Home & School Association
Dr. Stewart MacGregor was guest speaker at the Home and School meeting on January 17. His subject "Your Child's Teeth" was of general interest as shown by the large attendance of parents. He spoke of the grave consequences to children's teeth due to eating too many candies and maintained that the large amount of sugar consumed by people today was not needed for body energy but only helped tooth decay. The effects of this sugar diet could be minimized by brushing the teeth after each meal and was strongly urged by the Doctor. Dr. MacGregor concluded his talk with the showing of films on tooth decay and its prevention.

A reproduction of an oil painting by Fred Haines "Cathedral Mountains" was donated to the school by the Home and School Association. This picture is to hang in the classroom having the most parents in attendance at the meeting for that month. Grades 5 and 6 were the winners for this month. The meeting concluded with the serving of coffee and cookies by the social committee.

Three flannel baby gowns and one and a half dozen diapers, as well as several individual donations were given for the layette in the W.M.S. bazaar. Wedding gifts were given to Mrs. Eric Hook and to Mrs. Bernar Kirst. They also assisted substantially at the 101st anniversary supper on May 29 with the serving and the provisions, as this was also a get-acquainted meeting for newcomers. The success of the annual bazaar was due in no small measure to Fortnighters. Over $160.00 was added to their funds. The other half of the bazaar proceeds goes to the W.A.

At a painting bee held at the Church last spring, members of the Fortnighter's Club painted the new kitchen table and shelves and the trestles for the long tables. At a December meeting ladies of the club made fifty odd canvas bags to hold oranges and candies to be given to the children at the Christmas party.

The Secretary's report closed with an expression of thanks to the Misses Walsh who have so frequently opened their home for the meetings.

"Jasper, if you hit that goal you'll pay me six dollars. There it goes. Jasper, after this show you pay me six dollars. Jasper look out, you'll run over me! You boys get him out of here. Jasper look out for the fence."
