 (Held from last week)
 Margaret Patterson entertained the junior girls of Buttonville school on Thursday after four. Betty Patterson entertained the Senior girls on Friday evening. All report a wonderful time.
 Mr. and Mrs. D. Hood had a family party during the holiday season in honour of Mr. and Mrs. John Clare of Preston (nee Mildred Thomson).
 Douglas Tribbling, George Hooper and Gordon Brumwell had a pleasant week at the Guelph O. A. C. during the Christmas holiday. They took a general farm course.
 Cubs have changed their meeting night from Monday to Thursday in Brown's Corners Church. Reason: the choir meets on Thursday evening and one fire will serve both. Boys in Victoria Square, Headford and Buttonville communities between the ages of 8 and 12 are invited to attend.
 The annual meeting of Brown's Corners United Church Sunday School was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boynton and Miss Ellen Boynton. Officers appointed were: Mr. N. Reid, superintendent; Miss E. Boynton, assistant superintendent; secretary, Mrs. J. Rodick; treasurer, Miss Mary Rodick; Bible class, Mr. W. Craig; Club 18, Miss E. Boynton; Girls, Miss Jocelyn Easton, Miss Anne Davies; boys Ross Horde; junior girls, Mrs. N. Reid; junior boys, Mrs. W. Rodick; primary, Miss A. Easton, Miss D. Hood, Mrs. R. Horde.
 The year was a very successful one showing an increase in attendance and also in the Sunday school collections.
 The W. I. of Buttonville catered to the Ayrshire Breeders at a noon luncheon on Tuesday, January 8.
 The Guernsey Breeders are also holding a banquet in January at Buttonville Hall.
 Winners in the Women's Institute euchre on Monday evening were Mrs. Adam Brown, Mrs. Russell Burr, Mrs. Jackson, Mr. Russell Burr, Lloyd Weatherill, Mr. Johnston. The next euchre will be held Monday, January 21.

 charge of the devotional period, 'The adventure of responsibility.' The annual reports were given at this meeting. The annual meeting of the Toronto East Presbytery is to be held Monday, February 9, at Donlands United Church. Mrs. M. Cooke and Mrs. A. McInnis were chosen as delegates. Rev. Butt presided over the installation service. The study book was taken by Mrs. F. Rae and was very informative also humorous and was enjoyed by all. She pointed out that our Indian brothers are often referred to as our first Canadians. That of course is correct, as it is between ten or fifteen thousand years ago or probably longer since they first came. At the close of the meeting a very lovely lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. William Young and Mrs. Willoughby Perkins.
 Charles James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl James has undergone two operations in the East General Hospital. We are very glad to hear he is now improving and we hope he may soon be home again.
 This month the Women's Institute meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. Champion on No. 7 Highway. The president Mrs. Clark Young presiding opened the meeting with the singing of the Ode. The secretary Mrs. Perkins gave a financial report stating there was the sum of $170 clear on hand in the bank account. A letter from Mr. Hugh McInnis of Korea was read thanking the members for the box which he had received from them at Christmas. A collection of woools will be taken in May for the making of blankets.
 Mr. and Mrs. Saunders Findlay of Thornhill visited at the home of his sister Mrs. Rainey on Friday evening.
 Mrs. M. Minton and friend were visitors at Guelph on Tuesday of last week.
 The Junior Farmers held their annual New Years Party in the Buttonville Hall on Wednesday, January 2. There were games and dancing to records played over a P.A. system and a delightful lunch of sandwiches, cake and coffee, at the close. Mr. Ted Gough and charge of the meeting.
 Mrs. Robert Duffield who has been ill at her home here has gone to the home of Mrs. Phillips on No. 7 Highway, where Mrs. Phillips is nursing her.
 Mr. C. Weir and daughter, Eliza Beth and Mrs. Rainey visited in Toronto on Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. David MacKinlay.

 Mrs. T. Burnett who has been on the sick list we are glad to report is now feeling some better.
 Mrs. W. Sellars who has not been feeling well has been spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. G. Ogden.
 Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Easton were in Detroit for the week-end visiting Mrs. Easton's brother, Mr. Caswell who is very ill.
 Miss Jocelyn Easton has returned to Kemptville Agricultural School where she is in her second year.
W.M.S.
 On Wednesday, January 9, the W.M.S. of Brown's Corners met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Baker with thirty ladies present. The committee in charge were Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Wilkins, Mrs. Oakes and Mrs. Craig. Mrs. Roddick presided with Mrs. English as president.
 Mrs. Craig led in the devotional with the theme "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord." Mrs. Miller, Miss Nancy Spears and Mrs. James Rodick also took part.
 Mrs. Stephenson sang the lovely solo "The Gift."
 The study book was led by Mrs. Oakes with Mrs. Wilkins and Mrs. Craig assisting. We were taken to Mission centres doing rescue and redemptive work across Canada — to Halifax, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver, Hymns "Lord of the Lands" and "Jesus shall reign" were sung.
 Mrs. Rodick then took charge of the business. A committee was placed in charge of the CGIT supper on Monday evening in Brown's Corners United Church.
 Mrs. Baker was chosen as leader of the work group; a pot luck supper and quilting was decided for the day of the annual meeting. All members and adherents of the church are invited to have supper at the church that evening.
 The Harmony Group planned a luncheon for Tuesday, January 29 at the home of Mrs. G. Purvis.
 Mrs. N. Reid and Mrs. W. Craig were appointed as delegates to attend the Toronto Centre Presbytery in Toronto on January 22.
 The meeting ended with the hostesses serving lunch.
 Euchre in Buttonville Hall on Monday, January 21.
Injured
 On Monday evening during the fog, Mr. Watson of the Brookes sub-division was wiping his windshield when he was struck by a passing car, hurled some 20 ft., and seriously injured.
