in the village have tried it already with much success.

Mrs. Howie's picture was also published beside her recipe which was given in detail in the magazine.

Obituary

MRS. MARY E. BRODIE

The sympathy of Headford Community goes out to the family of the late Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Brodie, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Doan and wife of the late Mr. Charles T. Brodie, who passed peacefully away December 28, 1951, in her 93rd year, at the home of her son Mr. Norman Brodie.

Mrs. Brodie was born November 25, 1859, at Oakwood, Ont., married Mr. C. Brodie in 1880 at Glenville in King Twp. and lived in the vicinity of Newmarket a number of years, then moved to Markham Twp. and farmed on the 4th concession for five years. Forty-nine years ago she moved with her family to Headford.

Her husband predeceased her in 1922. Mrs. Brodie was keenly interested in all activities, not only in church work but in every worthy enterprise, her motherly interest was extended to all with whom she came in contact, her kindly way and warm, pleasant manner endeared her to everyone.

The funeral service took place from Wright and Taylor's Funeral Home in Richmond Hill, December 31, 1951, interment at Newmarket. Rev. A. Huston of Headford and Rev. H. Howie of Aurora conducted the service. The many floral tributes expressed the high esteem in which she was held.

Left to mourn her passing are her son Norman of Headford, daughter Harriet (Mrs. Geo. Quantz) of Aurora, grandchildren Elmer Leek, Cora, Donald and Margaret Brodie and great grandchildren Albert and Rosemary Leek.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Herbert Smith, Charles Lilley, James Curtis, Wesley Clark, Melvin Wellman and Cummer Lee. 'Father in Thy gracious keeping Leave me now Thy servant sleeping.'

'Life's work well done.'
