The Busy Bees Mission Band met on Saturday, January 5, at the Manse with 13 members answering the roll call. Mrs. Bowman presided. The scripture Matthew 2: 13, 15 was read by Isabel Leese, and Patricia Lund led in prayer. A party was presented to Catherine Johnson and a certificate to Phyllis Cooper. This being a work meeting, duffel bags were made by the older girls to be filled and sent to children in Europe and Japan. The smaller children made books and letter cards.

Community and School Club
The Community and School Club held its regular meeting in the school on Wednesday evening, January 2. This was a business meeting and it was decided to have a family supper on February 6.

Mrs. George Harrow has returned home after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Beaver, at Preston for Christmas, and at her son's, Mr. Jack Harrow, Burlington for New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meyer of Guelph visited with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Allen on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Price Erickson of Ottawa and their children, Adam, Danny and Abigail were Christmas visitors at Millpond Farm, home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dinick. The family, including their mother, Mrs. Louise Dinick, had their Christmas dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Dinick, Yonge Street. When Mr. and Mrs. Brown left for their train in Toronto they discovered that an important package containing valuable bedding had been lost from their car on the trip to the city. They will have received the package ere now however, as luckily it was found by Frank Armstrong Jr., who found it on the 3rd con., King, near the railway track.

Mr. and Mrs. James Armstrong enjoyed Christmas Day with their daughters and their husbands, who came up from Toronto to visit their parents. They were Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Small and baby daughter, Pauline. As Pauline is the only grandchild still very new, she was greatly admired. Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong did a nice job of decorating their house, 'King Villa', with Christmas lights that gave pleasure to travellers on the road.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Noel, 5th concession, King, spent New Year's holiday in Detroit visiting Mr. Noel's uncle and other relatives who were there from New Brunswick.

There were many house parties in the village and near the village during the holiday week. Some who entertained were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hood, Mr. and Mrs. James Keens, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Scott, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Phair and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Phair.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dinick were in the Laurentians for Christmas week and New Year's Day. They report that the skiing was wonderful but all things it rained on New Year's Eve.

At the pantomime, Mother Goose at Eaton Auditorium one afternoon, we saw Mrs. John Belknap and her two boys, Ricky and Shane enjoying the wonderful show. Another lady from King City also attending the pantomime was Mrs. E. B. Phair.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fleet entertained fifteen friends and neighbors at their home on New Year's Eve. Guests were present from Toronto and Aurora. Mrs. Fleet's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Cuthbertson of Bowmanville were also present. Mrs. Cuthbertson was an honored guest, as she was celebrating her birthday as well as the birthday of 1952.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Cuthbertson and their two sons of Bowmanville spent the New Year week-end with Mrs. Cuthbertson's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wood, 4th con., King.

This correspondent must thank Bert Archibald very much for pulling her name from the box at King City Cold Storage on New Year's Eve, which made her the winner of the grand prize, a little table model radio, made by Firestone. On the same evening Mrs. Matt Bell was named winner of the December prize, which was an electric teakettle. This contest has been part of King City's attractions since October, when three monthly prizes and a grand prize were announced. In October, Mrs. Lockhart was the winner of the first prize of an electric pop-up toaster. Then Miss Lay Judge won the electric heating pad in November. Mrs. Bell is happy about winning the tea kettle and this correspondent is especially delighted with her surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Bell of Toronto were Christmas visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Bell. Mr. D. W. Bell who has been in the actuarial department of the Imperial Life Assurance Co., Toronto, for a number of years, has recently been appointed Underwriting Secretary of that company. He looks very much like his brother, our Matt Bell, manager of the local Bank of Commerce.

Dean Findlay has joined the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce and is living at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Verduin Gordon. Mr. Findlay comes to King from the Bank of Commerce at Woodville, Ont. Mrs. Rule who joined the bank staff in the autumn resigned two weeks before Christmas.

Mrs. W. H. Denton left on Monday for Ireland where she will visit before continuing to France where she will spend the winter. During her absence Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Aird will live in Mrs. Denton's house 'Cedarbrook', 3rd con., King.

Mrs. Gordon L. Cheesbrough of Montreal, arrived on Christmas night to spend two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Johnston, 'Sylvancrest'. Other holiday guests were Mrs. J. W. C. Wright of Hamilton who visited Mrs. Cheesbrough; Miss Anna Chalmers of Toronto, who was the special guest of Miss Gladys Johnston; and Ian Holden of Toronto, who visited Christopher Johnston.

Miss Dorothy Armstrong, who is organist and choir director First Avenue Baptist Church, Toronto, entertained the minister of the church, Rev. B. F. Rice and Mrs. Rice and the members of the choir at her home on the Friday of the holiday week. There were 40 guests who enjoyed a very happy evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Davis of Toronto are planning to move to Kinghorn in the near future to establish their permanent dwelling at Memory Acres. Extensive additions are being made to enlarge the present house that was built only a few years ago by the late Mr. Aubrey Davis. A 4-door garage and house for the chauffeur-handyman are also being built.

New Year's dinner was a happy one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Robson for they had a family gathering numbering 29, with them to begin the New Year. There are eight sons, two daughters and ten grandchildren in the Robson family and when they are all together it makes a party. The family who came home for New Year's were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Robson and their son and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Robson and their five children all of Maple; Mr. and Mrs. George Robson of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robson and daughter, also of Toronto; and Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Woods of Snowball.

Have you seen Mr. Walter Monkman Sr. out walking lately? He has been pushing a white sleigh with that dear little baby Wilson Lewis inside. Mr. Monkman, who has lived in King for 23 years, and who spent the last two years alone in his house, has had much entertainment this year, now that Baby Lewis and his parents, Dr. and Mrs. David Lewis are sharing his home temporarily. The baby is a lovely little fellow and as Mr. Monkman has never had a grandchild, he is playing 'granddad' with much enjoyment to himself and to the baby.

Weddings

MIDDLETON-THOMAS

A wedding was solemnized at Lady of Grace Church, Aurora, on Saturday morning, January 5, by Rev. Father Francis McGoe of St. Joseph's, when Joan Thomas, foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Marsh of 5th concession King, became the bride of Horace Middleton of Aurora.

The bride wore a graceful look of pale mauve taffeta, with overdress of net of paler shade, ballerina length. Her black hat was trimmed with mauve flowers and she wore a corsage of crimson roses. The wedding attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Matt Noel, and Mrs. Noel, as bridesmaid wore a navy blue dress, with white accessories, and a corsage of yellow tea roses. The wedding party held a wedding breakfast at the Greystones, following which the young couple left on a short honeymoon. They will make their home on Tyler Avenue, Aurora, on their return.

CROSSLEY-CAMPBELL

The United Church of King City decorated with Christmas greenery, poinsettia and silver bells was the setting of a Xmas wedding which took place on Saturday afternoon, December 29, when Shirley Eileen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Campbell, 5th con. Kinghorn, became the bride of Allen O. Crossley, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Crossley, of 'Faraway Close', King. The Rev. M. R. Jenkinson officiated. The pews were decorated with evergreens, tied with white ribbon. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Ewart Patton.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a beautiful gown of white lace over blush pink satin, made in bouffant style, with long sleeves, and dainty Peter Pan collar, and girle sash of white satin. Her finger tip veil was of white net, trimmed with a halo of net, and held by a satin bandeau. Her white bouquet was made of chrysanthemums and sprays of white heather. She was attended by her two sisters, who wore wine and olive green velvet gowns, made with short bolero jackets and velvet bonnets to match. Mrs. Ray Love of Toronto, as matron of honor wore wine and Miss Clara Campbell wore green. They carried bouquets of chrysanthemums in blending tones. The groom was attended by his brother, Daniel Crossley. The ushers were Raymond Love and Don Busby. During the signing of the register, Mr. Everett Wiltshire of Toronto sang 'Because' a reception was held in the church rooms, and the guests were received by the bride party. Mrs. Campbell, the bride's mother, wore grey, with corsage of mums. Mrs. Crossley wore navy blue, with corsage of roses. A Christmas dinner was served to the guests who numbered 60, at tables, decorated with Christmas trimmings.

Following the dinner, the wedding party and many of the guests were invited to 'The Barn', the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Weiss, where brightly lit Christmas trees on the lawn greeted them. After wedding photographs were taken, Mr. and Mrs. Weiss led off in a Paul Jones and dancing continued during a very happy evening. The square dances were called off by Fergie Lawson. A buffet supper was served in the dining room where silver Christmas trees were the interesting decorations.

The bride and groom left during the festivities on a motor honeymoon. The bride wore a teal blue dress under her grey coat for travelling. On their return they will live in the new house built on their farm on the 3rd con. King.
