A baking sale sponsored by the Sunday School of Maple United Church, under the convensorship of Mrs. John Leece, on Saturday afternoon, January 19, was a decided success. The sum of $75 was realized. Other members of the committee were: Mrs. Harry Jennings, Mrs. Neil Woods, Mrs. Albert Bowes and Mrs. Norman Payne.

Obituary

The village of Maple and district were saddened on Monday, January 14, by the sudden death of Norman D. McCullough, who passed away at his home here.

The late Mr. McCullough was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William McCullough, Toronto, and was born in Lefroy in 1921, coming to Maple about fifteen years ago.

He was a member of Maple Fire Brigade, a Lion and an ardent hunter. Left to mourn his loss are his widow the former Marion Robson, his son Terry and daughter Nancy, his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William McCullough, Toronto; his sisters and one brother, Mrs. William Hamilton, Toronto; Mrs. James Gibb, Vancouver, Jean Maria, Mildred and Gordon, all at home.

Funeral service was held from his home on Thursday at 3 p.m. with interment at Maple Cemetery. Pall bearers were Allan Moore, Dr. Clem Reeds, Lloyd Palmer, Hadwin Kyle, Jack Lown and George Calder.

The sympathy of Maple community goes to the family of the late Mrs. Mary Ann Jane Leonard who passed away suddenly at her home at 245 Pacific Avenue, Toronto. She was the wife of Joseph Edgar West, formerly of Grand Valley where she had lived before coming to Teston ten years ago.

Mrs. West was well known in this community and district having owned and operated the general store in Teston.

Left to mourn her passing are her husband Joseph West, her son Leonard of London and her daughters, Mrs. Tilley (Mildred) and Mrs. Wilson (Almeda) of Maple, Mrs. Marshall (Adeline) Toronto, Mrs. Bruce (Forestine) Grand Valley. Funeral service was from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wilson, Maple, with interment in Grand Valley, Saturday at 2.30 p.m.

The Busy Bees Mission Band met on Saturday, January 19, at the manse. The scripture was read by Isabella Leece with Janet McCowan taking up the offering. The roll call was responded to by giving the names of a place in South America.

Patricia Lund favored the group with a piano solo. A new song "The Flowers That In The Garden Grow" was learned. A story out of the new study book was read by Mrs. Bowman. Nora Lund led in prayer and the meeting closed with the benediction.

Boys' Basketball
On Wednesday, January 9, Bathurst Heights again brought two basketball teams to R.H.D.H.S., to win the two games played. In the first game, Richmond Hill Junior B's played Bathurst Heights midgets. Our team was thoroughly outplayed and outscored. The final score was 53-13. There isn't much to say about the game in our favor. Henson, a Bathurst Heights player, paced his team by scoring 18 points. Running second was Cleandinning with 11.

Our senior team was also thoroughly beaten. The score was 50-20. Twelve of our points were scored on foul shots while only four field goals were tallied, two by Creelman and one each by Murchison and Jarrett. The seniors now have a new coach in the person of Mr. Thomasson who is doing a good job with what material he has.

Inter-Form
Inter-form basketball has started for the grade 9's. There are 8 teams with 4 in each of the two leagues. They play half-court basketball so they can have more games.

The North York League started with Richmond Hill playing at Newmarket on January 15. Games scheduled for R.H.D.H.S. are:
